

Separated at birth?

BY GAZETTE STAFF

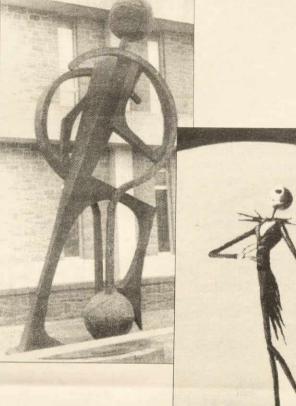

Once on a night much like every Thursday, a Dal student gave birth to a pair of twins in the warm glow of the Grawood; pre-renovation, you understand. Amidst the drunken reverie, one baby was whisked away to live a life of fame and fortune in the public eye, while the other led a normal existence right up to that most average of universities, Dalhousie. Unbeknownst to them, the intrepid reporters at the Gazette caught wind of their secret and have endeavoured to pair the siblings after so many years of separation. Here then are our findings. We'll keep you posted.

Mother Dal's new year's resolutions

BY GAZETTE STAFF

The dawning of 1996 like last year and the year before and so on, stretching back infinitely into time - produced the usual assortment of fruitcake and hangover-motivated promises that no one intends to keep. It's questionable that anyone would even notice a year had ended and another had begun without these gut tighteners, euphemistically labelled resolutions. To add then, to the flood of lists signalling the best of the past and all things that suck and we intend to change, may we present a list that Mother Dal herself might compile if given the chance.

- Quit smoking. May be the only one to stick, already limited to the 'wood, the Corner Pocket, and the newly christened "Grey room."
- 2. Start smoking...about funding cuts.
 Besides, it's cool and there's nothing like being indignant.
- 3. Turn down the heat.
- 4. Turn up the heat.
- 5. Have mole removed, ie. bulldoze the Life Science Centre.
- 6. Cut down consumption of the unofficial mascot of Dal, the Mcbeaver an egg on a bun breakfast treat.
- 7. Limit class size down to nothing for those inaudible, mumbling professors.
- 8. Clean out junk drawer toss out all the old red tape.
- Make tuition affordable.
- Purge student apathy with mandatory democracy: if you don't vote, you don't graduate.
