LEAFS' NEW CATCHER.

It was announced yesterday morning that Catcher Blackburn had been secured from the Chicago National League Club by the Torontos, and will report here today or Wednesday. Blackburn was formerly in this league with Providence but was sold by the Grays to the Boston Nationals, from whom the Cubs secured him. The Leafs also have a line on another pitcher and outfielder, whom they expect to secure any day.

The league will get going on Saturday, May 19, with Nationals meeting Royal Canadians at 2.15 p.m. and Athletics hooking up with Broadview at 4 p.m. on the Queen Alexandra school grounds on Broadview avenue. All the officers have promised their full support and patronage, and everything looks good for a prosperous season.
