YARMOUTH MARINE SCHOOL IS OPENED

Captain Reside is Appointed to Position of Marine Examiner

YARMOUTH, June 23—Captain Reside, for many years in command of steamers of the Dominion Coal Company, has very recently taken the responsible position of Marine Examiner and has received the appointment to that position for the year of Yarmouth. He is already in command of the Yarmouth Public building. The temporary closing of the Marine School in Yarmouth has caused much grave concern to many persons interested and it is largely due to the efforts of Mr. Hatfield, M. P., backed by the local Board of Trade, that the institution is reestablished with a real examination which is the most important of the late Captain L. E. Murphy has been temporarily out of commission owing to the want of an examiner is about to take on renewed life and is already in a position to receive candidates wishing to take studies and qualify for either master or mate.

Letter Written By St. Francis Found at Que.

QUEBEC, June 23—A historic letter, said to have been written by St. Francis de Sales, has been found at the Ursuline Monastery here. The letter, which was apparently given to a deaconess by the saint, and then taken to Canada at the time of the foundation of the Ursuline Convent here in the seventeenth century, will be taken to Paris, where it will be returned to the Mother House of Ursuline. The archives here the letter is thought to be genuine.

Grand Master of Black Chapter Dissents From Famous Hamilton Speech

OTTAWA, June 23—"I now register vigorous dissent from the policy proposed by the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the Liberal-Conservative party, in a speech delivered at Hamilton on Nov. 19, 1925, and later repeated at other points, to the effect that, in the event of the Empire becoming involved in any future war, it would be best, not only that Parliament should be called, but that the decision
