

The Carrier

Rejoices with all in St. John over the prosperity of 1912, and looks hopefully forward to greater progress in 1913. His wanderings about the City and Suburbs in the faithful discharge of his duty have shown him in fact and in prospect these evidences of growth, so with the enthusiasm of youth he shouts

"Happy New Year!"

