

POOR DOCUMENT

MC2035

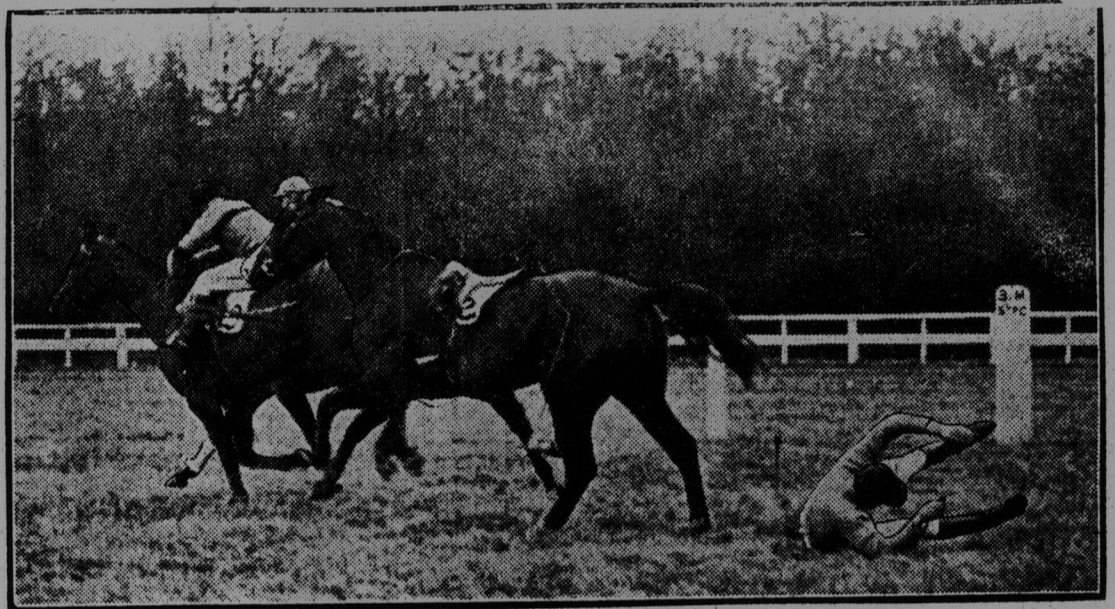

The Evening Times Pictorial Page

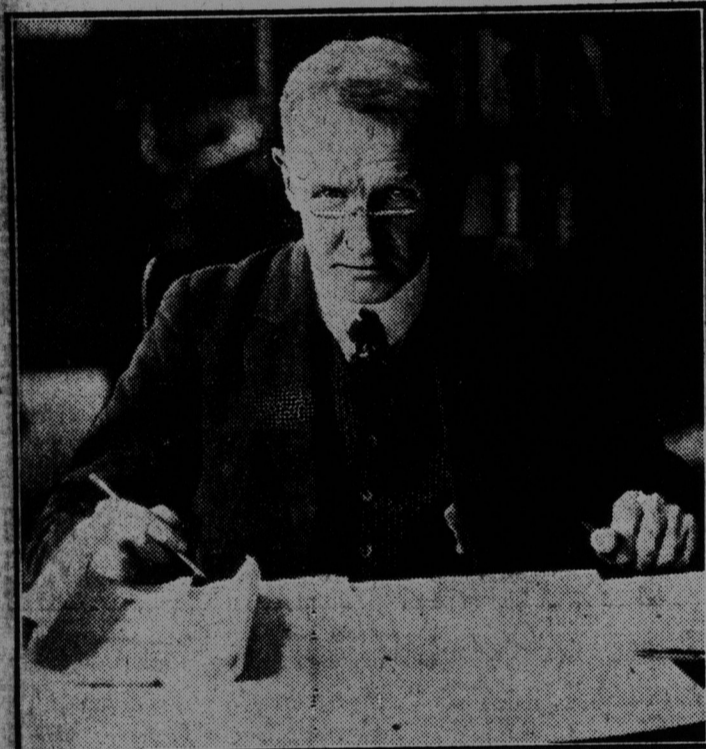

LOTS OF ACTION HERE—An Incident in Chelsea vs. Newcastle Football Game Recently in England.

THIS IS "MISS CANADA"—Miss Winitred C. Blair of St. John, N.B., Who Went to Montreal as "Miss St. John." Won Out in the Montreal Winter Carnival Beauty Contest. She Is a Stenographer.

STEEPLECHASING IN ENGLAND—A Jockey Unseated at Newbury.

FEDERAL MINISTERS' RIGHT-HAND MEN—(No. 7) Mr. F. A. Acland, Deputy Minister of Labor.

AN AUTHOR ON THE ROAD—Emerson Hough, Author of "The Covered Wagon," Which Has Recently Been Adapted for the Screen.

IRISH-CANADIAN STATESMAN HONORED—New Statue of D'Arcy McGee Erected on Parliament Hill, Ottawa. It Was Cast in Belgium Before the War and Buried to Save It From German Invaders.

A BUSY ROYAL FIGURE—Duke of York Shaking Hands With Bathgate Football Players at Hampden Park.

TAKING THE SLIDES STANDING—Canadian Girls Imbibe the Spirit of Strength and Adventure of the Cold Season.

MORE TREASURES FROM VALLEY OF THE KINGS—A Tray of Relics Being Brought Up From the Tomb of Tutankhamen.

EMPIRE EXCHANGE SCHOOL TEACHERS, From Great Britain, Australia and New Zealand, Who Are Now Teaching in Canadian Schools Were Welcomed to London, Ont., by Mayor G. A. Wenige and the Women Teachers' Guild.

TAKES HIMSELF FOR A RIDE—Here is Where the Photographer's Double Exposure Confounds the Reader.

LADY ASTOR GOES SKATING—British Woman M.P. Enjoying Herself at St. Moritz, Switzerland.

AN EXHIBITION OF THEIR OWN—Some Toronto Snowshoers Do "Stunts" in High Park.

A SAILFISH, Weighing 55 Pounds, Caught by Mrs. Edmund Allghe of Cleveland at Palm Beach.