Installation of Pastor

The installation of Rev. S. Thomas

Simpson as pastor of the Presbyterian church, South Ryegate, Vermont, occurred Thursday evening, May 4th The impressive service was follow ed by an informal reception; refreshments of salad, rolls, cake and coffee were served during the social hour. Mr. Simpson is a young man of strong character and pleasing personality: a very efficient preacher whose earnestness of delivery carries into the jaws of our fleet. I have no his words straight home to the hear's regrets except for the gallant lives of his hearers. During his stay here of five months he has made many friends, the attendance at the church services has perceptibly increased, a fine choir organized and old troubles ion.
