

Preamble.

THE members of this Society, believing that disembodied human spirits sometimes manifest themselves or make known their presence and power to persons in the earthly body, and hold realized communications with them, have organised themselves as a corporate body under the name of the First British Columbia Society of Spiritulists.