

filly to Mr. Colin McKeigan, Strathroy, Ontario, Canada. The stallions are Sir Nestor (11966) and Gairat Alexander (11712). The former was bred by Mr. W. Young, Drum Farm, Campbelltown, and got by the beautiful thick horse Ben Cruachan, out of a Sir Everard mare, gr. dam by Jacob Wilson. He is a thick, nicely turned, heavy horse, with good legs and action, and lots of style. Gallant Alexander (11712) was bred in Cumberland by Messrs. Wilson, Hodgson & Son, and is by Count Alexander, out of a Lord Lothian mare, gr. dam by Garthsherie. He is a very big-sized thick horse, with good legs, and both animals should be popular in Canada. The filly was bred by, and recently purchased from, Mr. St. Clair Cunningham, Hedderwick Hill. She is by the good breeding and prize horse Gay Evarard, out of Miranda; a splendid big mare by Royal Garty, and also winner of several prizes. The filly herself has been very successful in the show ring, having won several first prizes at east country shows, both as a foal and as a yearling. She is big, with fine action, as well as first rate feet and legs, and is fit to hold her own in good company in this country. In addition to the above animals Mr. McKeigan also bought the finely bred horse Lord Lovat (11985) from Mr. James Fleming, Fruek, Maine, Fruekheim. He is a full brother to the well known breeding stallion Clan Chattan, being by the celebrated Mains of Airdies, out of Young Lady Fair, by the Caydor Cup winner, Prince of Carruchan. He is a very thick-made horse, of a fine color, with capital wearing bones and feet. He should also prove a first rate breeder, and we trust Mr. McKeigan may have every luck with his select shipment.—The Scottish Farmer.

The Calgary Show

The horse fair and sale under the auspices of the Territorial Horse Breeders' Association, held at Calgary on April 4-6, was a success. Ideal weather prevailed, the entries were large, and big crowds witnessed the judging and admired the splendid stock on exhibition. The sale of work horses was not as successful as anticipated, the season being too far advanced, and few buyers of work horses were present.

The aged stallions in the Clydesdale class formed a big string, and were judged by J. Standish, V.S., Walkerton, Ont., and C. M. McCrae, Ottawa. The first place went to Charming Prince, and the second to King Columbine, shown by J. A. Turner. In the 3-yr.-olds Barharrow (imp.), owned by Halliman Bros. Airdie, got first, but he had a close run with Cairnton's Best, shown by J. H. Alcott, of Medicine Hat. This colt is Ontario-bred, and in the hands of Smith & Richardson headed the lists at the leading shows.

Only one class for Shires was shown, five stallions being out, three of them shown by Geo. E. Brown, of Calgary. The six Hackney stallions on exhibition put up a good show. The class for saddlers was well contested. Very few grade drafters were shown.

Regina Show

The spring stallion show held at Regina early last month brought out a good lot of heavy horses, and a great deal of interest was taken in the lectures delivered. Among those from the east who took part in the lectures were Duncan Anderson, of
