

NEW BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS

THE SECRET GARDEN

By Frances Hodgson Burnett, author of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," "The Shuttle," etc. Illustrated by Chas. Robinson.
$1.50. $1.20 postage paid.

This tale should win among both children and grown-up people even more popularity than "Little Lord Fauntleroy." It is full of humour and pathos, and the exquisite enchantment of the garden.

DOWN NORTH ON THE LABRADOR

By Wilfred T. Grenfell, M.D. With illustrations. $1.00 post paid.

Dr. Grenfell's new collection of Labrador yarns, which, although confined exclusively to facts in his daily life, are yet full of romance, adventure and excitement.

THE WILDERNESS

By Joseph Hocking. Four illustrations in colour. $1.25. $1.10 post paid.

A new story by Mr. Hocking which will be welcomed by his large and appreciative multitude of readers.

THE JESUIT

By Joseph Hocking.
$1.50. $1.20 postage paid.

Mr. Hocking's stories are all on a high level. They are interesting and entertaining, and will be read by many these winter evenings.

THE SINGER OF THE KOOTENAY

By Robert E. Knowles. $1.25.

A tale of to-day. The scene of action being in the Crow's Nest Pass of the Kootenay Mountains of British Columbia. The author has been aptly called "the Ian Maclaren of Canada."

THE FOLLOWING OF THE STAR

By Florence L. Barclay, author of "The Rosary." $1.35. $1.20

A love story which turns upon a Christmas sermon. After you have read it you will want to turn back and dwell once more in the wonderful realm which the talented author has created.

THE STORY GIRL

By L. M. Montgomery, author of "Anne of Green Gables." $1.50. $1.20

Miss Montgomery ranks with "Ralph Connor" as a writer of Canadian tales.

MOTHER CAREY'S CHICKENS

By Kate Douglas Wiggin $1.25. $1.10

One of the most delightful books this talented author has yet written. A book that will live long in the memories of all who are so fortunate as to read it.

KENNEDY SQUARE

By F. Hopkinson Smith. Illustrated by A. J. Keller. $1.25.

HEATHER AND PEAT

By A. D. Stewart. $1.20.

Mr. Stewart is a distinctive Scottish novelist, not hastily to be classed with Mr. Crockett or Ian Maclaren. There are chapters in "Heather and Peat" which the foremost Scottish writers would be proud to own, and two of its characters are good enough to make an author's reputation.

CANADA: TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW
