

How Can You Give So Many Things Away?

That is the question inquirers of our premium plan ask every day when examining our premiums.

Here are the reasons:—

We manufacture a great many of the lines we sell, and the goods we do not make ourselves we buy direct from the manufacturer, thus saving wholesaler's, jobber's and retailer's profit.

We sell for cash and save the expenses of book-keepers and of collection.

When $25.00 worth of goods has been purchased at our store the customer gets a $5.00 premium, that is $5.00 worth of anything in our store absolutely free.

To learn of this plan means that YOU will become a satisfied customer.

REV. WM. DUKE RECEIVES GIFTS

At a special meeting of the Y.M.C.A. of St. John, last evening, Rev. William Duke, for the past few years chaplain of the society, was made the recipient of two farewell gifts from the members of the society. A large number of the members attended to bid him farewell and express their regret at his departure. Rev. W. J. Macgregor, president of the Y.M.C.A. of St. John, on behalf of the members, in a short address expressed the regret of the members at the departure of Rev. Duke, and their appreciation of the interest he has shown in the work of the society since assuming the duties of chaplain. He then presented him with a purse of gold. Rev. Duke replied briefly, thanking the members for their expression of esteem and expressed his sincere wishes for the future prosperity of the society. H. O. McInerney, former president of the society, also delivered a brief address. Rev. Father Duke will leave this evening for Moncton where he will be associated with the work at St. Bernard's church.

Higher Pressure Needed.
In compliance with an order of the Common Council the city engineer will in a day or so make a test of a divided water service with the object of securing a better pressure on Mt. Pleasant. The plan to be tried is the dual system which has been advocated by Mr. Murdoch, and which involves the use of water from Little River over a section of the city. The service will be divided by closing stop cocks at the March Bridge and other places, so as to shut off the flow from the high to the low levels and create two water zones. This, it is believed, will cause a better pressure on Mount Pleasant. The Board of Fire Underwriters have approved of the idea of making the test.

MR. NOBLE DENIES MAIL'S STATEMENT

Prominent Lumberman Says He Never Expressed Intention of Voting for Reciprocity Agreement.

W. J. Noble, of Fredericton, was reported in a recent issue of the Mail to have stated that it was his intention to vote for the reciprocity agreement. In the following letter to the Standard, Mr. Noble repudiates the statement:
To the Editor of The Standard.
Sir:—My attention has been called to an interview which appeared in the Mail of the 5th inst., in which I am quoted as having stated that I will vote in favor of reciprocity on the 21st.
I wish to take this opportunity to absolutely deny having made any such statement. I did not tell any representative of the Mail or anybody else that I would cast my ballot in favor of reciprocity.
I believe that the adoption of reciprocity would be a benefit to me personally in my lumber operations in Maine, but at the same time I do not hesitate to say that reciprocity can be of no benefit to the farmers of York County.
I also believe that if the reciprocity pact is adopted and the United States capitalists have free access to Canada's natural resources, the result will not be the building up of industries in Canada and the development of this country, but on the other hand our raw products will be taken over to the United States to keep the industries already established there in operation.

CANNOT AFFORD TO TOUCH RECIPROCITY

Agreement Spells National and Economic Disaster, Said Mr. Fowler at Hopewell Cape Last Evening.

Special to The Standard.
Hopewell Cape, Sept. 7.—The shire town of Albert county turned out en masse tonight to hear G. W. Fowler, the Conservative candidate of Kings, Albert. The large hall was packed to the doors with an enthusiastic audience, and the chair was occupied by Freeman Crockett, George Procter, M. P., was the first speaker, and in a brief address gave some pointed facts with reference to the issues in the present contest.
K. L. Peck, of Hillsboro, was next called on and in a short speech dealt with some phases of the reciprocity pact and its effect on the farmers. He said it was endorsed by the electors.
Mr. Fowler was given a most enthusiastic reception and held the attention of the audience for over an hour and a half in one of the finest political addresses ever delivered at Hopewell Cape.
He dealt very fully with the pact, showing that from an economic standpoint it would be a disastrous bargain for Canada. Then from a national standpoint he proved that Canada could not afford to touch reciprocity with the United States, if Canada's aim was to build up a nation and the British Empire beneath the protecting folds of the Union Jack.
The decline of the community turned out in force. The hall was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting. A handsome bouquet was presented to Mr. Fowler by a little girl and Mr. Fowler thanked the ladies very kindly for decorating the hall so beautifully.
Hopewell Cape will give a good account of itself on the 21st. Friday night Mr. Fowler speaks in the Public Hall at Harvey, and Saturday night he will hold a grand rally in the old Baptist church at Albert Mines.

HATCHET MURDERER IS STILL AT WORK

Portland, Ore., Sept. 7.—Two more victims have fallen before the mysterious hatchet murderer for whom the police of Washington and Oregon are searching. Mrs. Daisy Wehman and her four year old son are the latest victims. It was learned today that they were killed while in their cabin near Scappoose.
A hatchet was used in the slaying, although both also were shot apparently after they had been stricken down. The Hill family of Portland and Mrs. Coble, of Rainier, Washington, were killed in a similar manner by some person who entered their homes and escaped without leaving any clue.

OFFICIALS HOPE FOR SETTLEMENT

Berlin, Sept. 7.—The French Ambassador, M. Cambon, visiting the German Foreign Office today, discussed and received the draft of the German counter proposals to the revised proposals submitted by France last Monday regarding the Moroccan dispute. The Ambassador remained at the Foreign Office for an hour discussing the general situation with the Foreign Minister, Herr Von Kiderlen-Waechter. The officials of the Foreign Office have hope that the counter proposals will be the means of promoting a settlement. The government is keeping the draft secret and has asked France to do the same. The counter proposals, it is believed, do not imply the rejection of any of the French suggestions, but indicate the acceptance of some of them and the modification of others.

ELECTORS THROG TO HEAR MR. BORDEN

Canada's Next Premier And New Brunswick's Present One Address Large Crowds At Summerside.

Special to The Standard.
Summerside, P. E. I., Sept. 7.—Mr. Borden and Mr. Hazen received a great ovation when they landed here at 7.30 this evening from thousands of electors resident in all parts of Prince county. Two halls were filled to their utmost capacity and hundreds could not obtain admittance. Both meetings were addressed by both leaders, and the federal public permanent highways and aid for agricultural education as per the Conservative platform were discussed, as well as the reciprocity agreement. At the close of Mr. Borden's speech the whole audience joined in singing Rule Britannia amidst patriotic enthusiasm. Mr. Hazen's speech provoked most impressive, as did also that of Dr. Murray the Conservative candidate.

NOVA SCOTIA WILL CHANGE ALLEGIANCE

S. Fielding stands a good chance of being defeated. It will be hard to find a more formidable opponent in the province to run against the minister of finance than Mr. McCurdy. A. DeW. Foster, the youngest Conservative candidate in the field, is giving Sir Frederick Borden the fight of his life. Sir Frederick is carrying on a very abusive campaign, and Mr. Foster makes many gains by sticking to straight politics, saying that he has no time to indulge in personal attacks. Standfield in Colchester, and Rhodes in Cumberland, are making much headway, as are all the Conservative candidates. The Tories never had stronger candidates throughout the province than at present. They think that the reciprocity pact is a God-send to them in their campaign work.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier's visit to the province was most beneficial to the Conservatives, and their opponent for the prime minister was in poor condition, and the majority of those who attended his meetings did so to see the man not to hear his arguments, which, by the way, did not amount to much.
Hon. Geo. E. Foster concluded a very successful and effective visit to the province when he spoke to a monster meeting here Wednesday night.
R. L. Borden is going to visit the province this week. His programme follows:—New Glasgow, Saturday evening; Sydney, Monday afternoon; Halifax, Tuesday evening; Lunenburg, Thursday afternoon; Shelburne, Thursday evening; Bridgeville, Friday afternoon; Lunenburg, Friday evening; Kentville, Saturday afternoon; Windsor, Saturday evening.

PROMINENT MEET CLOSED YESTERDAY

Halifax, Sept. 7.—The provincial exhibition trotting meeting closed today, the races being postponed on account of yesterday's rain. The 219 pace stake had 8 starters, and 4 were timed to decide. The bay mare Mary Cromwell, purchased in the United States two years ago, won the last three heats and race. The time was good for half track. The free for all had 6 starters and was won in straight heats by Prince Louis, a Nova Scotia bred horse. Walter H., another Nova Scotia horse, took second place. Stanley Mack, owned in Medford, Mass., was distanced in the first heat, being a bad actor. The chestnut mare, Baby Logan, was ruled out in the third heat for interfering with Surveyor, running into him at the first turn and breaking his bike. The summary:

THE BRITISH MARKET.

Continuing the speaker pointed out how the development of steamship service, and the cold storage systems had opened up the large markets of Great Britain to Canadian farm products, and went on to show that if reciprocity was adopted and the power of the rapacious Canada compact was abrogated, we would have to go back to the British market again and repeat the laborious and expensive process of developing a market there.

THE DREDGERS' RAKE-OFF.

Speaking of the development of the harbor of St. John, he said neither Mr. Pusey nor the dredgers were responsible for the development here. The Conservatives had started the developments here and if returned to power would nationalize the port and pay into the city treasury the $1,250,000 expended by the city to equip the port. And the work of development will be continued without rake-offs for the dredgers to buy newspapers.

ECONOMIC RESOURCES AT MERCY OF REPUBLIC

burden of constructing the St. John Valley Railway. Continuing the speaker compared the policy of the two parties in regard to railways. He said the Conservative party built the short line through the state of Maine and made possible the development of the winter-ports. It also subsidized the first steamship service to St. John.

Turning to the reciprocity question he said it was the object of the American statesmen to make the United States the finishing house of the continent. It was cowardly of the government to propose to hand over our natural resources to the United States. (Hear, hear.)
When St. John undertook to provide facilities for the winter trade of Canada, it was believed that both parties were committed to the policy of developing the east and west trade. No citizen of St. John could vote to change this policy. If St. John must lose its importance as a winter port.

MR. POWELL.

Mr. Powell was given an enthusiastic reception. In opening he spoke of the honor which had been conferred upon him in being chosen as the standard bearer of the opposition to reciprocity, and proceeded to discuss the pact.
The United States, he said, had for some years been making a very satisfactory commercial and industrial conditions. The railways had been affected by these conditions and also by the railings of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Pierpont Morgan and J. P. Hill realized that if they could capture the grain trade of the country, their wheat crop would be assured. To handle the Canadian crop twenty-four full trains would be needed every day in the year.
Mr. Pusey would have the people believe that the Americans wanted our wheat for home consumption. But that is not so. At Minneapolis there are great flour mills, whose present output is hardly one-half of their capacity. Our wheat crop is wanted by the Americans in order that they may supply flour to foreign countries.
Hill and Morgan put their heads together and there was a conspiracy against Canadian interests. Mr. Morgan went to President Taft, who by the threat of his resignation, secured the National Policy, and declared that the Canadian government, and induced it to enter into negotiations for reciprocity.

Results of Conspiracy.

Mr. Hill's part was to send a great delegation of western farmers to Ottawa to ask for reciprocity. It has been shown that Canada was a large importer of foodstuffs. The number of immigrants coming into a country who were for a year or two non-producers, caused a demand for farm products which our own farmers could not always supply.

Canada Imports Food.

Turning to the reciprocity issue, he read from the Canadian trade returns figures showing that Canada was a large importer of foodstuffs. The number of immigrants coming into a country who were for a year or two non-producers, caused a demand for farm products which our own farmers could not always supply.

Sir Wilfrid's Evils.

Sir Wilfrid in his speech at St. John said the pact would not affect any trade agreement that might be made with the Mother Country. But that was hardly a fair statement. One thing was certain, the pact would have passed at Washington if there was not a belief in the minds of the American statesmen that it would lead to reciprocity in manufactures. Supporting the pact is ratified and next year Great Britain comes to us with a preferential proposal, and Sir Wilfrid accepts it, will any man say that the United States would stand for it? If Canada offered to admit British manufacturers on favorable terms, while maintaining a high tariff against the goods of the United States, would the U. S. abrogate the pact regarding natural products?

THE SPEAKER THEN TOOK UP SIR WILFRID'S STATEMENTS AS TO THE FAVORED NATIONS, SHOWING THAT MANY OF THESE COUNTRIES WERE GREAT EXPORTERS OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS AND WERE IN A POSITION TO SELL THEIR PRODUCTS IN CANADA AT LOW PRICES.

CABINET TAKES HAND IN CHEAP FOOD RIOTS

Rambouillet, France, Sept. 7.—A cabinet meeting, presided over by President Fallieres, was held here today to consider the disorder arising from the cheaper food agitation and to adopt measures intended to ease the cost of living. The minister of commerce and the minister of agriculture explained in detail the results of their investigations of the problem.
The cabinet approved a scheme to ameliorate the situation by facilitating the importation of cattle and frozen meats by installing refrigerators and storage plants, of which there are a lack in France, by demanding that the producers lower their rates of transportation of food and by suspending the tariffs on fodders. The French foreign minister, M. De Salver, said he had no communication of importance to the negotiations with Germany over the Moroccan question.

VERDICT TOMORROW IN BEATTIE CASE

Chesterfield Court House, Va., Sept. 7.—Five hours in a hot and murky court room, Attorney Hill Carter with a plea of both paths and argument sought the hearts of twelve jurymen in an effort to secure the acquittal of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., indicted for the murder of his wife. The Attorney arraigned the detectives in the Middleton Turnpike last July. At sunset Mr. Carter concluded and tomorrow the great battle of the trial the clash between Harry M. Smith, Jr., of the defense and L. C. Wendenberg of the commonwealth, close friends and notable lawyers, is scheduled, a verdict being expected some time during the night.

HIS HOLINESS HAS RECOVERED.

Rome, Sept. 7.—The pope today felt so much better that he had been able to remain longer than usual in the gardens. He allowed the pontifical photographer to take several snapshots of him both in his carriage and walking. He then posed for a photograph in Raphael's Loggia. To the photographer who asked permission to take the portraits, the pope said, "Certainly, give them as large a circulation as possible, thus showing to the world my complete recovery."
