Honourable Senator:

This is rather late to send birthday greetings. However, I feel that some indication of my existence should go forward, especially in view of the fact that I have not made any inquiries about my Ms. Be assured that I have not forgotten The Inscrutable Canadian! Just at present I am rather busy. Have just finished a history of the Doukhobors which the editors seem to like, but which has not raised their courage to the point of publication. No doubt when the thirteenth one has seen it there may be results.

It is my intention about the beginning of the winter season to revise and put away for publication at some suitable date, permission being available, The Inscrutable Canadian. So that I hope should time permit that you will not forget marginal notes as you promised. Should you be in this part of the country any time before next year shall be glad to discuss it and have the Ms. back for revision.

This year, I am keeping the apartment and week ending at my cottage at the shore - a rather strenuous adventure, but one that keeps me better entertained than formerly. I am not doing so much writing, but having two Ms going the rounds of the editors' desks am not hurrying things.

With kind regards and best wishes,

Very truly,

A. W. Foster
