LEGER AND MINUTE BOOK STRANGELY DISAPPEARED

Complications in the Wind-Up Proceedings of Imperial Coal Co.—Some Stockholders Ready to Pay Bills and Start Over Again

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 29.—Hearing in the case of the Imperial Coal Company, now in liquidation, began at Moncton a few days ago, was continued before Judge Landry in Chambers here last evening. A. H. Hanington and H. A. Powell, K. C., on behalf of W. A. Asherbach, Charles G. Polley, Henry O'Neill, W. L. Wood, and other stockholders and creditors, supported the application for stay of proceedings and Messrs. M. G. Teed, K. C., and E. A. Kelly appeared for the liquidators. The stockholders represented by Messrs. Hanington and Powell are willing to discharge all liabilities of the company and take over the business, but the liquidators are anxious that the company's affairs should be wound up. During the hearing it was brought out that since the commencement of winding up proceedings the company's ledger had been torn to pieces and the minute book has mysteriously disappeared. His Honor reserved judgment on the application for a stay.

SHIPBUILDING PLANT TO START AT THE SOO

Steel Mills are Booming Again and Prospects are Bright for Increased Activity.

SAGUIN, MICH., Jan. 29.—The Canadian Soo on the boom again. With the opening up of the rolling mill a lot of his men went back to work and the streets are practically free from loafers. Now comes the welcome announcement that the corporation in negotiation for the establishment of a shipbuilding plant on a large scale. The town will likely give them a bonus and fix a minimum number of employees. Between new vessels for the coke trade and the immense amount of repairing which now goes to the U. S. there should be enough to keep the yards going summer and winter.

PICKS A HUSBAND FROM 1,000 MEN

By the Process of Elimination Wisconsin Spinster Selects Mate and is to Marry Him.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., Jan. 27.—Miss Frances Livingston, of Lond, who perhaps received more proposals than any other woman in the world, has chosen Louis Struvsen, of Dorchester, Wis., for her husband, and the County Clerk issued a marriage license to them. Miss Livingston last October announced her intention to marry, and she had a farm and good looking; that she had a farm and good looking in the bank. She maintained that women should advertise for husbands, because by this means a woman could get out of her narrow village or town sphere and search the entire world for her affinity. Proposals came from men in two continents, by Dec. 31 she had received about one thousand proposals of marriage. She then proceeded to classify and eliminate the candidates, and finally decided upon Struvsen.

BRAKEMAN KILLED IN N. Y. CENTRAL WRECK

Several Cars Destroyed and the Line Blocked for Six Hours

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Jan. 29.—John A. Vandenberg, of this city, a Boston and Albany freight brakeman, was killed, several cars were demolished and traffic on the Boston and Albany division of the N. Y. Central was blocked for several hours as a result of a collision between two freight trains at North Woburn, ten miles east of this city early today. A west bound freight was on a spur track near North Woburn, and a north bound freight was proceeding on the main track, when it was struck by another westbound freight running on to the main track. The locomotive of the main track train struck the rear end of the side track train, killing Vandenberg, who was in the caboose of the train that was running off of the side track. A number of cars were either smashed or dented, and it was six hours before the line was cleared by a wrecking crew.

REPUBLIC'S PASSENGERS MAKE ANOTHER ATTEMPT Many of the Steerage Lot Will Sail on the Romantic Tomorrow.

BOSTON, Jan. 29.—Undaunted by their nerve racking experiences of less than a week ago on the sinking Republic, fifty of the steerage passengers of that ill-fated vessel arrived here today and will sail on the steamer Romanic for Mediterranean ports. Forty members of the crew of the Republic will also make the voyage, while about twenty-five of the Republic's saloon passengers will reach here tonight for a similar purpose. The Romanic sails at 5.30 a. m. tomorrow. The Romanic will also carry nearly one hundred other saloon passengers and a large number in the steerage.

HUSBAND OF AGTRESS COMMITS SUICIDE

After First Attempting to Kill His Wife

Canrade Dancolson Aimed Pistol at the Woman, and When It Missed Fire He Shot Himself.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Conrade Dancolson, Porto Rican manager for the United States Express Company, was found with a bullet wound in his head in his apartments at the Hotel Carlton early today and was believed to be dying in the Roosevelt hospital a few hours later. Dancolson's wife, Eleanor, who is known on the stage as Anna Yates Palmer, declared that her husband attempted to kill her and then shot himself. She told the police his revolver missed fire and as she ran from the room she heard the shot as Dancolson turned the weapon upon himself. They had been quarrelling, she said. She ran into the lobby screaming and attracted the attention of the night clerk and policeman Byrnes, who was on the post outside of the hotel. The two men went to the Dancolson apartments and found the husband lying unconscious on the floor with a revolver nearby. Mrs. Dancolson was arrested on Dec. 4 last on a warrant obtained by Miss Virginia Marshall, an actress, who charged that Mrs. Dancolson had written her threatening letters. That Dancolson quarrelled with his wife and then shot himself is the police theory.

ASKS FOR $10,000 FOR HER LOST HAIR

Mrs. Farrell of New York Charges That "Regenerator" Caused It to Fall Out.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Maud Farrell, of No. 264 Eighth avenue, Bay Ridge, sued the Empire Regenerator Co. of No. 244 Sixth avenue, for the almost complete loss of her hair. Mrs. Farrell charged that her brown hair becoming streaked with gray she bought at a drug store the forty cent "Regenerator," and applied it according to the instructions, expecting it to restore the color of her hair. Instead of this, she alleges, within a few hours the hair began to fall out in large quantities. She says she consulted a lawyer, Charles I. Engel, a lawyer of No. 309 Broadway, to bring suit for damages. Masses of the hair and what remains of the regenerator will be used in evidence.

YORK MEDICAL SOCIETY HAS BEEN REORGANIZED

Dr. Murray, of Flon Junction, the New President—Scott Act Case Dismissed—Others are Being Tried.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 29.—Twelve physicians met at the Knights of Pythias Hall last night and re-organized the York and Sunbury Medical Society, electing the following officers: Dr. Murray, Frederick Junction, President. Vice-President, J. W. Bridges, Frederickton. Secretary, T. R. McGee, Frederickton. Executive Committee, Dr. Altherton, Dr. Crockett, Dr. Moore, Stanley, and Dr. Murray. Meetings are to be held every two months. After the meeting last night, Dr. W. H. Irvine, Vanwert and Crockett entertained the members of the society to supper at Washington's Cafe.

KILLED HUSBAND OF WOMAN WHO ACCUSED HIM OF ROBBERY

Theodore Adams Arrested in New York on the Charge of Murdering His Brother-in-Law.

FOUGHKEEPSID, N. Y., Jan. 29.—Theodore Adams, employed in the railroad round house at Hopewell Junction, was arrested today and charged with the murder of his brother-in-law, John Kilff, of that place, after his wife had accused Adams of robbing his place. Mrs. Kilff had since been unconscious in the Vassar Hospital and Adams had been under police surveillance. Today Adams was taken before Mrs. Kilff who declared that she saw him in the sleeping room after the assault and that he took the money from under her pillow. Adams denied it but Mrs. Kilff described the clothing which she said Adams wore at that time. Adams was then placed under arrest on a charge of murder. The police apparently came from the round house.

BROOKVILLE, Ont., Jan. 29.—Married on Monday what he knew to be his death bed to Miss Mary Weatherpoon, Pascal Finn, a native of Ireland, with no other relatives in this country, died this morning in one of the local hospitals. Finn was wealthy and his wife leaves all his money to his widow.

RELIGIOUS CENSUS TAKERS HAVE NOT YET FINISHED

Outlying Districts of Some of the Larger Wards Still to be Covered—Returns are Being Tabulated as Rapidly as Possible

THE work of tabulating the returns of the religious census taken yesterday is not yet complete. Five of the canvassers who had unusually large districts are still at work today. It is expected that the last of the returns will be in by this evening, and the totals will then be made up. The cards, each of which contains the record of one family, are being sorted according to the churches attended, and each pastor will secure the complete record of all those who are reported as attending his church. Arrangements will be made to pay especial attention to those who have expressed no particular preference. The figures for four more wards were tabulated this morning. The totals of the number reported are as follows:

JAPAN MAKES MODEST SUGGESTION TO CHINA
