Women Trampled in Wild Stampede; Many Burned Alive

IMERICK, Ireland, Sept. 6-Fifty lives were lost and a dozen persons seriously injured Sunday night in a fire in a temporary cinema hall in the village of Drumcolleger, near here. The moving picture show was being given in a hall over a garage in a wooden building. The hall was reached by one stairway. The projection machine caught fire and in the panic women and children were crushed and trampled in the trapped to be burned alive. The village has a poorly equipped water supply and the wooden building

In one minute you forget you ever had a corn—so quick is the relief that Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads give.

They stop the cause—pressing or rubbing of shoes. By this safe, sure method, a new corn can't come where the old one was.
You risk no infection from paring your own corns, no danger from liquid preparations. Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads are thin, medicated, anti-septic, protective, healing. At your druggist's or shoe dealer's—35c.

the one door and hurled themselves down the narrow stairway. A few active young men climbed through a skylight and escaped to safety in the neighboring yard. A portion of the floor soon collapsed, dropping part of the spectators in the garage beneath, whence it was more easy to escape. The fire burned itself out and the building was completely destroyed. Most of the bodies recovered from the ruins were burned beyond recognition. Throughout the night rescuers were engaged in the task of removing the
