There is still no navigation for schooners across Cape Chignecto. The ice is still packed in pretty solid at the head of the bay, and a week or two may elapse before it has drifted out. Traffic is necessarily much impeded.

No word has been received as yet from Ottawa in answer to the customs officials petition for a dinner hour, which was recently taken from them. They claim that the public business is in no way interfered with. They have now a dining room going in full blast.

A SNEAK THIEF.

Smooth Gentleman From Boston in the Hands of the Police.

A sneak thief was discovered last night on board schooner "Agnes May", lying at Lawton's wharf. Investigation was made by Felix McNulty, one of the vessel's crew.

The thief gave his name as Lennan, but the name recorded on the police book is James Callum. When brought into court this morning the prisoner pleaded not guilty and was remanded. He will probably be placed on board the "Orleans" or one of the Atlantic liners as fireman.

The money was taken in the case, and the evidence showed that Callum boarded the schooner "Agnes May" yesterday morning, and entered the cabin where Felix McNulty found him handling some clothing. He informed the mate, Frank Brown, who, upon examining his clothing, found that about thirty coats had been taken from the pockets of his trousers.

When asked what he was doing on board the schooner, Callum said he had a pair of boots for sale.

The schooner, who is a native of Boston, informed the court that he was a seaman by occupation, and had discharge papers which he produced. He worked his way to St. John on steamer "Napier" and having no money, wanted to dispose of the boots. He decided taking the money and said he was only peddling by the thing to get out of the cabin. He is a mother and two sisters partially depending on him for support.

THE CIVIC ELECTION.
Polls Will Remain Open Until Six O'clock This Year.

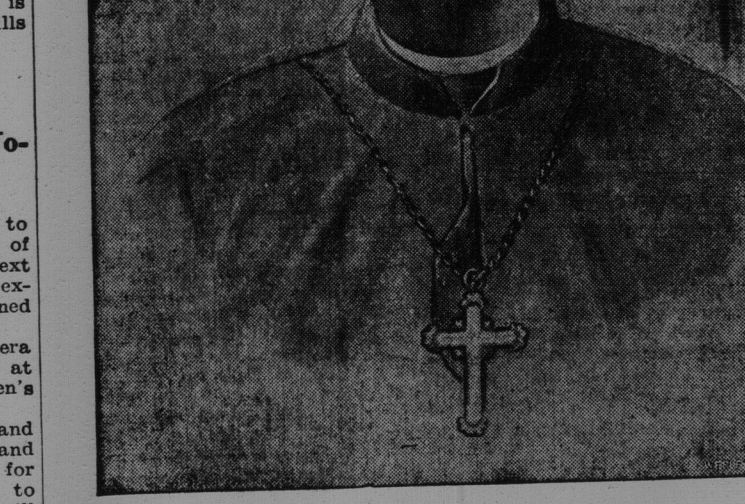

Tuesday next is election day and it is certainly amusing how the aldermen, who are opposed, are bustling around. The glad hand is in evidence, and the best of wishes are exchanged. Occasionally a man is contentious enough to say "I can't vote for you." This emphatic statement is certainly more appreciated by a candidate than "well I'll see."

The aldermen elected by acclamation over until after the election. This year the polls open at 8 o'clock and close at 6 o'clock. Previously they opened at the same hour and closed at 4 o'clock.

IMMIGRANTS PASS THROUGH.
This morning at 9.30 o'clock a special train with 350 immigrants from the Virginian passed through the city. One of the passengers spoke very highly of the boat and the accommodations provided. The second train with 505 passengers will arrive this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the third with 490 will reach here at 6 o'clock tonight.

The new engine, 815, brought in the train this morning. Driver P. Bellevue was at the throttle and Conductor Clarke in charge.

Hints to Pipe-Smokers.
Always fill a pipe with a little hump in the centre of the bowl and light this. Get a good supply of Kowanza, Ill., and M. A. Call, of Toledo, O., and for the suffering inflicted on C. E. Torrington of Salem, Ohio, and H. E. Miller, of Los Angeles, Calif., by Yaqui Indians on January 19 last. Torrington, one of the survivors of the massacre by Yaquis in the state of Sonora, Mexico, and that a claim of $100,000 worth of the loss for each of the four victims slain, and $25,000 each would be demanded by Miller and himself because of the terrible experience through which they passed.
