Return of Gen. Kitchener
From Fashoda

After Hoisting the Union Jack and Egyptian Colors.

Fag End of the Khalifa's Army Wiped Out.

The Situation in China Becomes Serious.

Important Movement of British Warships in the Far East.

The Powers Decide to "Pacify Crete" and Oeuvre the Sultan-Fleets to be Sent to the Dardanelles and Beyond if Necessary-Vesuvius Belching Lava-The Great Eruption of 1892 Will Probably be Equalled.

London, Sept. 26.-Gen. Kitchener, commanding the Anglo-Egyptian expedition, has returned to Omdurman, having established posts at Fashoda and on the Sobat River. The troops did no fighting, except with a dervish steamer on the way south, which was captured.

The Daily Telegraph's Cairo correspondent, telegraphing today (Monday) says Gen. Kitchener found the French at Fashoda. He notified Major Marchand that he had express instructions that the territory was British, and that the French must retire, and offered them passage to Cairo. Major Marchand absolutely declined to retire unless ordered to do so by his government. No fighting occurred. Major Marchand was given clearly to understand that the territory was British.

and that the rest had been left to be settled by diplomacy between the respective governments. Gen. Kitchener sent a long official dispatch to London, HOISTED THE UNION JACK and the Egyptian ensign, and left as a garrison the 11th and 13th Soudanese battalions and the Cameron Highlanders to protect the British flag. Col.

Jackson commands the garrison.

ANOTHER BRITISH VICTORY.
Suakin, Sept. 26.-The only organized remnant of the Khalifa's army was defeated, and its last stronghold, Gedaref, captured on Sept. 22, after three hours' hard fighting, when an Egyptian force, numbering 1,300, under command of Col. Parsons, routed 3,000 dervishes, of whom 500 were killed.
Seven Egyptian officers were wounded, and 87 Egyptian soldiers killed and 60 wounded.

IN THE FAR EAST

The Situation Grows Serious-Important British Naval Movements.

Shanghai, Sept. 26.-The British consul here has entered a protest against the action of the Chinese officials in stopping the steamer Eldorado and searching her for Kang, the Canton reformer. It is reported that Admiral Seymour, the British naval commander, contemplates landing a party of sailors and marines at Taku. The British consul has asked the assistance of the British consul in capturing Kang, whom he describes as a degraded criminal. There is no doubt that if he is arrested he will be promptly executed.

IMPORTANT NAVAL MOVEMENT.
Wei Hai Wei, Sept. 26.-The British battleship Centurion, flagship of Vice-Admiral Sir Edward H. Seymour, the commander of the British fleet in Chinese waters, sailed suddenly yesterday under sealed orders, accompanied from Che Foo by the battleship Victorious, the first-class cruiser Narci-sus, the second-class cruiser Hermoine, the torpedo boat destroyer Fame, the torpedo boat destroyer Hart, and the dispatch boat Alacrity. It is supposed that the destination of the fleet is Taku, at the entrance of the river leading to Tien Tsin, the port of Peking, for the purpose of making a naval demonstration.

KANG INTERVIEWED.
London, Sept. 26.-The Times Shanghai correspondent telegraphs: On the arrival of Kang Yuwai at Wu Hung, he was placed for safety on board the steamer Ballarat, which sails for Hong Kong tomorrow. In the course of an interview yesterday he informed me that he left Peking on Tuesday, in compliance with a secret message from the emperor, warning him of his danger, and urging him to obtain assistance from those interested in the country's welfare. He further stated that recent events were entirely due to the action of the Manchuria party, aided by the dowager empress and Viceroy Yung Lu, and including all the high Manchuria officials. The latter were displeased by the emperor's leaning toward the reform party, and decided by an understanding with the Russians, whereby the latter, in consideration of the support of Russian interests, undertakes to preserve Manchuria as the seat of the dynasty and to maintain Manchuria rule in China. In pursuance of this compact this gradual substitution of Manchus in all high offices and military commands began last year under the direction of the dowager, thus creating a series of frictions with the emperor, whose determination was frequently threatened.

MANCHUS VS. CHINESE.
The present movement is entirely Manchu as opposed to Chinese. The influence of Li Hung Chang is now subordinate to that of Yung Lu, and is likely to decrease. The emperor's health is excellent, and his capacity for work and eagerness for progress are remarkable. His majesty is convinced, however, that it will be impossible to overcome the opposition without the assistance of England, which he endeavored to obtain for a recent proposal to restore the regency of the dowager.
The dowager empress' party is bound to intervene and restore the emperor to the throne, by doing which, he asserts, she will earn the gratitude of the Chinese people. He also observes that unless protection is afforded to the victims of the coup d'etat, it will be impossible for any future official to support British interests.

LI'S RIVAL ARRESTED
The Times' Peking correspondent says Chang Yin Huan, the Cantonese enemy and rival of Li Hung Chang, who is charged with harboring Kang Yuwai, has been arrested. He is under trial by the board of punishment.
He will be stripped of all his offices, his removal giving increased power to Li Hung Chang. The officials generally welcome the emperor's return to power, but the people are indifferent. Kang Yuwai is charged with conspiring against the emperor's dowager, and has been declared an outlaw, and his arrest has been ordered.

A special dispatch from Shanghai says that Kang Yuwai's brother has been arrested in Peking and condemned to death. The dispatch says that Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister, gave instructions that Kang Yuwai should be protected from arrest.
The British consulate holds his baggage and documents referring to state secrets. The Russians are incensed at the latter fact, and the British are charged with offering the dowager empress the services of 10,000 troops from Port Arthur to keep order in Peking, is necessary.

GOT AWAY.
Shanghai, Sept. 26.-It is reported that Kang Yuwai, the Cantonese reformer, who is accused by the British empress of being implicated in designs on the emperor's life, and who recently fled from Peking, arrived at Woo Sung, near here, today, and took refuge on board a British gunboat.

SERIOUS RUMORS.
Berlin, Sept. 26.-The Frankfort Zei-tung's Tien-Tsin correspondent says that railroad communication between that place and Peking is stopped.
There are serious rumors concerning the situation in the capital.

London, Sept. 26.-A dispatch to the Central News from Peking says that the emperor is in good health, but is much disturbed at the realization of the existence of a conspiracy against him. The European community in Peking believe that the life of the emperor is in danger. He is no match for the wily dowager empress,
