British Submarine Lost With All Hands Off The English Channel

London, Jan. 22.—British submarine K-5, Commander John A. Chines, was lost with all hands on Thursday at the approaches to the English Channel, the admiralty announced this afternoon.

The complement of the lost submarine was not given, but vessels of this class carry approximately six officers and fifty men.

The disaster, the admiralty announcement states, occurred 100 miles off Land's End. The submarine, it is added, had a full complement of officers and men on board.

The K class of submarines is the latest type of British submarines, the vessels being 338 feet in length, with a surface speed of 24 knots and a speed submerged of nine knots.

Available naval manuals do not reveal the tonnage or dimensions of the K class of submarines. They are, however, what is known as "fleet" submarines, displacing some 1,700 tons when on the surface, with a length of probably 300 to 350 feet. They were built especially for cruising at sea with the grand fleet.

New York, Jan. 22.—The possibility of European domination of the League of Nations does not worry Hon. N. W. Rowell, former president of the privy council of Canada, as much as it does Uelcke Sam.

"But you may ask, is there not a real danger of European domination in the present league? Not if we keep within the terms of the covenant and the non-European states take their fair share in the work of the league."

"When one looks upon the world in the face of the present social, industrial and economic disorganization, even now menacing our civilization, one is compelled to ask what of the future?"

FORMER PASTOR CONFESSES IN MAIL ROBBERY

Mount Vernon, Ill., Jan. 22.—Guy Kyle, former pastor of the Free Methodist church of Mount Vernon, arrested here in connection with the theft of thirty-one packages of registered mail, containing $185,000 in cash, on last Friday, confessed last night that he was implicated, so the post office inspectors announced.

Approximately $100,000 was recovered at the Kyle home, concealed in an egg crate and about $75,000 and $4,000 respectively in two garages of which Rev. Kyle is part owner.

Post office inspectors expressed the belief that $25,000 in negotiable securities, which also were stolen, had been hidden in the trunk of a car.

It was said that developments early today had convinced the inspectors that Kyle carried out the robbery single-handed. Further examination of the former pastor was planned to learn how he became acquainted with the movement of the stolen money.

PAY TRIBUTE TO WORTH OF HON. A. L. SIFTON

Expressions by Premier Meighen and Sir Robert Borden.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—Regarding the death of Hon. A. L. Sifton, the Prime Minister, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen said: "The members of the government will miss a very able colleague, a man of rare intellectual strength."

"With deepest regret I have learned that the Right Hon. Arthur Sifton has passed away. By his death the country loses a public servant of the highest ability and of most conspicuous patriotism."

From the time that he entered the union government, more than three years ago, he had never wavered in the high purpose which then inspired him.

Among his colleagues his rare intellectual powers were universally acknowledged; in questions of difficulty, there was no one in whose judgment I placed firmer reliance, which I was head of the government.

"As legislator, as jurist and as minister, he has had a most distinguished career, which was fittingly crowned by the great part that he took at the peace conference."

London, Jan. 22.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Many of the British papers publish appreciative sketches of the career of Hon. A. L. Sifton. The Times says that he was a man of unusual modesty, but was endowed with great sincerity, keen judgment and shrewdness, and enjoyed the confidence of all sections of the people of Canada.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—The funeral of Hon. A. L. Sifton will take place here at three o'clock on Monday afternoon. The body will be interred in Beechwood cemetery.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "read in the press that at a fire in an American city a lady wildly implored the firemen to save her baby. They did so—at risk of suffocation. The baby was a dog."

"Well," said Hiram, "I suppose we ought to be thankful that woman did care for something—even a dog. Maybe they ain't got any babies in that town, she could adopt. An' then you remember some feller said that the most he knew about people the more respect he led for dogs. If it was a good dog it deserved more'n some human critters we see every day. D'you know—this is a hard winter on a lot o' kids that ain't got any too much to eat an' wear? I've heard some mighty sad stories lately—the wust of 'em is about women that's been deserted an' don't know where to turn. Now if I had to choose between savin' a dog an' a feller that 'ud go 'way an' leave his wife to keep the kids alive any way she could—I'd save the dog—'Yes, sir.'"

"But if you had to choose between adoptin' a baby and a dog?" queried the reporter.

"I'd take 'em both," said Hiram, "an' let 'em grow up together. But I'd keep the dog in a dog's place an' the kid in a kid's place. I wouldn't set up no altar fer dog-worship—By Hen!"

Relations With United States and the Matter of Restricting Armaments.

The members of the government will miss a very able colleague, a man of rare intellectual strength. His command of affairs and administrative capacity were exceptional; his knowledge and estimate of men equally remarkable. I never knew him to complain of the conduct of others. He determined his own course in quiet self-reliance, and once decided, he never doubted or varied.

"His services to his country have been rendered in posts of great distinction and responsibility, but without ostentation and indeed with little publicity. We have lost a valued counselor."

FRANCE MEANS TO MAKE GERMANY PAY FOR THE WAR

Guiding Principle, Says Premier Briand

Supports Resumption of Relations With Vatican—Fine Vote of Confidence Show of National Unity to Allies.

Paris, Jan. 22.—In a speech in the chamber of deputies yesterday characterized by its vigor and oratory, Premier Briand answered interpellations, and promised to make the collection of reparation from Germany the guiding principle of his administration.

The premier avoided a statement of any definite plan for carrying out the treaty and the restoration of France to its former economic position, but promised to devote all his time and energy to this purpose.

His remarks frequently were interrupted by applause, in which, for the most part, the members of the right did not join.

Mr. Briand told the chamber that it must give the new government a clear vote of confidence "at this critical time when the policies of France probably will be pledged for the next two years."

After dealing with France's internal questions, he said he would support the project for resumption of relations with the Vatican. The chamber by a vote of 475 to 98, put the stamp of approval on the policies of the premier.

The size of the vote, which surprised many delegates, is regarded as not only an expression of confidence in the government but as a manifestation of national unity in the face of the forthcoming meeting of the Allies.

Editors' Comment.

Paris, Jan. 22.—Newspapers here expressed satisfaction with the vote of confidence given the Briand ministry, but there was a noticeable lack of enthusiasm. A majority held the view that yesterday's vote was an expression of confidence in the ministry, but in M. Briand, the champion of France in the approaching meeting of premiers. It was declared that the chamber made maximum authority to the man who will plead her cause, and that the Briand ministry was not judged on its declarations, but on the results of the results of the conference of premiers.

"Yesterday's long speech by M. Briand," said the Echo de Paris, "does not appear to give any more light than the ministry's declaration except on one point: Payment of a lump sum by Germany is not his thesis. His thesis is provisional confidence is opened for Mr. Briand, and none desires more than to see him make the best use of it for the interest of the nation."

Some newspapers manifested a certain veiled skepticism, the Petit Courrier, of the most influential provincial organs, declaring: "What the nation finds it strange is that we should be obliged to negotiate ceaselessly with the Allies in order that they may help us to obtain the execution of a treaty signed by them. Therefore, if with the same methods, Mr. Briand succeeds in getting better results than have been achieved in the past, we may then say he has deserved well of his country."

IN PHILADELPHIA JAIL SHE PINES FOR MR. ZINZER

Case of Canadian Girl and What the Doctors Say of Her.

Philadelphia, Jan. 22.—Miss Beatrice Herbert, aged 29, now under arrest on charge of forcing her attentions on Wm. Zinzer, assistant manager of a tourist agency here, continues to pine for her "Will" between continuous puffs of cigarettes and tea drinking in her cell. No letters have been received at Washington concerning deportation papers for her return to Montreal.

According to records at the Philadelphia Hospital, where she was detained last September when she was previously arrested on charge of annoying Zinzer, she is the victim of a mental ailment. Physicians who examined her say she is perfectly normal on all subjects, save Zinzer.

As proof of this, they assert the shows evidence of a careful education, speaking and writing German, Spanish and French, in addition to being an expert stenographer. She also discusses the League of Nations and the Irish question in an intelligent manner.

In the language of physicians, when talking of Zinzer "she is just silly." Unless a request is received from the immigration bureau she will be kept in Moyamensing prison instead of being sent to a hospital, physicians say, while awaiting deportation papers from Washington. They fear she will make a break for liberty.
