

the local Legislatures respectively, and to such Provisions as they may think proper to enact.

II. But it shall not be lawful to impose by any such Regulation any temporal or pecuniary Penalty or Disability, other than Loss of the Emoluments of any Ecclesiastical Office or Benefice, under any Sentence or Proceeding affecting the Tenure thereof.

III. And no such Regulation shall be binding on any Person or Persons other than the said Bishop or Bishops, and their Clergy, with the Lay Persons residing within the said Colonies, and being declared or bona fide Members of the Church of England, or being otherwise in communion with the same.

IV. And nothing herein contained shall be held to authorize any such Regulation made in respect of the Nomination of Bishops, except upon the Consent of Her Majesty previously or thereafter signified through One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

V. And nothing herein contained shall be held to authorize any such Regulation which shall touch the Subordination of the said Bishops, Clergy, and Laity to the See of Canterbury, except upon the Consent of the Archbishop of the said See previously or thereafter signed by him under his Hand and Seal.

VI. And nothing herein contained shall be held to authorize any such Regulation which shall direct or allow the Bishop of any Diocese to confirm or consecrate, or to ordain, or to license or institute any Person to any See, or to any Pastoral Charge or other Episcopal or Clerical Office, except on such Person's having immediately before taken the Oath of Allegiance to Her Majesty, and having likewise subscribed the Thirty-nine Articles, and having furthermore declared his unfeigned Assent and Consent to the Book of Common Prayer; but if such See, Pastoral Charge, or Episcopal or Clerical Office, be in a Foreign Country, then the Oath of Allegiance need not be required to be taken by such Person.

VII. And it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if
