

NO MORE SUNDAY BALL THIS YEAR, SAYS MACK

POLICE ALLOW PHILADELPHIA GAME YESTERDAY

White Sox Manager Not Called on to Produce Injunction

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Philadelphia has gained a new prominence in sports, with a heavyweight boxing bout added to its Sesqui-centennial celebration, and a baseball game played on Sunday without police interference.

According to Connie Mack, there will be no more Sunday baseball this season, because of schedule difficulties, but that of yesterday, when his team defeated the Chicago White Sox, 3 to 2, was a success, except for a drizzle which fell throughout. Mack was armed with an injunction.

Cleveland's Indians, heading for New York, for a "crucial" series with the Yankees, were kept long enough at the Natio to down the Senators twice, 2 and 6 to 0.

PITTSBURGH MENACED. St. Louis edged back almost into a tie with Pittsburgh for the National League lead, by winning its eighth straight behind Jess Haines' excellent marksmanship. The Pishless Giants were the victims 4 to 2, and Travis Jackson, who has succeeded Frankie as captain, contributed a brace of errors to the defeat.

Cincinnati using Donohue, Lucas and May and League took a double header from Boston 4 to 3 and 7 to 6. The victories put the Reds one full game behind the leaders.

RECORD BASEBALL. Chicago's Cubs and Guy Bush accomplished some record baseball. The team turned in 23 assists in beating Brooklyn 3 to 0, and Bush pitched in his twenty-first successive scoreless inning. Bush has allowed only nine hits in his last 27 frames.

The Toronto Maple Leafs performed before their home fans today, after a successful road trip, which gave them a firm hold on the leadership of the International League. Jersey City will be their opposition. Baltimore and Newark, in successive games, have gone on the road, the former to Rochester, and the latter to Buffalo. Baltimore dropped a double header to Syracuse Sunday 6 to 0, and 6 to 2, while Reading took a double header from Rochester 2 to 1, and 6 to 5. Rain prevented other games.

HITTERS STOPPED. Major League pitchers all but wiped the effectiveness of long distance hitters last week, with a resulting meagre tally of four home runs recorded in the American League, and eleven in the National.

Not one of the six leading fence-busters of the junior circuit added to his season's ticket. Babe Ruth's slugging was silent, after producing four of the round trip blows the week before.

How To Swim

By LILLIAN CANNON

LILLIAN READY FOR A DIVE

DIVING comes after swimming, but no swimmer should neglect diving. There is always a thrill about a well executed dive, even if it be of the simplest description, and ability to slip into the water without splashing is well worth the effort to learn. The first thing to learn about diving is that it is just as easy to go in head first as feet first and that no more water is going to slip into the nose or ears than if one jumped in feet first or came a bellyflopper. Therefore, I advise that every diver concentrate upon slipping gracefully into the water without a splash before he even attempts the more difficult dives.

BROOCH MISSING IN HALL - MILLS CASE

Part of Evidence Gone—If Found, May Prove to be of Importance

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Aug. 23.—The outstanding development in yesterday's Hall-Mills investigation, was the discovery by prosecutor Simpson, that a gold brooch found near the scene of the murder in 1922 and turned over to Detective Fred A. David, had disappeared.

News of the brooch came to the prosecutor through a letter from a New Brunswick woman, who told him that it had been found by Edward Tierce, proprietor of a hotel just outside of New Brunswick, N. J.

Senator Simpson motored out to his place and Tierce told him of the gold brooch of peculiar design found on the Phillips Farm, about 100 feet from where the bodies were found.

Tierce said he found the brooch Sunday morning, September 17, 1922, which was the morning after the bodies had been discovered and removed.

The brooch is now missing along with other evidence in the case. It was described, however, as of peculiar design with a gold cross in the center. The description of the brooch as furnished by Tierce, fits an emblem which used to be worn years ago in England, by members of a women's episcopalian guild.

Detectives are searching for the brooch on the theory that if found, it might prove an important bit of evidence.

SPECIAL EVENTS IN CHURCHES OF CITY ON SUNDAY

Chinese Visitor Heard—Reference to Sackville Meetings—At Tabernacle

A Chinese preacher's appeal for missionary work in his own country was heard in two of the city churches yesterday when M. D. Djang, honors scholar of Toronto University, who is now taking theological studies at Knox College at the University, gave a clear, concise and illuminating account of the changes which have taken place in China in the last fifty years.

Mr. Djang spoke in St. David's church in the morning before the united congregation of St. David's, Centenary and Queen Square churches. In the evening he was the preacher in German Street Baptist church for the uniting congregations of that church and St. Andrew's Kirk. His theme was "The Challenge of China."

Mr. Djang is a graduate of the Christian University at Shanghai, China, which is maintained by the different Protestant missionary bodies in China in co-operation, and after completing his studies at Knox College he will return to Shanghai to become a member of the faculty of that college, working under the banner of the United Church of Canada.

TO SPEAK ELSEWHERE. Throughout the present week Dr. Djang will be visiting various congregations in this district to speak in the interests of Chinese missionary endeavor. Tonight he will be in St. Martin's and tomorrow night he will address a meeting in Lorneville. On Wednesday night he speaks at the mid-week prayer meeting in the Carleton United church.

SACKVILLE GATHERING. The outstanding personalities of the speakers and leaders at the religious conference, now being held in Sackville, were described in a sermon delivered yesterday morning by Rev. J. S. Bonnell, preaching for the united congregations of St. Andrew's Kirk and the German Street Baptist church.

Mr. Bonnell had spent last week in Sackville attending the conference which opened last Monday and is to continue until Friday evening of this week.

Mr. Bonnell said that in addition to the speakers Rev. F. A. Robinson, who has charge of the conference, has provided splendid inspiration in the musical program. Mr. Greenlaw, the famous Toronto negro baritone, singer negro spirituals with fine feeling. Miss Robinson has also delighted those attending the conference with vocal solos and Miss Grunert, the talented pianist heard in Saint John during the Campbell Morgan meetings, is the accompanist and piano soloist.

The conference is interdenominational, and Mr. Bonnell spoke of it as a wonderful opportunity being fully availed of by ministers, Christian workers and lay people. It is being largely attended, he said.

AT TABERNACLE. The preacher in the Tabernacle Baptist church for last Sunday was Rev. John McGorman, a Saint John boy, who entered upon his ministerial duties two years ago and is making a splendid name for himself as a pastor and preacher.

Mr. McGorman was formerly a member of the German Street Baptist congregation in Saint John and is a son of the late William McGorman, who had charge of the mission conducted in Paradise Row. Mr. McGorman is now visiting in the city and is to occupy the pulpit of the Tabernacle church next Sunday also.

He is at present pastor of Mahone Bay church in Nova Scotia. His messages in the Tabernacle church yesterday were heard by most appreciative congregations.

ON VACATION. J. J. Murray, of the Union Depot ticket office staff, left yesterday afternoon for Montreal on his annual vacation. He expects to visit Toronto and Chicago before returning to his duties.

ALLEGED DISTURBANCE. Police Constables Gibbs and Garnett were called to Sheriff street on Saturday afternoon to quell a disturbance among some men, but when the officers arrived on the scene there was peace and quietness as the alleged disturbers had departed.

Criticizes Dress Of Western Women

TOKIO, Aug. 23.—Rigid control of women's costume, particularly in summer-time, is advocated editorially by the Tokyo "Yamato" which declares: "Western women go half-naked even on the streets, on board steamers and in railway cars, provoking the sex instinct, but the police authorities do not feel disposed to control them. As control is an absolute necessity, discrimination is unreasonable and illogical. It should be rigid in all cases."
