The Departing A. G. Lt. Col. Mansell, who has left as an aviator general, has been in the militia since 1857. He was in the militia in 1857 and was subsequently employed, temporarily, on the staff as Adjutant in connection with this course of instruction. On Nov. 27, 1857, he was appointed Adjutant of the 1st Battalion of the 6th Regiment of the Royal Military College in May, 1855, and was gazetted as such on the 15th of the same month.

The Military College. In the last fiscal year, this college cost the country about $60,000. It is a large and expensive institution. The following is the location of the college: It is situated on the banks of the Miramichi River, about 10 miles from the mouth of the river.

Sir Charles Tupper. The Toronto Globe appears to think there is a Tupper mystery like that of Edwin Droad. However, the latter disappeared altogether, and the novelized story of his life is back to the world. Sir Charles Tupper is still living, and seems to be in two or three places at once.

Another Statement. Mr. E. Lockhart and the Ray Estate. It was announced in the Globe last week that the Dominion Supreme Court had affirmed the decision of the New Brunswick Supreme Court in the case of Edwin Droad.

Notes and News. Provided for - The vacant collectorship of Toronto, which Sir John H. Hall has been in filling, is at last given to his own law partner, in Mr. Tupper, a gentleman nearly sixty years of age, and who will begin pretty late in life to learn his business.

Notes and News. The Chios earthquake is one of the greatest in the history of the world. It has ruined nearly all the towns and villages of the island, killed some 8,000 persons and wounded many more than that.

The Financial Association of Ontario. The foregoing circular has been issued to the shareholders in The Financial Association of Ontario, London, Canada. It is in the interest of the shareholders to be informed of the dividend for the quarter ending March 31st.

The Great Earthquake. The London Times correspondent who hastened from Constantinople to Chios as he received news of the recent earthquake there writes as follows: I had a picture of desolation such as is rarely believed. The town looks as if it had been utterly annihilated. Hundreds of houses had been transformed into a shapeless mass of ruins, under which he buried an unknown number of victims.

Accidentally Shot Dead. On Friday afternoon, Melbourne, the second son of Mr. Alvan Smith, proprietor of the Sackville shoe factory, went on the marshes below Middle wide ground shooting. He was accompanied by John Hillson, an employe in the factory. They were both lying concealed behind a fence, Smith a few feet in advance, when some geese rose near them and the latter fired. As he fired, Smith suddenly popped up his head, receiving the full charge in the back of the skull, shattering it in the most shocking manner.
