The Tarte Langevin Scandal.

The House of Commons Committee on Privileges and Elections, after hearng all the testimony relating to the charges made by Mr. Tarte, M. P., against Messrs. McGreevy, Langevin and others, in connection with certain contracts under the Public Work's Department, referred the work of preparing a report to three Conservatives and two Liberals. The Conservatives thus honored were Sir John Thompson, Hon. M. Adams and D. Girouard and men have not been able to agree upon a report, and that two reports will be Secretary.
