

IX. That for the still further promotion of the circulation of the Scriptures, it is expedient to encourage the formation of Branch Societies within the sphere of this Auxiliary, in such places as may not be sufficiently populous to form Auxiliary Societies of their own; such Branch Societies, and the individual Members thereof, to be entitled to the same privileges from the Auxiliary Society as it and its individual Members enjoy from the Parent Institution.

X. That such persons as may not find it convenient to become Members of the Auxiliary Society, or any one of its Branches, shall, upon forming themselves into Bible Associations, and sending a copy of their rules to the Committee, be entitled to purchase at the Depository of this Society under the direction of the Committee, copies of the Scriptures on the same terms as subscribers to the Auxiliary.

XI. That all Clergymen and other Ministers within the sphere of this Society, making collections in their respective congregations in behalf of the Institution, shall be entitled, on remitting such collections to the Treasurer of this Society, to receive Bibles and Testaments to an amount not exceeding one half of the said respective collections, at the Society's lowest prices, as shall be found to be needed by the poor in the vicinity; such return of Bibles and Testaments to be claimed within one year from the remittance of the collection. It is recommended in all practicable cases, to supply the poor by sale rather than by gift.

XII. That a general Meeting of the Subscribers be held on the second Tuesday of August* in each year, when the Accounts shall be presented, the proceedings of the past year stated, a new Committee appointed, and a Report agreed upon, to be printed under the direction of the Committee, and circulated among the Members.

XIII. That in the formation of the new Committee, the President, Vice Presidents, Treasurer, Secretaries, Depository, and such three-fourths of the other Members as have most frequently attended the Committee, shall be re-eligible for the ensuing year.
