Why Not Make Clothing Comparisons?

Have you ever taken the trouble to compare clothing stocks, to examine the qualities and styles of what is offered here and around town? You'll find it very interesting and profitable to do so. Examine the quality of material, the style and fit of each garment, the tailoring and every detail of the making or finish. Then decide where the best clothing is to be found. After that consider the stocks as a whole. Find out where you can make the best selection, get the largest variety of styles, invest your money to have the biggest returns. We're quite willing to undergo the test in any way you like, and you may be sure we'll do all we can to help you make an intelligent comparison.

To-morrow (Saturday) is Clothing Day.

MCKENDRY'S BEAUTIFUL MILLINERY.

A Magnificent Display of Very High Class Novelties.

Although the weather has been anything but encouraging for shoppers, the new store of McKendry & Co. has been filled with the elite of Toronto, brought hither by the announcement of the firm's move to the new store at 100 King-street.

The main floor is principally devoted to colored millinery, a separate department for mourning goods having been opened on the first floor. On entering one is amazed at the remarkable number of elegant patterns displayed in show cases and on the tables.

One of the saleswomen, who is a graduate of the firm's millinery school, remarked: "Enough to make a woman of half a dozen ordinary millinery stores." Sufficient range of color is to be worn to enable any woman to choose a shade suitable to her own complexion or to match her dress.

"The," a creamy color with a touch of pink, rose and dull pink, pale heliotrope, fawn, grey, bright red, blue and turquoise.

These colors seem to lead the van, the shapes are quite flat, the trimmings being of various materials, with soft silks and other light materials.
