

Big Ten Days January Clothing Clearance At M.R.A. Ltd.

This is a great value-giving occasion in suits and overcoats for men and boys. Finest qualities are included in this sale; in fact, in order to make this an occasion of unprecedented interest, every suit and overcoat in the entire men's stock has been marked at a greatly reduced price.

You will find here a very satisfying variety of weaves and colorings in both men's and boys' styles. The character of the materials and the tailoring construction are such as assure fine appearance and long wear. This sale will close promptly on Saturday, January fourth. Wise men will look after their clothing needs as early as possible.

DESERTER GOES TO HALIFAX.
Officer A. H. Cook, of the Dominion Police, arrived in the city yesterday from Halifax to take charge of J. W. Armstrong, who had been held for several days at the central police station. The prisoner surrendered himself recently as a deserter from H.M.S. Cambrian when she was in this port last fall. The authorities at Ottawa were notified and Officer Cook was despatched here yesterday. It is expected that the prisoner will be amongst those in the salon. The
