DEATHS.

LAWRENCE.—At Boylston, Guysboro Co., N. S., Sept. 24th, Nathaniel Lawrence passed away after a lingering illness of some years, at the age of 65 years.

KEDDY.—At Chelsea, N. S., Sept. 25th, Mrs. Barbara Keddy aged 73, daughter of John Keddy. This sister was quite well on Saturday evening but Sunday night was dead from hemorrhage of the lungs. She leaves a mother at the advanced age of 96, also 4 brothers, 2 sisters and 2 sons to mourn the loss of this loved one. Only six months before her sister was taken out of this same home by death. She united with Chelsea church many years ago. Services at house and grave conducted by pastor Beaman.

GOUDY.—At Port Maitland, N. S., on Sept. 20th, Mrs. Abigail, widow of Mr. Thomas Goudy, aged 87 years. Though for some months sister Goudy was subject to severe attacks of suffering due to a deceased heart, yet she retained her mental faculties until the very last, and her expressions of confidence in her Saviour were strong and comforting. She had been a worthy member of the Bay View church for many years, beloved by all. She leaves three sons and one daughter to mourn the passing of a devoted Christian mother.

DARRAH.—At his home in Smithtown, King's Co., N. B., Oct. 1st, 1904, Mr. Wm. H. Darrah in the first year of his age. The deceased was a sufferer for some months of cancers which ended his earthly life. Mr. Darrah was a much respected citizen of his community, which was amply shown by the large concourse of people that assembled at the home, meeting-house and cemetery. A widow, two sons and one daughter remain to mourn the loss of a loving husband, and father. Rev. Allan Spidell of Hampton Village conducted the funeral ceremonies.

MCCARTHY.—On the 6th of Sept. last, Mrs. Mary McCarthy, relict of the late Dennis McCarthy was for almost a half century a member of the North Baptist church where she was greatly beloved. She was baptized by pastor Bently at Richmond in 1857. Among those baptized at the same time was Dr. S. J. of Amherst. Our sister was a very gentle woman, of simple yet strong faith. She loved the church yet for several years had been unable to attend its services because of weakness. She did honor a work for the Master in the record of which will be remembered in the great day when the books are opened.

REID.—At Avonport, N. S., Sept. 25th, Harriet, beloved wife of C. H. Reid passed away after a few hours illness in the 71st year of her age. Her sudden death is a severe loss not only to her family but to a large circle of neighbors and acquaintances. She was a wise and loving wife and mother, a good neighbor and a true and humble Christian, amiable, hospitable and unselfish. She leaves a husband, two sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. Her children are Miss Annie and Percy Reid, Mrs. D. H. MacQuarrie, Mr. C. A. Reid of Boston, and Mrs. Herbert North of Pasadena, California. Her funeral took place on Thursday, the 29th, and was conducted by Rev. A. Cohoon of Wolfville, N. S.

CHARLTON.—At North Williamston on March 10th, 1904, Deacon Henry S. Charlton passed on to his eternal rest, at the age of 70, leaving a widow and four children, Mrs. A. M. Brown of Woburn, Mass., Mrs. E. P. Sandford of Somerset, Mr. D. M. Charlton of North Williamston and Mrs. A. J. Wheelock of Torbrook. Bro. Charlton was born on Oct. 28th, 1833. At the early age of twenty, he publicly professed faith by baptism, which profession he adorned by a consistent Christian life. Later in life he was chosen deacon of the Nictaux Baptist church, which office he worthily filled till the close of life. Those who heard him at the last conference he attended will not soon forget how earnestly he gave his testimony for Christ. He will be much missed in the church and the community where he lived. His last illness was borne with Christian fortitude and patience. "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace." Buried at Nictaux by Rev. C. H. Haverstock who preached from the text "He walked with God and was not for God took him."

JACKSON.—At the "Kennedy" House, St. Martins, N. B., September 17th, Mary, widow of Eipps Jackson, aged 93 years and six months. In the death of our dear sister there has passed away one of the oldest inhabitants of St. Martins. For some time past her health has been feeble with failing faculties, and her end came very peacefully. She had been most faithfully tended by her unmarried daughter, Miss Joanna Jackson, who occupies an important position in the well-known hotel conducted by Mr. Joseph Kennedy. For years she has resided with this daughter. Our departed sister was piously trained. Her mother was one of the earliest members of the St. Martin's church, and a most devoted Christian. Though thus religiously influenced from tender years, the seed did not bear fruit in public profession until late in life. She was baptized in Everett, Mass., when she was 80 years of age. Upon returning to St. Martins in 1893 she united with the church here of which she continued a consistent member until called to join the church triumphant above. She leaves three daughters and one son to mourn the loss of a good mother.

GLACE BAY.—The Roll Call of the Glace Bay Baptist church, held Sept. 20, was a decided success. Afternoon and evening services were held. A programme of inspiring addresses was delivered as follows:

Rev. Frank Beattie,—"Christ and the Home." Rev. Frank Bishop,—"Christ and Philanthropy." Rev. A. H. Whitman,—"Christ and Stewardship." Rev. A. J. Vincent,—"Christ and Civic Righteousness." Rev. G. W. Shurman,—"Christ and the Individual Heart." Special music was furnished by the choir. At the Roll Call, 158 names were called, and a large proportion of the members were present to answer. A Thank offering was received amounting to $193. At the close of the evening service, the Ladies' Auxiliary held a social for the members and friends of the church, altogether we feel that the day was one of great blessing to us as individuals and as a church. FRANK O. ERB.

MONCTON CHURCH.—Inasmuch as our body in its convention at Truro adopted the amended basis of union between our Denomination and that of the Free Baptists; and inasmuch as the Free Baptist in their conference, recently held at Tracy, adopted the same, therefore, resolved that we, the members of the First Moncton Baptist Church put ourselves on record as being in hearty favor of such union, and hope soon to see it consummated.

Moncton, October 6th, 1904.

EAST JEDDORE, N. S.—My wife and I returned from N. B. on the 23rd of Sept., having spent a month's vacation very pleasantly with our daughters at St. John and Doaktown and my wife's people. We met with a very warm welcome back. Our youngest daughter returned with us and will be home for the winter. Our church work is coming along very encouragingly. Congregations large and interest good, and the outlook very encouraging for a successful winter's work, there are already indications of a revival seen in our weekly prayer meetings. Peace and harmony prevails between Pastor and people. We find the people very kind. May the Lord bless them for all their kindness. JAS. A. PORTER.

Mont Pelee, in the Island of Martinique, has been in eruption for some days.

Arthur Andrews, alias Chas. J. Grant, one of the pickpockets arrested for robbing prominent persons attending the St. John tercentenary celebration, and who escaped from the Fredericton jail, is under arrest at Boston. He is charged with robbing a man in Charlestown of $1.25.

The first dogfish reduction works to be erected by the government will be at Canso. Mr. Whitman, of Canso, will have charge of the establishment. Professor Prince goes to New York in a few days to inspect the machinery for the establishment before it is shipped.

Track laying has been completed on the Halifax and Southwestern Railway across Medway River, twenty-two miles from Bridgewater and eight miles from Liverpool. Work on the station grounds at Bristol has been begun by the contractors, McDonald and Clarke with a crew of workmen.

The Algonquin Hotel and lands connected therewith were sold by auction Thursday at the county court house, St. Andrews, and were knocked down to F. F. Grimmer, the highest bidder, at $4,000. M. N. Cockburn bid $3,000 for the Imperial Trust Co. Mr. Grimmer was acting for Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the C. P. R.

At Truro Thursday, in the supreme court Judge Weatherbee presiding, true bills were brought against Arthur and Woodford Garvie, of Bass River, for stealing; also Charles and Barry Davidson, and Frank Stevenson, now in Dorchester, for stealing, and Fred Smith for throwing stones at car windows, breaking them and endangering life. The Garvie case was tried, and the men acquitted.

MOTHER AND CHILD

Scott's Emulsion is cod liver oil made almost as palatable as milk. It is easy and soothing to the weak stomach; it checks the tendencies of children toward thinness.

Scott's Emulsion gives strength to weak mothers because it creates healthy flesh and new blood.

Nursing mothers will find a special value in Scott's Emulsion because it insures a flow of rich, nourishing milk for the baby. More and better than a medicine; Scott's Emulsion is a food.

Scott's Emulsion is not a mere extract, containing imaginary "active principles" which do not exist, but is full of actual nourishment which sustains vital force and builds up the body tissues more rapidly than any other known remedy.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, Toronto, Canada.

A TEMPERANCE FRUIT COLONY.

CITRONA PARK is situated 23 miles from Orland, Glenn County, California, and 160 miles north of San Francisco, in a district that is practically free from frost and exceptionally healthful. The soil is a deep clay loam mixed with fine gravel. The drainage, both on surface and subsoil, is perfect. There is abundant and unfailing supply of water. The orange, lemon, fig, almond, apple, peach, pear, apricot, olive, grape and all kinds of fruit flourish here in perfection. The rainfall is abundant, so that no artificial irrigation is required except for citrus trees.

A clause in every deed prohibits the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor on the property for all time.

TERMS.—$65 or $75 per acre according to location, cash or easy payments. Ten acres make a comfortable homestead. If desired, the lots of absentee owners will be planted and cared for at lowest cost.
