STREET RAILWAY AND TELEPHONE COMPANY Both Have Applications Before the City Commissioners

Communications from the St. John Railway Company and the New Brunswick Telephone Company were dealt with at the meeting of the city commissioners today.

The street railway company informed the commissioners that they are not yet ready to go ahead with the work of laying the trolleys at their new car barns in Westworth street, for which permission was given on condition that they pave the street in that block.

They are anxious to be allowed to secure access to the car sheds, however, as their new cars have arrived and they wish to place them in the new building. For this purpose they ask permission to lay a temporary siding from Westworth street. The matter was laid over for consideration.

The telephone company asked permission to erect new poles in Seely street and Watson street, W. E., and to change the position of poles in Hanover and Clarence streets. The application was referred to the commissioner of public works to investigate.

LOOK AHEAD TO 1913 Commissioners Planning the Street Work for Next Year

Plans for street work for 1913 are already under consideration at City Hall, and it is understood that the programme will call for some extensive additions to the work. The road engineer has surveyed fifteen streets on which permanent pavements are to be laid, and about the same number of streets in residential districts, where a lighter pavement will serve and from among this number those in the most pressing need of new pavements will be selected for next year's work.

The commissioners are adopting the plan of doing permanent work on a continuous plan along the chief lines of traffic, so that the streets which have new surfaces will not be made filthy by mud tracked onto them from the unpaved streets.

Blinkerton's Plea is That He Was Drunk at Time—Goldworthy Denies Getting Liquor From Ramsay

Wesley Blinkerton, aged twenty-seven, was arrested in Dock street yesterday afternoon by Sergeant Scott and Policeman O'Neill on the charge of stealing a dress suit case containing four bottles of brandy, one bottle of whiskey, and a pair of ladies' shoes, all valued at $10. The goods are the property of William C. Fullerton.

After being taken into custody, Blinkerton told the police where he had hidden the case, and it was found lying on a mud scow at Long Wharf. Sergeant Scott had a lively run to catch Blinkerton. Hearing in the case was begun in the police court this morning. Blinkerton pleaded guilty to this morning. Blinkerton pleaded guilty to this morning.

Mr. Carleton, who conducts a sailor's boarding house in Smythe street, told of Blinkerton calling at his house and asking for board. Yesterday morning Blinkerton had gone to the witness' room, and after he had gone a gold watch was missing. He identified the watch taken of the prisoner as the one.

Mr. Fullerton told of meeting Blinkerton at noon yesterday on his way to the depot. He left his suitcase down while he purchased a ticket, and when he went to get it he could not find it. He reported the matter to the police. He identified the case in court as the one that he had lost. One of the bottles was missing.

Sergeant Joseph Scott told of making the arrest. The prisoner had denied the theft at first, but later confessed. The suitcase was found on a barge near Long Wharf, and the watch was found on the prisoner.

Blinkerton was remanded to jail. He was told by His Honor that he was liable to a term of five years in Dorchester, and that if he got the full penalty he would have no one to blame but himself and the rum.

Moses Ramsay, charged with supplying liquor to Williams Goldworthy, an inter-urban Goldworthy denied positively that Ramsay had given him any liquor on Thursday night or at any time. He said he only knew Ramsay to speak to and did not remember ever getting liquor from him. Ramsay was remanded until tomorrow morning, when other witnesses will be called.

One prisoner, charged with drunkenness, was remanded.

FORMER ST. JOHN MAN ONE OF THOSE KILLED

Sad News For Mrs. McLaughlin, Here Because of Father's Illness and Death

Sad news for at least one family in St. John was contained in the morning papers despatch from Halesbury, Ont., telling of an awful fatality in the plant of the Explosive Co. where five people lost their lives, and others were badly hurt.

One of those killed was a former resident of St. John, John McLaughlin, whose wife is at present in the city, at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Scott, St. David street.

Mr. McLaughlin was born in Eniskillen, Ont., about thirty-three years ago. A few years ago he was on the staff of the C. P. R. in west St. John, but later went to Toronto and thence five years ago to Halesbury, where he was a foreman in the works of the company where the explosion occurred. He had been progressing well, and making a good name for himself. He was a member of the school board of the town, was prominent in the Orange Order of Elks. Besides his wife he is survived by one stepson, Beverly Nesbitt, his mother, three sisters, and three brothers.

Mrs. McLaughlin is a daughter of the late Joseph Mason of Apollonia. She came here seven weeks ago because of his serious illness and was with him at his death on September 26. Since then she has been with her mother in Apollonia and came to St. John last Thursday to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Scott. She will leave this evening for her home and will be accompanied as far as Montreal, if not the whole distance by Mr. Scott.

The news contained in the morning paper was a fearful shock to all. The first intimation of the fatality was the newspaper despatch and coming so soon after her recent bereavement in the loss of her father, the blow was particularly sad.

CLOTHING FOR THE WELL-DRESSED BOY

Parents who weigh the question of the boy's suit as it should be considered, don't stop at the price or the seeming savings offered. They look into qualities—the materials, the making—the points that mean service. They judge of the style and fit—essentials in bringing a hundred cents worth of value for a dollar.

Another point, perhaps the most important of all: they judge the store. The store that watches with even more particularity than parents do the intrinsic worth of their boys' clothing (and such a store is apt to be a safe store when offering a bargain.)

The Oak Hall Boys' Clothing Store offers carefully-made clothing in best styles for boys. Never a suit goes out but what is broadly guaranteed. Better yet, never a suit comes in but what we believe so good that the guarantee won't be called on. But it works automatically in case of unforeseen mishap.
