

columns seated on brick or stone, and in no case on story posts or other timber supports.

26. Shop windows or fronts not to project more than six inches from the wall of the building.

27. Cranes or hoisting jibs to be wholly constructed of iron, or other incombustible material.

28. No covered gallery or verandah, constructed of wood or other combustible material, to be erected in connexion with buildings of first or second class, or with any other than the ground floor thereof, unless as a communication from one to another stack of buildings, with its ends only abutting on said buildings.

29. Buildings of first, second and third class, being erected on the line of any public street or way, or within seven feet of such, to be properly enclosed, and a pathway of sufficient width laid for the convenience of the public outside such enclosure.

30. The Common Council to appoint a city surveyor,* to oversee the erection of all buildings within the before-described limits, and to enforce the provisions of this act with regard to the same; and to be entitled to demand and receive from the owner of such building so built, altered or reconstructed, the following fees, that is to say:—For every first-rate building, 25s.; every alteration or addition, 7s. 6d.; every second-rate, 20s.; every alteration or addition, 6s. 3d.; every third-rate, 15s.; every alteration or addition, 5s.; every fourth-rate, 12s. 6d.; every alteration or addition, 5s.; every fifth-rate, 10s.; every alteration or addition, 5s.

31, 32 & 33. No iron-foundries, furnaces, blacksmith's shops or steam engines to be erected, set up or worked within any part of said limits, without leave of the Common Council, by resolution thereof. Persons erecting such buildings, and others using them, without such authority, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, shall subject themselves to a daily penalty, for every day the premises shall be so used.

34. Without permission of the Council, as aforesaid, no person to establish or carry on any manufactory of varnish, fire-works, or any manufactory dangerous as causing or promoting fires.

35. Steamers, when at any of the docks or wharves in front of the city, to have a top or screen attached to their chimneys, to prevent the escape of sparks.

36. No person to have or keep a larger quantity than twenty-eight pounds of gunpowder in one place longer than forty-eight hours, except in a powder magazine approved of by the Common Council; said twenty-eight pounds to be put in stone jars or tin canisters of seven pounds each.

37. The city surveyor, when directed by the mayor or any alderman, to examine all fire-places, hearths, ovens, boilers, furnaces, stoves, stovepipes or other places where fires are made or kept, or where ashes are kept, and report thereon to the mayor or presiding alderman; and, under their direction, if the same be dangerous, to notify the owner, occupier or party using the building where such danger is apprehended, to discontinue or remove such fire or ashes. If such notification be not immediately attended to, the city surveyor shall, under the direction of the mayor, employ the necessary aid and assistance in removing the same. Parties so neglecting or refusing, &c., as aforesaid, or obstructing the city surveyor in such removal, to forfeit such penalty as the mayor or convicting alderman shall deem meet.

38. Any person found guilty of any infraction of the provisions of this act, shall, on conviction before the mayor or one or more of the aldermen of the city, forfeit and pay, at their discretion, a sum of money not exceeding 5l. or less than 5s. for each offence, or for each day such offence shall continue. In default of payment of such fine and costs, or of sufficient distress being found to satisfy the same, it shall be lawful for the mayor, or alderman as aforesaid, to commit the offender or offenders to the common jail of the county of York for any period not exceeding one calendar month.

An Act to regulate the Public Markets of the City of Toronto.

[CONDENSED.]

[Passed January 19, 1886.]

The preamble of the Bill states the necessity of amending the laws then in force for regulating the Public Markets, and reducing the same into one act.

Sec. 1. Repeals all former acts relating to the Public Markets.

2. Butchers and others using the Public Markets now or hereafter to be established within the city, to be subject to the regulations contained in this act.

3. Butchers to be licensed by the Mayor. Every person selling meat in less quantity than by the quarter, to be deemed a butcher.

4. No Ox, Cow, Heifer, Steer, Hog, Calf, Sheep or Lamb to be slaughtered within the city.

* Present City Surveyor, J. G. Howard, Esq.
