Blood and Thunder

Sheer hypocrisy

Note: That the individual student councils cannot represent the individual views of their respective student bodies (on abortion) as personal view point. P. 7 of the official minutes of the UNB Student Council meeting Nov. 1, 1989 at the Student Union.

Underdogs

There is no Blood and Thunder section this week since our readers haven't sent in any letters. What's going on? We'd like to keep this section going, so send in any opinions or gripes that you might have.

Leave my output alone

To the management bin? I received your note on my output and there are a few facts I would like to point out to you. I use the timeframe that I research. Everything that I print out is the FINAL result of a chemical computation on a computer. I do not use intermediate results. I do not use complex and convoluted equations. I do not use the student body communication skills of Mr. Gill. I do not use the developme

Subjected

To the Editor: During the past year, the student body has been subjected to the "In The Pink" column and while this letter is not intended to be an attack against the writer of the column or the beliefs held by the author, I have been getting bored with an ongoing debate between the two extremes on the issue. It does seem to me that such a column on a monthly basis would be acceptable but in the meantime, perhaps Mr. Gill could use his impressive communication skills from the student body to write a column that would affect the Board of Governors rather than using the "In The Pink" column. While I am not a member of the Student Union, I am a graduate and I am a member of the Student Union. I am a member of the Student Union. I am a member of the Student Union.

Good bye
