MOIR'S Chocolates are good because only the finest pure food pro-ducts go into their making.

A poor Chocolate simply cannot get into a Moir box.

Unlimited care is exercised in the selection of the in-gredients—care in the mak-ing—care in packing so they will not break or crush.

Care in inspecting each box before it goes out.

All this care to make sure that Moir's will reach you fresh and delicious. Have you tried our CHERRY package-24 big juicy Maraschino Cherries, dipped in honey cream and sealed within an extra thick

Seal Coats at $110-Pony and Lynx, $30 off

Nothing now prevents your dream of a Fur Coat coming true—a deposit claims one priced so low, in our showing of thirty sale trumps, that it be-comes the first purchase for winter.

There's a snuggly orush-collared Electric Seal of shim-mering black, silk lining and convertible belt that has ropped down from $130 to. $110.00

Or a deep shawl collar in bronze Australian Lynx with flared bell cuffs to match, the double-draping belt and a 42 inch hang, change from $165 $135.00

Grey Australian Opossum, like Hall marked silver, creates a keener contrast with the lus-trous Seal at $45 off for $140.00

Bronze Australian Lynx for the large shawl collar and cuffs makes this 45-inch Pony un-matchable for all-weather wear and price. See the silk lining. Temporarily re-priced from $125 to $95.00

Debusy, seemed to be cubist drawings come to life. When the curtain went up on the first performance of the ballet this year, it was evident that the dancers had enjoyed their first year of good feeding since the revolution. All were much plumper, and some cynics in the audience argued that another civil war might help their figures. Madame Geltser, for example, must have put on twenty pounds since last year, but her technique seemed better than ever. Along with everything else, prices for theatre tickets have soared in Moscow since the close of last 'season. Formerly obtainable for the Russian equivalent of about twenty-five cents, parquet seats this year brought about two dollars at the box offices, and from five to fifteen dollars each from specuto fifteen entry rs. The audiences, however, seemed to the no trouble in securing the neces ary millions of rubles, and the oper right crowds were a mixture hourgeoisie theat

DAY OF ACTIVITY FOR S. SCHOOLS

The Baptist church Sunday school superintendents of the city and Fair-ville met yesterday in the Main street Baptist church. W. A. Erb presided and Rev. A. L. Tedford brought before the meeting the suggestion that a gen-eral meeting of the leaders of the Pro-testant Sunday schools should be ar-ranged. Plans were discussed for a New Year's rally in Main street Bap-tist church.

New Year's rally in Main street Bap-tist church. The election of officers was proceeded with and resulted as follows: President, Hartley Wannamaker; vice-president, K. H. Parsons; secretary, J. W. Mott; treasurer, C. B. Black. Mr. Wannamaker was welcomed to the chair by the retiring president and, as the first new business taken up, a committee was appointed to report at the next meeting as to the rally day programme and place of next meeting. The committee consisted of R. H. Par-sons, Ludlow street, convenor; W. J. McAlary, Main street; C. B. Black,
