USED THEIR CLUBS DOWNED RICHMOND

Eleven Hits Gave Leafs an Easy Victory-Four Pitchers Take Part.

Our boys are home again and yesterday's little argument at the Island Stadium settled up many an old score. Richjum settled up many an old score. Richmond treated our noble athletes rather roughly in the Virginia capital, but all is revenged. Long McKenery, the Bird that trimmed us twice, got a nice lambasting yesterday and we came out on top 9 to 4.

It was about the busiest afternoon the local fans have had in weeks. Everything on the card was crowded into an hour and fifty minutes and every body was satisfied. Who said we were in a batting slump? The Leafs knocked the old red apple around the lot yesterday as if they had made that their daily occupation. Eleven safe raps, with a homer and two half way slaps 'Acluded, is enough to satisfy the most rabid fan. We started out like winners, let the visitors pass us and then just pulled away from them with ease to rub it in. McKee, he of the red head, came along with a four-corner smash with two men on base. It was a time to cheer. Mr. Frank Truesdale had three trips around the paths on singles, Manager Joe had two hits, one of them a double, in as many trips to the plate, and good old Lena Blackburne connected three times. A nice afternoon of rapping.

McTigue started for us, but the enemy got altogether too familiar with his shoots in the fifth and he was replaced by Manning. McKenery retired after McKee lifted one over the right field bleachers in the fifth. He had plenty in this time.

Mokes little one over the light had plenty in this time.

It was a queer old game. Talk about excitement, well, one man took a fit in the stand and he had to be carried out on a stretcher still squirming. Oh, yes, we started nicely. Truesdale beat out a bounder to deep short and the fun was on right in the first round. Manager Joe called for the hit and run and neatly bounded one down the third base line for two sacks and our first run was in before you knew it. McTigue mowed the enemy down and we came back with another in the fourth. Thompson got on free, went to third by fast sprinting on Blackburne's single into right territory and came home when McKee laid down a bunt and beat it out. The Richmond crowd were so anxious to scoop up the little tap that they left first base uncovered.
