He also attacked the colonial system, declaring that France spent $16,000,000 annually on her colonies, and obtained nothing except an increase in exports, with a profit of perhaps $4,000,000. There was, in fact, no French colonization at all, but only a military occupation. While the army cost $200,000,000, and the debt another $200,000,000, he entirely disbelieved in the wisdom of spending $16,000,000 for the pleasure of ruling foreign populations.

London, Jan. 23 .- A decree has been signed, appointing Gen. Lord Kitchener governor-general of the Soudan.

The limits of the territory involved in the convention between Great Britain and Egypt are variously defined. It is the district lying south of the Sahara Desert and north of the Congo basin. On the eastern boundry lie the highlands of Abyssinia, while Senegambia forms its western border. The Egyptian Soudan has an area of not less than 2,000,000 square miles, and a population of about 90,000,000.

disturbance was felt yesterday morning about half-past 9 o'clock through-out the Peloponnesus (the southern portion of the kingdom of Greece), especially in the southwestern departments of the peninsula. All the houses in the town of Philiatra, in the department of Messenia, on the Ionian coast, have been damaged, and the inhabitants are now camping out in the suburbs. Two villages in the vicinity of Philiatra were completely destroyed, many people being slightly injured. The willage of Kyparssia and Staso were also ractically destroyed, though it is not known as yet whether there were any victims there. Much damage to property was done at Navarino, a seaport six miles north of Modon, and considerable damage is reported from Calitra, capital of the department of Messenia, near the head of the Gulf of Koron. The shock was also felt very severely at Zante, capital of the Ionian Island of that name, but there was no loss of life or property there. Many slighter shocks occurred during the day.

Herr Richter declared those measures contrary to the convictions of the ministers, but due directly to the orders of the kaiser. Prof. Delbreuck formed intimate relations with Emperor William when the professor was tutor to the emperor's brother, Sigsmund, who died in 1897. The charge illustrates the emperor's intolerance of criticism, even when made with obviously friendly intentions, as in Delbrueck's case.

Serious Character of the Coming Crisis in France.

Both Sides of the Quesnay de Beaurepaire Feature of the Dreyfus

Case.

New York, Jan. 23.-The World prints today two interviews, giving both sides of the Quesnay de Beaurepaire feature of the Dreyfus affair. The item follows: orially Angio-French relations, hints Paris, Jan. 22.-The decision of the court of cassation in the Dreyfus case, to be made known in a couple of weeks, is likely to produce a crisis, ending in Athens, Jan. 23.-A strong seismic revolution. No event in the whole scandal has created a deeper impression than the resonation of Quesnay de Beaurepaire from the court of cassation. With the object of ascertaining views of the most prominent and active men on each side on Beaurepaire's conduct, and the general out-100k, the correspondent obtained signed statements from Francis de Pressense and Lucien Millevoye. Pressense is one of the ablest and most respected of French publicists. He is the editor of the Temps, the leading paper, who was removed from the Legion of Honor for his fearless advocacy of Dreyfus' case. He writes:

REASON FOR BEAUREPAIRE'S CONDUCT.

"The true reason for Beaurepaire's conduct is the most scandalous feature of the present deplorable crisis, is his irritation against the government on account of the humiliation it subjected him to ten months ago, when, at its instance, during the Panama business, he was brought before a meeting of the court of cassation, "Probably, also, Beaurepaire will derive from the Echo de Paris better pay than he received from the court of cas-sation. "Another reason given by friends anxious to excuse him is that he is suffering from incipient intellectual derangement. "There is a plot on foot-not a military plot, but simply to discredit the court of cassation. They wish to prevent the judgment of acquittal, which would be a condemnation of the war

'That the result anticipated has not followed Beaurepaire's action was prov-ed by last Thursday's vote in the chamber, and today's, in rejecting Faure's demand for permission to interpellate on the trial of Picquart. "It is a great crisis. The whole forces of reaction are seeking under the mask of nationalism to defeat justice."

"A judgment decreeing Dreyfus's innocence will be accepted by public opinion when that opinion is informed of all the reasons on wnich it is based. I do not know what will be the judgment of the court of cassation, but from documents I and my friends have

THE OTHER SIDE. Lucien Millvoye is the most energetic of the extreme anti-Dreyfus agreators.

"Beaurepaire, a thorough patriot, resigned because he was indignant at seeing certain magistrates of the court of cassation making themselves instruments of an international and antinational campaign. His declarations have already produced a result by holding in suspense the decision of the criminal chamber.

"The resignation has profoundly moved opinion. The partiality of the court is evident, and a judgment rendered under such conditions will not be ratified by public conscience.

'If the criminal chamber remits the case to a new court-martial, France will wait that solution, but if it should dare to annul without remitting, the agitation will assume grave proportions among the people, and in the Big Spanish Flag Captured Froma Schooner in Havana Harbor.

LESSON IN MANNERS

New York, N. Y., Jan. 23.-A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says: Captain Eaton, of the auxiliary cruiser Resolute, captured a 20-foot Spanish flag in the harbor today, and incidentally taught 30 Spaniards a lesson in manners. At 10 o'clock this morning a Spanish schooner of about 70 tons sailed alongside the Resolute, where it hove to, and with a cheer of defiance from the men on board, an immense Spanish flag was run up to the masthead, with the Cuban flag beneath it. Captain Eaton was forced to recognize the insult, and ordered Naval Cadet Tarrant and Marine Officer Thorpe, with a file of marines, into a steam launch, which speedily overtook the Spaniards. The captain refused the order to lower the flag, whereupon the marines went aboard, and took forcible possession of the flag, leaving the Cuban flag flying at the masthead. The occupants of the schooner were then compelled to give three cheers for the Cuban and American flags, after which the vessel was allowed to proceed. The captured flag will be held as a prize.

RUN DOWN

Fatal Disaster in San Francisco Harbor-A Survivor of the Paul Jenes.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 23.—The naptha launch William D. was run down and sunk by the steam ferryboat Oakland in the bay yesterday. Two lives were lost. The dead are: J. Otis Wattles, marine engineer, son of a San Francisco broker; and Frank E. Orr, of this city. Wattles disappeared when the launch went down, and his body has not been recovered. The launch, when rur. down, was in search of a boat containing two men, supposed to have been drowned. These are William Seabury, son of Captain Seabury, of the Mail Steamship Company's Pacific steamer China, and Edward J. Finn, who started out last Friday on a hunting expedition. Later in the day the boat in which Seabury and Finn went hunting was found bottom up off Bed Rock, near the mouth of the Sacramento River, and it is believed both men have been drowned. New Orleans, La., Jan. 23.-Rev. Edward H. Budd, who was thought to have been lost on the Paul Jones, is alive. The vessel was detained in Pass a L'Outre so long by foggy weather, that Mr. Budd grew impatient, and left the party, returning here. Mr. Jones, the owner of the yacht, has carefully examined all the wreckage found, and has come to the conclusior that the explosion theory is correct.
