CLOTHING THAT FITS

A collar that sags in the rear, a shoulder that draws or "puckers" around the sleeve, a coat-front that wrinkles badly after a few weeks' wear—these defects are as noticeable as conspicuous misfit of coat or trousers.

20th Century Suits are fitted with as much care as though each wearer stood in the factory watching the work. They are not fitted to YOU, of course, but they ARE fitted to a man of your size, weight and physical make-up. Fitted to a MAN, mind you, not merely to a "dummy."

And in addition to perfect fit the smoothness and faultless "set" of every part is insured by the most painstaking tailoring.

Superb suits await your selection here, $18 to $27. Others made especially for us, $10 to $20.

Fall Overcoats, as well as the suits, $12 to $27.

WANTED THE PRIVILEGE OF PAYING TAXES

Men at City Hall With Unusual Request—But They Saved $2.50 Each by Getting on the List.

It is not often that persons enter the City Hall seeking to have their names added to the assessors' list in order that they may be allowed the privilege of paying taxes. A couple of men who were reported by the assessor at election time, but when such an event occurs at any other time it looked to the official like something closely resembling a miracle. The explanation of the occurrence which happened last week, lay in the fact that under the new assessment act it is sometimes cheaper to pay taxes than to take out a laborer's license. A couple of men who were reported by the assessor last week for working within the city limits instead of taking out a license, which would have cost them $7.50, appeared at the City Hall and were given the privilege of paying their taxes, which amounted to only five dollars. They were then able to defy the policeman who had reported them and were $2.50 in pocket.

The monthly meetings of the Safety Board will be held at 8 o'clock this evening. The Board of Works tomorrow night, the Water Sewerage Board on Wednesday, the Treasury Board on Thursday, and the Ferry Committee on Friday.

At the last meeting a sub-committee was appointed to report on the application made by Mr. McDonald for permission to erect a coal storage plant in the city market, but the committee is not ready to report.

Neither the chairman nor the director have received any intimation that the agitation for an inquiry into the affairs of the fire department will be resumed, but Ald. Potts, who has been somewhat interested in the matter, said this morning that he would not be surprised if the subject was brought up again.

TRYING TO FORGET DAUGHTER'S MURDER

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kyle on a Visit to the East

One of Their Family Was Mysteriously Poisoned at Their Home in Vancouver a Short Time Ago.

A tragedy as unexplainable as it was sad occurred recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kyle of Vancouver, B. C., who have been at St. John on a visit to Rev. Dr. Wilson and family. The death of their daughter took place recently under most peculiar circumstances and although evidently the result of foul play, all efforts to solve the mystery of the perpetrator and his motives for the crime have been unavailing.

At the time this event took place the young lady had been indisposed slightly and had been confined to the house. One evening when all the other members of the family were out she answered a ring of the door bell and going to the door found a package containing a bottle of medicine on the doorstep. There was no one in sight and thinking the messenger had been in a hurry, Miss Kyle took the package in. A few minutes later the telephone bell rang and when she answered, the young lady was informed that it was the druggist speaking. He told her that the medicine had been ordered for her and gave directions as to how to take it. Suspecting nothing wrong, the unfortunate girl took a dose from the bottle. She soon began to feel worse instead of better and when the other members of the family returned she was suffering intensely. Medical assistance was summoned, but it was found impossible to do anything for her and she died soon afterwards.

Before dying she related to her the circumstances under which she had received the medicine and this information is all that the family had to give to the police when the latter were summoned to make an investigation. Despite the most diligent search, absolutely no trace of the person who committed the crime has thus far been discovered. The task of the detectives was all the more difficult as the deceased seemed to be no motive whatever for such a wanton crime. The young lady was universally liked and respected, and her family and friends knew of no one who could have any reason for wishing her death.

The death of her daughter and the harrowing circumstances which attended it were naturally a severe shock to the family and the trip to the east was taken partly as a means of diverting her mind from the awful tragedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle left this morning for Boston and will return to their home in Vancouver, going by way of New York and Chicago.

RACHAEL SHOWED HER NEW SHOES TO COURT

Her Child Turned Out in the Rain to Shift for Himself—Got Drunk on Hop Beer.

Police Magistrate Ritchie had rather a busy session in the police court this morning.

Joseph McQuade when asked if he was drunk on the rare hops Saturday night, said he did not know how he could have been intoxicated as he had only four or five drinks of hop beer. Police Officer Totten, who made the arrest, said that he found McQuade lying on the sidewalk drunk. The hop beer jag was the cause of Joe being taken to jail for two months in default of paying an eight dollar fine.

The next on the list was 45-year-old Rachel Corbin, a colored woman wearing numerous pieces of jewelry on her fingers. Rachel said that she was not drunk when arrested and had only partaken of a few society drinks with some friends.

Policeman Scott gave evidence that Saturday night a man called at the central police station and said that there was a small boy on the I. R. C. track near the foot of King street east, that the youngster was screaming and threatening to jump into Courtenay Bay and drown himself. When the officer arrived on the scene he found the boy to be Robert Sheers, aged eleven years, and colored, and nearly lying drunk on the track was the colored woman, Rachel Corbin, who is the boy's mother. He placed the woman under arrest and took the boy along for protection as he had no place to go.

Rachel in court this morning said the reason she was not standing up on the track when the officer came along was that she was changing her shoes, replacing the old footwear with a new pair. To show that she was telling the truth Rachel raised her foot nearly to the top of the magistrate's desk to show the new shoes. The woman was sent into jail for two months in default of paying an eight dollar fine.

It was not without some difficulty that the boy could be induced to part with his mother. He caught her by the arm and cried for her not to leave him. When he was finally taken from her and ushered into the police court he refused to become an inmate of the Municipal Home until his mother served her term.

The mother said her boy could get a home with a Mr. Burns, about four miles out of the city, so while the mother was being conducted to the jail through the back door of the station, the boy was turned out of the front door in the rainstorm to look out for himself.

Patrick McKinney, an old and respected resident of Haymarket Square, died on Saturday after a short illness. Deceased leaves one son and five daughters to mourn. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.
