WEDDINGS.

Cameron-Gregg.
A very pretty wedding took place at the Zion Methodist church yesterday morning when Rev. J. B. Chapman, assisted by Rev. W. O. Raymond, united in marriage Ernest Hamilton Cameron to Miss Georgia May Gregg, daughter of the late Abraham Gregg. She came into the church on the arm of her uncle, Edward Leacock. Miss Doris Chapman played the wedding march from Lohengrin. The bride was dressed in a grey travelling suit with hat to match, and carried a bouquet. The groom is a member of the union Savings Bank. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron left on the steamer Yarmouth for a trip through Nova Scotia. On their return they will reside at 188 Waterloo street. Among the many beautiful gifts received was a case of silverware from some of the staff in the bank, and a beautiful cut glass centre-piece from the N. B. Telephone Company staff.

Webb-Gregory.
A pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gregory, Lancaster, when their daughter, Helen, was united in marriage to Percy LeRoy Webb, salesman for G. E. Barbour Co., Ltd. Rev. A. J. Archibald tied the nuptial knot, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Norman McLeod. The bride, who was unattended and given away by her father, was gracefully gowned in beautiful oriental lace over white satin, wearing a Juliet cap and veil, prettily decorated with orange blossoms. The room was tastefully adorned, and the bride, carrying a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley, stood under a magnificent arch and bell. The bride's going away suit was navy blue, with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Webb left by boat for Boston on an extended trip, and returning home by train will tour the New England States, visiting several cities. Both bride and groom were popular residents of the West Side, and the bride was organist of the Charlotte street Baptist church and a former member of the Albert school teaching staff. The presents received were costly and numerous. Mr. and

GIRLS' CLUB NEW HOME WAS FORMALLY OPENED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Premises on Princess Street finely fitted up for work of assisting girls.

The new home of the Girls' Club and Travelers' Aid of the Playgrounds Association in Princess street was opened yesterday. There was a reception and tea in the afternoon at which there was a large attendance. Tea was poured by Mrs. George Barbour and Mrs. Barraclough. Besides these ladies the committee having charge of the arrangements included Mrs. J. F. Bullock, Mrs. McN. Steves, Mrs. N. C. Scott, Mrs. W. E. McIntyre, Mrs. J. Doody, Miss Lillian Delinast, Mrs. H. McKeown and Mrs. O. L. Barbour.

In the evening an enjoyable entertainment was provided by the girls, there being again many present. The large room to be used as an assembly room and gymnasium was tastefully decorated with flags and flowers, the latter having been kindly donated by Mrs. Murphy of the Isola Hotel.

The new quarters provide much better accommodation than the rooms in Union street, formerly used for the purposes of the Girls' Club and great credit is due to the ladies who have taken an active interest in the work. The remodeling of the building was done by the Playgrounds Association. It is well fitted up for permanent boards, as well as for transient or girls coming to the city. The latter being looked after by the Travelers' Aid in charge of Miss Pitt and Miss Hoyt. The home will be under the management of a lady residing on the premises.

The organization now consists of seventy-five members, and it is expected that this number will soon be increased.

In addition to the large hall, which contains a trap, with basket ball equipment and other gymnastic appliances, there are bedrooms, kitchen, bathroom, reading and writing room, study and office, all being on one floor. After supper, and preceding the evening entertainment, a B. Belding, executive of the Playgrounds Association, gave a short address. He congratulated all those who had helped to make a success of the undertaking, on the good work accomplished, remarking that the accommodation provided was in every respect satisfactory. The new home, he said, would make possible the extension of the philanthropic activities of the Girls' Club and Travelers' Aid as a joint institution.

The programme for the evening's entertainment was as follows: Opening chorus, orchestra; dialogue, The Little Housekeeper, Miss P. Howard, Honk, by the girls; reading, Miss Spranger; chorus, Never Trouble Trouble, by the girls; reading, The Busybody, Miss Violet Brindie; closing chorus, orchestra.

Circuit Court.

In the Circuit Court yesterday Grand Juror St. Patrick indicted by the Grand Jury on a charge of stealing $148 from Rosie Magill, was acquitted by the petit jury after fifteen minutes' deliberation. The complainant, and Detective McLaughlin were the only two witnesses for the crown and the defendant gave evidence in her own behalf. The testimony really amounted to the word of the complainant against that of the defendant, and the jury gave the prisoner the benefit of the doubt. The complainant's story was that the defendant took the money while she (the complainant) was lying down and asleep. E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defendant and Attorney General Barbour, C. prosecuted. The jury was composed as follows: Stanley Fisher, Wm. Pyne, Robert H. Murray, Ernest Ryer, Chipman Oliver, Justus G. Lake, Wm. Crabbe, Harold I. Suits, Charles Wamamaker, Harry W. King, Geo. W. Williams, I. D. Sparks.

BELGIAN ORPHANS.

Harvey Station, June 28.—A very pleasing and happy nuptial event took place on Wednesday, June 23rd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Burrell, Harvey Station, when their daughter, Bessie, was united in marriage with Fred Hanspacher, also of Harvey. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. P. MacKay, minister of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of two hundred invited guests. Promptly at three p. m. the hour appointed, the bride entered the parlor leaning upon the arm of her father. She was attended by her sister Anne, while the groom was ably supported by Charles Hunter. Following the ceremony a tempting luncheon was served at the home of the bride. The large number of beautiful and useful presents testified to the esteem in which both the bride and groom are held by their many friends. Among the presents received was a handsome dining room suite from the sister of the groom.

Maxwell-Livingston.
Last evening at 8:30 o'clock in the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, united in marriage Russell Raymond Maxwell, of New Glasgow, N. S., and Miss Cora

ASSESSMENT COMMISSION WILL LIKELY BE APPOINTED

City Council discussed Garbage disposal and other matters of importance—Overdraft for Ferry Department—Complaint concerning Holly Street.

The question of garbage disposal was before the city commissioners yesterday when conditions in the northern part of the city were particularly discussed.

W. H. Dunham was present and pointed out that if the garbage was allowed to collect in the past there was a likelihood of an epidemic starting there. He told the commissioners that he would assist in the work of dumping the refuse in Deep Cove. After considerable discussion it was decided that the matter be left for the consideration of the Commissioner of Public Works, who is to report on the best method of disposing of the refuse. It is probable that a scow will be used and the garbage deposited in Deep Cove.

Holly Street Repairs.

A letter written by George McDonald regarding the condition of Holly street was read. Mr. McDonald was loud in his denunciation of the poor condition of the street and requested some action by the council. Commissioner Potts said the street would be repaired as soon as possible and that no communication was necessary to further the progress of the work.

Commissioner McLeellan said he believed there was just cause for complaint and on a motion the letter was referred to the (Commissioner of Public Works) to report.

An Assessment Commission.

Mayor Frink announced that he was considering the appointment of an assessment commission and that the names would be announced later. It will mean an additional expenditure of at least $10,000.

The honor was read from the New Brunswick Telephone Company in which regret was expressed for placing a line of poles without the permission of the council. They believed that the poles erected were outside of the city limits and that they would therefore be unnecessary to secure permission of the city. The letter was received and filed.

North End Survey.

The North End survey was again taken up and as there is yet another plan to be submitted the matter was deferred until this morning at 11:30 o'clock. Commissioner Potts was anxious to dispose of the matter and was

SCHOOL CLOSING EXERCISES ARE SCHEDULED TODAY

Sixty-five graduates from High School and nineteen from St. Vincent's.

The public schools of the city will close today for summer vacation. Programmes have been arranged in the different schools. At the High School the exercises will have their usual interest. Sixty-five pupils will be graduated.

The list of graduates is as follows: Rev. R. J. Haughton will address the graduates. The presentation of diplomas to them will be by Supt. H. S. Bridges. Mr. Miles will present the honor certificates, while R. B. Emerson, chairman of the board of school trustees, will present the certificates to Grade XII graduates: Marion Cruikshank, Maude Holson, Della McLean, R. Wesley Davis, Bernard Gossnell, Edward Jennings, Austin McGuire, Robert Nugent, Donald Ross, Harrison Trimble.

Grade XI Honor List.

The honor graduates in Grade XI are: Bernard Haley, $7.67; Jean Somerville, $6.77; Clarke Somerville, $4.54; George Brown, $4.49; Kathleen Fitzpatrick, $4; Otto Evans, $3.47; Frances Jordan, $3.08; Doris Barbour, $3.05; Gwendolyn Ewing, $1.22; Miriam Mahoney, $0.36. The class of graduates is herewith arranged in alphabetical order:—Celia Amdur, Doris Barbour, Reginald Barclough, George Belyea, Gretchen Betz, Edith Brown, Mabel Brown, Chester Brown, Mabel Carson, Winnie Colwell, Daniel Connolly, Dora Corbett, Julia Curry, Richmond Cushing, Hazel Dunlop, Edith Eagles, Otty Evans, Gwendolyn Ewing, Kathleen Fitzpatrick, Arthur Gilroy, Richmond Grannan, Hugh Grellier, Bernard Haley, Helen Hannah, Bernice Hatfield, Dorothy Jackson, Howard Jamieson, Dorothy Jones, Frances Jordan, William Kirk, Marguerite Kirkpatrick, Charles Koe, Margaret Lee, Kathleen Logan, Miriam Mahoney, Gladys Marlin, Edith McNulty, Gladys Morrison, William Murray, Samuel McCavour, Robert McLeod, Consuelo MacLennan, Murray Nixon, Maudie O'Neill, Georgiana Seeds, Harold Seely, Agnes Short, George Skinner, Percy Smith, Annie Smith, Henry Smith, Walter Somerville, Clarke Somerville, Jean Somerville, Ronald Starnes, Ellis Taylor, Gemma Tracy, Jessie VanWart, Ronald Ward, Georgia Waters, Esther prepared to submit his report. Inasmuch as the city engineer said more information should be handed in it was decided to postpone action.

Commissioner Russell presented a motion, permitting him to make an overdraft of $5,000 for the purpose of paying the bills contracted on account of repairs to the ferry "Governor Carleton". There was some discussion regarding the matter before the motion was seconded and passed. In presenting his request the commissioner said that much money had been spent on repairs for the boat and at the present there are bills aggregating $4,600 which must be paid. This sum includes $800 which is to be spent for life rafts, which the government has ordered placed on the ferry.

Commissioner Potts was against the idea of an overdraft and cited an instance in which the council was requested to retrench instead of making more expenditures. After some argument it was decided to allow the overdraft of $5,000. When Commissioner Potts was asked whether he favored an increase in the fare on the boat he replied that he would favor a decrease. It was shown by Commissioner Russell that the receipts of the ferry for the year were $640 ahead of the expenditures. "The revenues," said the commissioner, "are not sufficient to pay the help and keep the boats in running condition."

Mayor Frink—"Will you be back for more money after these bills are paid?" Commissioner Russell—"No, I think that after the outstanding bills are paid the matter will be adjusted satisfactorily." The appropriation was then passed.

Commissioner McLeellan reported that the cost of "clean-up" day was $305.90. Of this sum the Board of Health has subscribed $300 and at the suggestion of the commissioner it was decided to allow the Board of Health to pay three-sevenths of the sum and the city to pay the balance. The motion was carried.

More Policemen.

Four special officers are to be added to the police force. This suggestion was made by Commissioner McLeellan. He said that Chief of Police Simpson has not at the present time a sufficient number of men to properly patrol the city and that the additional number is necessary. It was decided to appoint four new officers. The meeting then adjourned.

WELSH, Emily Wetmore, Dorothea Whitaker, William Whitaker, Eldon Wiggles.

MANY ATTRACTIVE RECRUITING POSTERS ARE ON EXHIBITION HERE

"Lusitania Disaster" and "Remember Scarborough" among the best—Camp Sussex also shown.

Much interest has been shown in the array of recruiting posters displayed in the city. Many posters have been received here from headquarters. A special line of Camp Sussex posters have been made up and these are on exhibition.

The latest poster received at the recruiting station is one which calls attention to the "Lusitania Disaster" and several instances are recalled. This poster in particular was sent to St. John from London, Eng., and reads as follows: "Remember the Lusitania. One mother lost all her three young children, one six years, one aged four, and the third a babe in arms, six months old. She herself lives and held up the three of them in the water, all the time shrieking for help. When rescued by a boat party, the two eldest were dead. Their room was required on the boat, and the mother was brave enough to realize it. 'Give them to me,' she cried, 'give them to me, my bonnie wee things, I will bury them. They are mine to bury as they are mine to keep.' With her hair streaming down her back and her form shaking with sorrow, she took hold of each little one from the rescuers and reverently placed them in the water again, and the people in the boat wept with her as she murmured a little sobbing prayer to the great God above. But her cup of sorrow was not completed. For just as they were landing, her third and only child died in her arms.

The rest of the poster quotes despatches from various German papers in which the Germans appear pleased at the havoc they wrought. Despatches follow: Berlin, May 8—Hundreds of telegrams have been sent to Admiral Von Tirpitz congratulating him.

Article in Cologne Gazette—The news will be received by the German people with unanimous satisfaction, since it proves to England and the whole world that Germany is quite in earnest in regard to her submarine warfare. Many other posters which have been received are on exhibition at the local recruiting office. There is an attractive array of literature which should appeal to the young men of the city.

Several other posters are shown, among them "Remember Scarborough." This is a striking poster and goes well with the many others which are on display in the windows.

One of the other posters reads: "The Empire needs men. Australia, Canada, India, New Zealand all answer the call. Helped by the young, the old lion answers the call. Enlist now. This poster was also sent from London to the local recruiting office. "Women of Britain say go." This is perhaps the most attractive poster in window and shows two women with a child watching the soldiers on their way to the front. This poster was sent by the Parliamentary Recruiting Committee, located in London, Eng.

The Shot That Grazed Her Shoulder Reveals Her Identity.

When Torpete, the gypsy, stole the little Princess at the order of the Chancellor of Ehrenstein, he was pursued by men who fired many shots. They did not hit the abduction, but one of the shots grazed the shoulder of the child. Fifteen years passed, and that same child, by a strange series of circumstances, finds herself in the royal palace, under arrest, because her lover has slain the king who insulted her. And in that same room is the gypsy, who, in earlier years, did the bidding of the Chancellor. Suddenly the gypsy catches sight of the mark on the girl's shoulder—and then he confesses that this little Gypsy Girl is really the heir to the throne and all the glories of royalty. These are just a few of the events that take place in Jesse L. Lasky's production of "The Gypsy Girl," founded on Harold McGrath's novel of the same name, in which Marguerite Clark appears as the absolutely adorable star. This attraction is announced as the offering at the Imperial today and the holiday, and should be one of the photodramatic treats of the season.

To Keep Skin in Fine Condition All Summer

It would be much better for the skin if little cream, powder or rouge were used during the heated term. Mixed with perspiration, dust and grime, these things are anything but beautifying. Ordinary molascuit will do more for the complexion, and without giving an oily, streaked, spotted or puffy appearance. It is the ideal application for the season, as it not only keeps the pores clean, but daily removes particles of dead skin which have been soaked by the sun. By constantly keeping the complexion clear, white, satiny, it does more toward perpetuating a youthful countenance than any of the arts or artifices commonly employed. One ounce of molascuit was obtainable at any drugstore, but completely renovated the worst complexion. It is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning. To keep the skin from sagging or wrinkling, or to overcome such condition, there's nothing better than a face bath made by dissolving 1 ounce powdered molascuit in 1/2 pint which wash.
