Ottawa, March 15.—(By Canadian Press.)—Hon. Charles Marcil, Bon-

Winnipeg. March 15.—Light receipts over the week-end resulted in only 164 cattle, 500 hogs and 169 sheep being unloaded this morning.

Trading this morning was fairly active on the light supply of cattle on hand, the bulk of receipts being composed of common to medium grades of butcher cattle, which were taken up at steady prices.

One load of reod sheep passed over the scales at $13, while a load of young lambs changed hands at $15.

The hog market was again unsettled and, as there was only a limited number for disposal, bidding was keen and quotations were fully 50c stronger, with prospects of a still further advance.
