

The Daily Telegraph

and The News

VOL. LIII.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1913

NO. 4

WORLD'S BASEBALL SERIES OPENS OCT. 7

First Game Will Be In New York

Plans Arranged Yesterday At Meeting of the Magnates

Athletics' President, Not Discouraged at Losing Toss, Believes History Will Repeat Itself—Little Change in Playing Rules—Each to Have Charge of Its Own Tickets.

Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—The opening game of the world's baseball series will be played on October 7, when the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants, providing the latter do not upset the baseball universe and fail to win the National League pennant.

It will be the third consecutive year that the first game of the big series has been played in New York. Two years ago, the Giants won the opening game of the series, and last year the Boston Red Sox took the first game.

The tip of a coin decided the place and the date, Harry M. Hempstead, president of the New York club, making the Philadelphia club the home team.

The rules for playing the game are the same as heretofore, except that in case of a legal tie, the teams will not remain in the city where the tie occurred to play it off, but will adhere to the schedule of alternating each day between the two cities, in case of non-payment the teams will remain in the city where the tie occurred.

The National commission will not have charge of the distribution of tickets, it being left to the respective clubs as to the method they will pursue in selling them.

President Hempstead, Secretary Foster and the officers, except that in case of a tie, the club were elected over their luck in getting the opening game.

Benjamin F. Shibe, president of the Athletics, much as he wanted the first game played in Philadelphia, did not appear dismayed. "I suppose history is going to repeat itself," he said. "We lost the toss two years ago, we also lost the opening game, but we walked off with the championship."

The members of the National commission had nothing to add today to their announcement in Cincinnati yesterday night that ball players participating in inter-league series will be discouraged from writing baseless articles for the newspapers. Attention was called to the fact that certain members of the New York and Philadelphia teams had already signed contracts to write such articles, but the commissioners said they were not concerned about that.

Halifax Bank Clearings.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 25.—The bank clearings for this week were $2,192,843 and those for the corresponding period last year $1,600,776.64.

"My Greatest Asset is My Name"

Thus declared a manufacturer of a national product. He counts his fortune in millions and runs his factories in scores of acres.

Yet he declares, were all his assets to be taken from him except his name he would still be a rich man.

CARSON'S ULSTER SCHEME IS AN IMPOSSIBILITY

British Post Office Could Isolate the Rebels, Says Under-Secretary

Government Has Not Prosecuted the "Uncrowned King" Because They Do Not Wish to Make Him a "Saint."

London, Sept. 25.—The under secretary of the board of trade, J. M. Robinson, speaking at Newcastle tonight, said that Sir Edward Carson's provincial government was an economic blunder and a practical impossibility, which could be ended by the British post office cutting it off from the rest of the world.

The under secretary declared that Sir Edward Carson was not prosecuted for the reason that the government did not wish to make "King Carson," "Saint Carson."

Belfast, Sept. 25.—Further conference of the newly-formed provincial government to take over the administration of the affairs of Ulster, if necessary, have been checked by the illness of Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the Ulster Volunteers, who has been ordered to bed by a physician, to prevent a complete breakdown.

After the weekly cabinet meeting, the under secretary declared that the absorption of the people is shown by the request of the promoters to advance the hour of an important football game so as not to interfere with the review.

POTATOES IN HOULTON $1.75; WOODSTOCK, 70C

Carleton County Farmers Not Anxious to Sell at That Price—Deaf Mute Man Missing Eight Days.

Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 25.—Potatoes today are selling at seventy cents a barrel, and only dealers that are storing are buying. Farmers are not bringing many in, hoping for a better price.

Farmers today were paid $1.75 a barrel in Houlton, with a good demand. This is eight days ago. Nathaniel Bragdon, a deaf mute, left his home presumably on a hunting trip. He had a gun, and it is said had a hunting license. He has not been seen since, and all efforts to locate him have failed. His relatives fear that something has happened to him, but they know him, think he will turn up all right. He is a large man and very powerful and could endure quite a lot of hardship. If no tidings are received tomorrow searching parties will be organized to try and find him.

QUEBEC PAYMASTER SHOT ON THE ROAD

Would-Be Assassin Wounded Him in the Back, But Most of Shot Entered Back of Carriage Seat.

Sherbrooke, Que., Sept. 25.—Lewis Dean, paymaster at the Amalgamated mines, was shot in the back by an unidentified man this afternoon, while he was driving to Black Lake to pay off the men at the mines. A posse is searching for Dean's assailant. Dean, who is fifty years old, is in a local hospital and his chances for recovery are good.

The paymaster had in his possession a check for a considerable amount but carried no cash. Five pellets from the shotgun which the would-be assassin used, entered Dean's back, his life being saved by the fact that the greater part of the shot's charge entered the back of the carriage seat and failed to penetrate.

Provincial police will be on the trail tomorrow.

BLAME OPERATOR FOR I. C. R. WRECK AT AULAC

Sweeping Verdict of Coroner's Jury

Believe Amherst Despatcher Should Have Answered Moncton's Call and Held the Train—Recommend That I. C. R. Management Revise New Arrangement of Running Freights—Death List Now Five.

(Special to The Telegraph.)
St-John, Sept. 25.—At the inquest into the fatal wreck near Aulac last Tuesday, which cost five lives, the coroner's jury tonight after deliberating for an hour, returned the following verdict:

"We find that the said Amherst Despatcher, Frank Lyons, Oscar Hingley and Whitman Banks, who were in charge of the train, were negligent in not answering the call made by the Moncton despatcher between 12:25 and 12:30 p.m., and that he reports the dispatch of train No. 281 as it should have done that from the fact that after the supplementary time table went into effect on the International Railway on Sept. 19, 1913, it has generally been assumed among the trainmen that this time table would lead to accidents, and that the fact that this collision occurred so soon after the time table went into effect, and the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it."

The jury also found that the operator at Aulac station, who was in charge of the train, was negligent in not stopping the train when it was called by the Amherst despatcher, and that the train was running on the regular time table, and that the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it.

The jury also found that the Amherst despatcher, Frank Lyons, was negligent in not answering the call made by the Moncton despatcher, and that the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it.

The jury also found that the Amherst despatcher, Frank Lyons, was negligent in not answering the call made by the Moncton despatcher, and that the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it.

The jury also found that the Amherst despatcher, Frank Lyons, was negligent in not answering the call made by the Moncton despatcher, and that the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it.

The jury also found that the Amherst despatcher, Frank Lyons, was negligent in not answering the call made by the Moncton despatcher, and that the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it.

The jury also found that the Amherst despatcher, Frank Lyons, was negligent in not answering the call made by the Moncton despatcher, and that the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it.

The jury also found that the Amherst despatcher, Frank Lyons, was negligent in not answering the call made by the Moncton despatcher, and that the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it.

The jury also found that the Amherst despatcher, Frank Lyons, was negligent in not answering the call made by the Moncton despatcher, and that the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it.

The jury also found that the Amherst despatcher, Frank Lyons, was negligent in not answering the call made by the Moncton despatcher, and that the fact that the train was running on the regular time table, was a sufficient warning to the trainmen that the supplementary time table was in effect, and that they should have been on their guard against it.

SPANISH PRISONER FRAUD

CAUGHT P. E. ISLAND MAN

Parted With $200 as Result of Swindling Letter—Post Office Department Issues Warning to the Public Against the Old Game That Has Been Worked So Long.

(Canadian Press.)
Ottawa, Sept. 25.—The post office department has issued the following warning:

"Letters from the Spanish prisoner fraud are actively circulating in Canada. These letters are mailed at Madrid, Spain. They are in many cases, as in the latest case it is a Russian banker who is in prison. At other times it is either a French or Spanish character, but the essential part of the fraud is the same, viz.—That the prisoner has an immense sum of money deposited in hiding, and generally an interesting character, and on certain conditions he is willing to share his treasure with and entrust his daughter to the person to whom he is writing."

"Of course, as a preliminary and as evidence of good faith a certain sum of money must be put up by the correspondent, and one gentleman in Prince Edward Island was induced to part with $200 in this way. The case is a pure fraud and the public are warned against it."

ELECTION DAMAGED PEOPLE AT CHATEAUGUAY

Hon. Robert Rogers Hopes to Carry Constituency by His "Purity" Methods.

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Ottawa, Sept. 25.—The first installment of Hon. Robert Rogers' election methods in the Chateauguay constituency is likely to be made public in a few days. It is understood that the public works department is preparing plans for a dam across the Richelieu river, near the town of Chateauguay. The work is being done by the province, and the dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907.

The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907.

The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907.

The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907.

The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907.

The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907.

The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907. The dam is to be built on the site of the old dam, which was destroyed by a wash over in 1907.

ANOTHER BALKAN OUTBREAK LIKELY

Former Allies Now At Sword's Point

Regain Her Lost Territory

Servia and Albania at It Flamer and Tongs—All Prisoners Taken Are Shot—Greece Ready to Take a Hand in the Affray.

(Canadian Press.)
London, Sept. 25.—The Balkan crisis is becoming more acute. It has been aggravated by the apparent determination of the Young Turk military party to profit by the dissensions among the former allies. Turkey is reported to have again called for the colors of the Asia Minor campaign, while an officer lately returning from Tripoli, it is said, is leading an uprising against Bulgaria in Thrace.

The efforts to subdue the rebellious Albanians is likely to prove a severe strain on the exhausted army and cashiered officers of Servia, especially if the story of the uprising of Servia's army is true. In Vienna the belief prevails that Servia is merely seeking an excuse to upset the decisions of the ambassadors' conference by setting points not included in the territory allotted to her.

In Athens many believe that Greece is the whole Albanian trouble seems to be due chiefly to arbitrary disregard for the arbitration conference and the nationalization of the territories concerned.

Vienna, Sept. 25.—No quarter is being given in the fighting between the Servian troops and the Albanians, according to dispatches from Belgrade. All prisoners taken by either side are immediately shot.

The Albanians, besides taking Dibra, have stormed and captured the towns of Struga, Jakova, Kitchovo and Jakovo, but they failed in their attack on the important town of Prizren.

Quebec, Sept. 26.—As the result of a midnight blaze which broke out in a three-story wooden building at 468 St. Francis street, adjoining the Terra Hotel, all indications at an early hour this morning pointed to the cremation of eight children of the family of Ulrich Trudel, the proprietor, who together with five other families, lived in the house.

Tory Candidate in Chateauguay.
Montreal, Sept. 25.—James Morris, who was only forty votes behind J. P. Brown, the Liberal member for Chateauguay, Quebec, at the last election, was this afternoon chosen by the Conservative party organization in the constituency to be its candidate in the coming by-election caused by Mr. Brown's death.

Do You Know Anyone Like This?

Stop and look at this illustration again. It shows splendidly the far reaching power of a little Want Ad. Aided by this little messenger, a son was found in the heart of equatorial Africa and brought back to the bedside of his dying mother. If ever you have occasion to communicate with someone whose address you do not have, a little Want Ad may find him quickly at trivial cost. Want Ads are wonderfully effective little messengers.

Use "The Want Ad Way"

SAV TRAIENMEN ARE NOT OVERWORKED

Have Time to Run Their Own Autos, Testify Railway Officials

Also Declare at Federal Arbitration of Wage Dispute That There Are Great Chances for Advancement Among Employees.

New York, Sept. 25.—Two railroad officials who have risen from the ranks, today told the federal arbitrators in the controversy of the Eastern roads with their conductors and trainmen, that railroad work offers unequalled opportunities. This was the second day devoted to testimony on behalf of the railroads.

E. H. Hewitt, assistant trainmaster on the Gessner & Lake Erie, said that he had been overworked, some of the conductors on his road had time to spare to run their own automobiles. Mr. Hewitt was at one time a brakeman and conductor, and later chairman of the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Trainmen of the Order of Railroad Conductors.

The reason trainmen want to be conductors, he said, is that in the west the territory is so wide that the railroads must pay more to get the men. "I do not think there is any difference in the actual work of the trainmen in the two territories."

The second witness was John Patterson, trainmaster of the Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania. His opinion was that railroading affords more money and greater opportunity to betterment than other pursuits requiring equal skill and knowledge.

FRENCH AVIATOR GIVES LONDON CROWD A THRILL

Turns Somersaults With Machine in Midair and Does All Sorts of Hair Raisers.

(Canadian Press.)
London, Sept. 25.—The acrobatic French aviator, Alphonse Pegoud, gave the citizens of London an exhibition of his aerial somersaults and topsy-turvy flying at the Hendon aerodrome this afternoon.

Pegoud's remarkable manoeuvres began when he had reached a height of 1,200 feet from the ground, where he tilted his aeroplane so that it was at right angles to the earth. He then plummeted on the tip of one wing and did several dives with the nose of his machine downward for 100 feet before he regained his equilibrium.

The aviator then rose to a height of 3,000 feet and accomplished the most sensational exploit by an aviator ever witnessed here. With a sudden swoop downward he threw the aeroplane on its back, flew in this manner for some seconds, righted his machine and repeated the performance before reaching the ground, where he was given an ovation by an enormous throng.

CANADA'S TRADE GROWING FAST

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—Canada's trade figures, announced today, show striking increases, the total for August being $97,749,893, an increase of $4,978,200. Of these exports Canadian manufactures represented $4,911,475.

It is expected that the total for the year will exceed that of 1912 by about $200,000,000. Exports for August were $147,334,484, an increase of $4,978,200. Of these exports Canadian manufactures represented $4,911,475.

Fielding to Sail for England Sept. 25.—Hon. W. S. Fielding left today for Ottawa; his family will remain for some time longer at Chester. Mr. Fielding spent most of the summer in Nova Scotia, and is in fine health and spirits. He expects to sail for England at an early date.

Fielding to Sail for England Sept. 25.—Hon. W. S. Fielding left today for Ottawa; his family will remain for some time longer at Chester. Mr. Fielding spent most of the summer in Nova Scotia, and is in fine health and spirits. He expects to sail for England at an early date.