

W. F. McLEAN IN BITTER ATTACK ON PAPER MAKERS

THINKS PRICE IS FAR TOO HIGH

Time Has Come for a Policy Change He Tells Tariff Commission.

Toronto, Dec. 1.—An unexpected attack on the tariff Commission was made by W. F. MacLean, M. P., publisher of the World, who claimed there had been an absolute breach of faith between the government when he spoke before the Tariff Commission here today. He alleged a scandalous condition in connection with newspaper manufacturers who were in the process of moving in Sweden and Finland.

Regulation of price is a corollary of the tariff law in this country," declared Mr. MacLean. "A company whose customer has been for years and to whom he had paid over a million dollars, had told him it did not want his business.

Where Pulp is Derived. "The preference was going to out and out free trade," said Mr. MacLean. "Here are newspaper manufacturers enjoying the protection of the Canadian tariff and saying: 'Go away from us, we don't want your business, we're going to supply the American publishers.' Yet these manufacturers are making their product from public lands, from the water power that belongs to the Canadian people, and are protected by the tariff.

"We are getting our paper at four or five prices in this country and all agreements made with the government have been broken. If the paper manufacturers are to have the protection of the duty which hangs out the side paper then it follows that in times of stress they must have their prices regulated and supply the home market first of all.

"I say it is infamous, also," said MacLean, "that the tariff should be used to pay interest on their watered issues.

"These men who have refused to give me paper have watered their stock four or five times and they are asking the investors of Canada to take these shares, cut up five times, saying they've got to pay five per cent. on them as a protectionist, say that the time has come when they must be regulated. The manufacturers had just announced that they would make the price six cents at the beginning of the new year. It ought to be five cents, even four cents or three cents," declared Mr. MacLean.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT "BUDDING" THE CHRISTMAS TREE MEANS?

You write out what you'd like for Christmas. Then mother writes what she'd like. Then sister. Then brother. Then father. And everybody. Then you each wrap up your wish in a tin foil ball. Red is mother's. Blue is father's. Silver is sister's. Green is brother's. And so on. Then you tie the little colored balls on your Christmas tree and then you fertilize it by emptying your savings banks at the base. Then you wait until the tree blossoms. If you want to know how to have the happiest tree in the world read "Fairy Prince" by Eleanor Hall, well Abbott in Pictorial Review for December.

CAN A MARRIED WOMAN BE TRUANT?

New York, Dec. 1.—Whether a married woman can also be a truant from school will be decided in court here on Dec. 2. A concrete test case has been presented as the result of the report to authorities that Mrs. John de Stefano, 14 years old, was married in August. Her story to the Judge was that "my husband won't let me go to school."

Had An Annoying Hacking Cough. Got No Rest At Nights.

Hacking coughs are very wearing on the system. The constant coughing disturbs the rest, and keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition, that unless you get immediate relief the cough may become settled and serious lung trouble ensue.

There is no better remedy than Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for relieving all kinds of coughs or colds, combining as it does the lung healing virtues of the pine tree with which is combined wild cherry bark and the soothing and healing expectorant properties of other excellent herbs and barks.

Mrs. E. J. Ross, Penhold, Alta. writes:—"About three years ago I caught a very bad cold, accompanied with a sore throat and hoarseness. I was so hoarse you could not hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible annoying hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. I finally saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised so I got a bottle. It at once gave me relief, and after using four of them my cough had all gone. Now I always keep it in the house."

Liquor Cases In Police Court

Considerable Evidence in the Tony Vasil Case—Former Inspector Testifies.

A case against Tony Vasil, charged with having liquor in his grocery shop, Main street, was resumed in the police court yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Louise Hurwitz of 25 Long Wharf, boarding mistress of Cosky Ross, the informant in the case, was called to rebut evidence produced at the last hearing, that the informant was drunk some time before the alleged sale had been made. Mrs. Hurwitz stated that Ross had his supper at her place between the hours of five and six on Saturday, Nov. 20. She could not say whether he was drunk or not. She did not smell any liquor on him.

Can I Fix You, Man? Inspector Journeay stated that when he, in company with inspectors Hopkins and Henderson, were searching Vasil's premises on Nov. 13, Vasil said: "Can I fix you, men, and how much money do you want?" Journeay asked: "Did you have anything to do with anyone else?" and Vasil replied, "Yes, I fixed the other fellow all right."

Inspector Henderson corroborated Journeay's evidence. Inspector Hopkins said he asked the Austrian who it was he had fixed. The witness had an idea in his own mind as to who it was, as Inspector Henderson had told him.

In answer to the magistrate, the witness said that Vasil did not succeed in fixing any of the inspectors. Considerable argument ensued between J. A. Barry, for the defense, and W. M. Ryan, for the prosecution, as to what evidence was allowable in rebuttal. After the argument had proceeded at some length, the magistrate gave his ruling, and John Boschek was called to the stand.

The witness said he knew Cosky Ross. On the night in question he saw him shortly after six o'clock on a street corner on the Long Wharf. He spoke to him, but Ross was too drunk to reply. Witness, himself, never took a drink. If he ever spoke to anyone, they always replied; they all knew him.

Former Inspector Testifies

John W. Mahoney, a former employe of the prohibition authorities, stated that he knew Ross to see him, and that he saw him near the Cold Storage on Main street at about 6:50 o'clock on November 20. Ross was drunk at the time.

Mahoney said he was not friendly with Tony, but he did ever receive any money from him and would positively swear to that. He had searched Tony's shop with Inspector Henderson. The latter found an empty flask there and passed it over to the witness when they were walking down Main street. As he did not want it, he wanted to get rid of it, he went back and gave it to Vasil. He told him at the time to clean up the bottles in the cellar and put a cellar door on.

Since that time Tony had told him that on the day the search was made he had given money to a man representing himself to be a liquor inspector. He was shorter than the witness and wore a brown coat and tan shoes. The witness stated that he had gone to Vasil's store several times since then for different reasons. He had been there twice to bring Vasil to court and several times to advise him when Chief Inspector Wilson would be in the city. The reason was that Tony had wanted to be present at an investigation before the chief. Questioned by the prosecution, Mahoney said he did not want to give evidence in the case in favor of Tony, as Inspector Hopkins had accused him of being the man who received the money.

Mr. Barry was summing up the case for the defense when the court adjourned at five o'clock.

Another Case

In the morning Ready's Beverages, Ltd., were charged with selling beer containing over two per cent. proof. Inspectors Journeay and Hopkins told of finding the beer in question in a box marked Ready's Beverages. M. V. Paddock, provincial assayer, said the beer was over two per cent. in strength. J. A. Barry, for the defense, said there was no evidence to show that the beer came from Ready's Beverages. W. M. Ryan, for the prosecution, submitted that there was a good prima facie case. His Honor said that he could not dismiss the case unless the defense produced some evidence.

Mattio Betti, in whose shop the beer was found, said that he had never dealt with Ready's, and got his beer from a man he did not know. The case adjourned till Thursday at two o'clock.

Thos. Draycott pleaded guilty to having his store open on Sunday, and was remanded.

Harry Kent pleaded not guilty to obstructing an officer by refusing to show him his record of lemon extract sales. F. C. Corneer saw evidence. Adjourned to procure witnesses.

A MISTAKE

St. John, N. B., Nov. 30, 1920.

Mr. John McDonald, Inland Revenue Department, St. John, N. B.: Dear Sir,—My attention has been called to a statement said to have been made by me when appearing before the Tariff Commissioners with the Retail Merchants' Association to discuss the Luxury Tax Collections, in St. John on the 9th inst. that I had stated that the Inland Revenue staff left their duties and offices at 4 p.m. daily. I beg to state that I have no knowledge of having made such a statement, and cannot understand how anyone could have construed my remarks to have implied or conveyed such an impression as I had no knowledge of their general office hours.

Respecting that such a remark should have been taken of my remarks, I am dear sir, Respectfully yours, (Sgd.) WILLIAM HAWKER.

FRUIT MEN ARE MUCH OPPOSED TO HIGH RATES

Claim Forty Per Cent. Express Increase Will Ruin the Industry.

BOARDS OF TRADE FIGHT PROPOSALS

Fruit Men Claim They Are Bearing Too Heavy a Load at Present Time.

Ottawa, Dec. 1.—Hearing of evidence and the admission of additional statements by interests opposed to a forty per cent. increase in express rates, occupied the attention of the railroad board until the afternoon of yesterday. The arguments of the fruit men called for the presentation of argument by counsel for and against the application by the express association of Canada for higher rates.

The arguments which have been commenced this morning will not be proceeded with until some time on Thursday. It will probably not be concluded until Friday afternoon.

Many Oppose Rates.

Statements and evidence adverse to the granting of the proposed increases were presented today on behalf of Toronto and Montreal Boards of Trade, dairymen, vegetable growers, fishermen, fruit and other interests.

Mr. T. Marshall, for the Toronto Board of Trade, estimated that a forty per cent. increase in express rates would mean another five to six millions for the Canadian railways. He thought that the express end of the railway business had been sufficiently taken care of by the recent judgment giving a forty per cent. increase in freight rates.

Representatives of the fruit and vegetable growing interests predicted that serious results would follow the granting of the full increase asked for. They agreed, however, that if it were necessary to give the express companies higher rates, the food producers were willing to assume their share of the burden. A statement to this effect made by Mr. George E. McIntosh, of the federal fruit division, was strongly objected to by Mr. D. A. Scott, counsel for the National Dairy Association of Canada, and other interested parties.

Maritime Fish Co.

A. H. Brittain, Montreal, vice-president of the Maritime Fish Company, on behalf of the producers of fish on the Atlantic coast and Ontario, predicted that such products are already bearing more than their proper proportion of rates, and any increased rates given should be placed on articles carrying first class rates.

The increase in the present commodity rates, he said, would practically kill the development of this industry between the Atlantic coast and the large centres in Quebec and Ontario. The producers of fish are in accord with the judgment given in March of last year in which the board declined to increase commodity rates.

Mr. Brittain said that if the express companies require further revenue the producers of Atlantic sea fish feel that the higher rates should be placed on articles of general merchandise and first class commodities, where the increases would not be materially felt, and not on low priced food commodities. The movement of fish by express, he said, was absolutely necessary to the fishing industry and the consuming public.

HOW TO "BE FIT" AT SIXTY

BY DR. LEE HERBERT SMITH.

As our boys "came marching home," they brought a certain red-blooded doctrine, and showed us the glory of a perfect body. They will show us how to "keep fit," even if we have passed middle life and are beyond the athletic stage. For the tired business man, the man who feels the daily grind and the nightly fog, has meager appetite, headaches, nerves unstrung, is gloomy, ending in a soggy brain, try the right way. Get out of bed, open the window, breathe deeply, exercise the army "setting-up" exercise or use dumb bells, until in a warm glow. Before breakfast take hot water, and occasionally castor oil or a pleasant laxative made up of May-apple, aloin, jalap, and sold by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

DEFENCE SAYS CLARK INSANE WHEN HE SHOT

Family Witnesses in Grand Falls Murder Reveal Long Line of Insanity in Family.

FAMILY TAINT IS INCREASED BY HURT

Prisoner Shows No Interest at All in the Trial and the Evidence Produced.

The prisoner today maintains that stoic indifference to proceedings that characterized his manner yesterday. He lay back in his chair with his eyes fixed upon the ceiling occasionally shifting them to the western hills. At no time did he show any interest in the evidence being adduced or did the sharp clashes between attorneys over admissibility of evidence arouse him from his stupor.

Went With His Mother

Only once did his demeanor change, only once did he show signs of interest in affairs; that was when his aged mother came to the prisoner's dock. He turned to her and spoke to her and kissed her forehead, and then he turned back to his prison cell. The Crown closed its case shortly after the opening of court this morning. The attorney general produced witnesses to corroborate the events already set forth as to the shooting and incidents following the tragedy.

And then—It's Always Good Alike.

He gave evidence relative to the prisoner's efforts to purchase a revolver a day or two before the murder. The most important evidence today for the Crown was given by George M. Taylor, a merchant of Grand Falls. According to his story the prisoner came into his store about nine o'clock in the morning on the day of the tragedy. He stood in the front of the store watching for someone. His vision was in the direction of the Pelletier House where Phoebe Bell was supposed to be stopping for a time. He remained there until after two o'clock when Phoebe Bell went by the store, in the direction of the Wood's house where the tragedy occurred.

Evidence to Show Intent

This testimony, as brought out by the attorney general, comes in the line of circumstance that might have a bearing on the intent in Clark's mind to do damage.

The attorney general fought the insanity charge all the way this afternoon and many legal contentions put forth by him were sustained by the court and the introduction of much evidence that would be damaging to the Crown was blocked. It is expected Dr. Anglin will be on the stand tomorrow and give the results of his observations. The Crown has a few witnesses in rebuttal and it is expected the evidence will be all in tomorrow.
