Bovril

is known and esteemed throughout the civilized world. Its reputation is based on the fact that it contains the whole of the valuable properties of beef in such a form that it is easily assimilated. It is therefore equally valuable to the athlete and to the invalid.

It is appreciated by the housewife on account of the delicate flavor and aroma it gives to all dishes with which it is used, and it is a strong point in its favor that while adding to the palatable character of the food it also very considerably increases its nutritive value.

PUBLISHERS' TALK

THE jingle of sleigh-bells grows louder as Christmas approaches and this number of the "Canadian Courier" keeps in mind the season of good-will. The story, "Home for Christmas," by Alice Jones, the well-known Halifax novelist, is a bright bit of holly fiction, and "Abdul, a Tale of a Christmas Turkey," by E. A. Dent, is just the sort of story to be taken with cranberry sauce. The serial story is one of unusually dramatic situations and will hold your attention for many weeks to come. Next week, "The Man from South Africa" will be the narrative attraction.

OUR mistletoe cover with its courtly figures was generally popular as a highly artistic piece of work. This winter we shall give you others quite as picturesque. With the season's sports we are keeping up bravely and next week shall publish an illustrated article by Mr. H. J. P. Good on the past and present of hockey.

THE region of James Bay is growing in national importance as its extent and wealth are realised. An illustrated article on this great district will be in our next issue. The Island of Newfoundland is too near our own territory not to be of vital interest to Canadian readers in both scenery and population. Mrs. Grace E. Denison, whose articles on that colony have a vivid quality which few writers attain, will contribute a sketch "Hymen in Newfoundland" to an early issue of this journal.

OUR photograph friends are reminded that the "Canadian Courier" is interested in seeing and exhibiting their best work and is not at all afraid of snowy scenes or frosty back-grounds, realising that Canada has all seasons for her own.
