

WHERE ROBERT SERVICE WROTE HIS FIRST POEMS: AN OLD STORE
on the Koksilah River, Forty Miles North of Victoria on Vancouver Island,
Where the Poet Worked as a Clerk Before the Yukon Gold Rush Took Him
North. It Is Proposed to Make the Store, Which Is Now Deserted, a Robert Service Museum. (Robert H. Davis.)

14770
6800
Service Museum
Victoria