

THE WEATHER. Toronto, Oct. 26. Pressure is highest over the north-western states, and the depression which was in Missouri is now approaching the Great Lakes with gradually increasing energy. Rain has fallen from Lake Huron to Western Quebec. Elsewhere in the Dominion the weather has been fair.

AROUND THE CITY. LATE ARRESTS. The number of patients of the police station was augmented last night by three drunks, who will appear this morning, before the magistrate for their inebriated condition. In addition, Joseph Carr was arrested last night on the evening of a charge of vagrancy.

1914-15 STARS. A proportion of undistributed stars are in the possession of the Department of Militia Headquarters, Ottawa, and personnel who are entitled thereto are requested to send their names and addresses to the Secretary Militia Council, attention of Director of Records, Militia Department, Ottawa.

MARKET ATTRACTION. A black bear, weighing 450 pounds, was a feature of attraction at the market yesterday. It was a beautiful specimen of the brute family and was shot by a lad by the name of McErmott at Baronsville. Three shots were required, the first breaking the jaw, the second the left hind leg, the third securing the heart.

RED CROSS WORK. Miss Bertha Rutledge of the Red Cross Society is speaking at various points between Salisbury and St. John this week in the interests of Red Cross work. With Miss Jervis she addressed meetings yesterday at Riverview, Albert County in connection with the McElnally Memorial Hospital.

GUESTS AT BANQUET. About fifty of the Sunday school teachers and officers of the Ladies' were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Miller at a banquet at Bond's restaurant last evening. Rev. W. B. Williston was the speaker of the evening and delivered a forceful address on Sunday school aims and methods.

THE CIRCUIT COURT. The entire session yesterday of the Circuit Court was taken up in a suit for $25,000 damages by John E. McDonald against H. J. Fleming. The claim is based upon a charge for the misdirection of the affections of the wife of plaintiff by the defendant, D. Mullin, K. C., appears for plaintiff; Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., and W. H. Harrison for defendant.

KEEP MOVING. A police constable remarked last evening that out of the greatest tasks he and other officers have on their minds is to keep the people moving on the Charlotte street and Union street sidewalks. Whenever a few people stop for a conversation, there is either a hissing or other objection, and they are obliged to walk on the street.

FIRE WORKS DISPLAY. The few night trollers who happened to be on Prince William street last midnight were treated to an exceptional programme of fire works. The first street car to travel over the eastern side of the street for the past few weeks made the journey and the wheels coming in contact with the tar on the rails, as well as the electricity showing from the trolley wire caused an illumination all along the route until the car rounded into St. James street.

BOARD OF TRADE NOTES. A copy of the new customs tariff of British Honduras, which went into effect on October 12 last, has been received at the Board of Trade, and persons interested may look it over there.

RETAIL MERCHANTS ADVISORY BOARD. At a meeting of the New Brunswick executive advisory board of the Retail Merchants' Association held yesterday afternoon the following out-of-town members were present: W. G. deWolfe, St. Stephen; H. E. Book, St. Stephen; James Brown, St. Stephen; C. H. Burr, Fredericton; J. J. Weddell, Fredericton; T. B. Price, Moncton; P. R. Dixon, Moncton; R. F. Carli, Charlottetown; W. S. Smith, Harvey Station; Jas. Flacey, Miramichi.

Board of School Trustees' Accounts

Audit of Books Before City Council Showing Assets and Liabilities. The report of the city comptroller auditing the books and accounts of the Board of School Trustees was placed before the City Council yesterday and quite a little discussion took place as a result. Commissioner Bullock advocated the making of a separate levy and bill for the school assessment, as is done in the water department, so the people might have a better idea of just what the schools are costing and how much of their tax bill goes for that purpose.

THE REPORT. The report follows: October 22nd, 1920. To His Worship The Mayor and Members of the Common Council of the City of Saint John, Gentlemen:—I have the honor to present to you my annual report upon the books, accounts and finance of the Board of School Trustees of the City of Saint John.

Spring Quotations In Excess of Fall

F. W. Daniel and H. Mont Jones Look for Increase and Not Reduction in Prices. In the opinion of a number of retail merchants in this city with whom the matter was discussed yesterday, the impression which any one may have had that there will be a slump in merchandise in a very pronounced way, as a matter of fact all retailers approached so far on this question have held a similar view.

THE CAPITAL STOCK. O. J. Fraser, General Superintendent of the company, stated that the capital stock of the company on March 31 was $1,175,566. This was increased to $1,747,620 on June 30, 1920, the increase being taken from other funds in the company's possession. The capital no longer had been increased $161,850 since that time, the commission having authorized an issue of additional $175,000. About $5,000 of this amount had been taken up by employees of the company.
