

To secure the warmth, cleanliness, and ventilation of the church, and the supply of vestments, linen, books, and bread and wine for the celebration of the Holy Communion.

To provide such books and documents as the Synod may from time to time require to be kept.

To afford the Incumbent every assistance in their power in the supervision of the sexton, the organist, the clerk, and the choir, and the inferior officers of the Corporation.

To provide strangers with seats during the celebration of Divine Worship in so far as the capacity of the building will allow.

To maintain good order and quiet in and about the church or chapel and in the adjoining roads and public places during Divine worship, and prosecute all offences against that good order and quiet. Vide Incorp. Statutes, c. XXII.

To collect, in accordance with the statute, pew-rents, subscriptions, alms, and offerings of the congregation, and to keep a faithful account of the receipts and disbursements of the congregation.

To notify the Incumbent of any grievous sickness or destitution among the members of the congregation, and generally, and as far as in them lies, to promote the comfort and welfare of the clergyman and congregation.

A copy of these instructions shall be sent to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of every church and chapel, and shall be read aloud by the chairman of the vestry, at each annual election of the Churchwardens.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE RESPECTING THE TIME OF OCCUPANCY OF PARSONAGES AFTER DECEASE OF INCUMBENT.

AS ADOPTED.

1st. That at least three months from the time of decease be allowed to the widow, or children, or other relatives, of the late incumbent, provided that they have been residing with him and forming part of his family up to the time of his decease, before they, or she, or he be called upon to leave the Parsonage.

2nd. That of course if the Glebe or any other land be under cultivation, the crop thereof belongs to the lawful representatives of the deceased, unless his successor consent to refund the expense incurred in such cultivation, when the crop belongs to the incoming incumbent.

3rd. That in the case of meadow land the grass belongs to the successor; but if made into hay the same is the property of the representatives of the deceased.

4. That the above rules apply to clergymen on their being placed on the superannuated list.
