

JUST PUBLISHED, And for sale at the Book Store of A. & W. Mackinlay, No. 16, Granville Street, CUNNABELL'S NOVA SCOTIA ALMANAC And FARMER'S MANUAL, for 1852.

The utmost care has been taken in this No. to prepare the Lists of Officers—in Public Departments, and of associated bodies—with the greatest possible accuracy. In addition to the usual calculations comprising the Astronomical Department, will be found—the Moon's Declination, the Meridian Passage of the Polar Star, Moon's Semi-diameter and Horizontal Parallax, the Sun's Declination, Equation of Time, &c. The Chronological Summary comprises a series of events brought down to the end of 1847. These, with the "Random Readings," (which will afford amusement for the grave, the gay, and the reflective), it is hoped, will render this Almanac interesting to the Public generally; while the Agricultural Department—entitled "THE FARMER'S MANUAL"—cannot fail to be useful to the readers for whose service it has been compiled. November 15.

Summary of News.

BY THE R. M. STEAMER.

The R. M. Steamer Niagara arrived at this port on Wednesday night last. The principal items of news are given below:

Trade had improved considerably in England. The funds were tolerably steady, and money rather scarce.

It is rumoured that Sir George Grey, the Marquis of Lansdowne, and Mr. Fox Maule, are about to retire from the Cabinet, and that their places are to be filled up by the three most distinguished individuals of the Peel section, viz., Sir James Graham, the Duke of Newcastle, and Mr. Sydney Herbert.

It is now certain that Mr. Haues retires from Kinsale at the meeting of Parliament. There are several candidates in the field.

The Protestant Alliance held a great meeting in London, on the 28th ult., at which the Earl of Shaftesbury presided. Resolutions were passed for petitioning both houses of Parliament for the repeal of the Maynooth Endowment Act.

Lieut. General Sir Charles Napier it is reported will have the command at the Cape, and that the appointment has been urgently recommended at the war office and Horse Guards.

Lord John Russell had granted £500 to Lieut. Pim, from the treasury, towards paying his expenses to Siberia, in search of Sir John Franklin.

Father Mathew had arrived in England. The East India Company have forwarded to Manchester, for sale a further consignment of 96 bales of cotton from Cochinchina.

A flagrant conspiracy against the President of the French Republic had been discovered in the French Assembly.

The republic of France is obviously safe, through the good sense and sound discretion of the Republican leaders. The army has perpetuated order, and tacitly defeated those who would outrage, under the pretence of promoting it.

The Constitutional openly charges Changarnier and fourteen others with conspiring to expel the President and reinstate monarchy, and the charge is sufficiently specific to indicate that there is some truth in it. The latest telegraphic news says that the President's last speech had created a most favourable impression on the Bourne.

The Prussian Government has undertaken to establish an electric Telegraph between Hamburg and Lubec. The wires are already being laid down. There will be no intermediate stations.

The Prussian Official Gazette has published an edict issued by the minister of public instruction, which place the Prussian schools and teachers under the controul of the clergy.

Holstein dates of the 24th ult., state that Lieut. Pim, on his way to Siberia, to search for Sir John Franklin, dined with the King of Prussia, who gave him a letter to the Emperor of Russia, and wished him success. It is believed that the Prussian treaty with Hanover will be carried out in its integrity.

From Denmark we learn that the ministerial programme is published. The constitutional union between Schleswig Holstein and Denmark is given up for the present.

The Austrian Lloyds says that General Haynau is about to sell the large estates he purchased in Hungary, on account of the difficulty of finding labourers to cultivate them.

The weather has been very severe throughout the North of Europe.

The King of Hanover died on the 11th Nov. Advice from Spain to the 23rd ult., state that Narvaez has addressed the senate to the effect that his retirement had been voluntary; the impossibility of carrying out the proposed financial reductions was the cause. He entreats the Liberal party to remain more than ever united in anticipation of "terrible trials and evil days for Spain."

The Spanish Government had pardoned 23 British subjects who had been engaged in the Cuban affair.

A letter from the Russian frontier reports the publication of an imperial ukase, ordering the Jewesses to wear their own hair, and prohibiting the use of wigs.

The Russians have again been terribly defeated by the Circassians.

The Cape Town Mail announces the arrival at the colony of Mrs. Pfeiffer, the lady who has travelled around the world. She intended, it is said, to set out on a tour in the interior.

Accounts from Australia continue to arrive. Gold is very abundant, new diggings are daily being discovered.

INTERESTING INCIDENT.—Jenny Lind attended the Seamen's Bethel in Boston last Sabbath and listened attentively to a discourse from father Taylor. The day following the venerable preacher received a note from the good Jenny, containing words of sympathy for the cause of religion among seamen, and the sum of $100 in cash. The Boston Times says:—"This benevolent hearted woman never tires in her works of charity. She is the goddess of song and the angel of goodness. Heaven bless her?"

The first questions said to have been mooted at the opening of Congress were the following—A Railroad from Missouri to San Francisco—a Telegraph on the same route—a line of Steam Ships from San Francisco to China—and a Mint in California.

The young men at New Orleans are preparing a present of silver plate for Mr. Smith, the secretary of the British Consul at Havana, for his kind attention to the American prisoners of the Lopez expedition.

Accounts from Portland, Maine, of the 7th inst., report a most destructive fire in that city—loss estimated at $100,000. Several vessels at the wharves were more or less injured. A scarcity of water was experienced.

Thirty-six young ladies were poisoned at Utica on Monday.

The debates in Congress were becoming exciting.

The town of Dalton, Texas, was destroyed by fire on the 27th ult.

The recommendations of the Postmaster-General, that the present rate of postage on letters be adhered to, and that a more simple and uniform rate on newspapers be adopted, are sanctioned by the President. A revision of the statutes of the United States is strongly recommended.

MARKETS.—NEW YORK, December 9.—FLOUR, $4 18 to $4 25; COAL, (Sydney) $6 37, (Pictou) $5 61; FISH, (Mackerel) $8 21; Cod-fish in fair demand.

BOSTON, December 10.—Flour market firm and full prices realized.

The Treasurers of The Supernumeraries and Minister's Widow's Fund gratefully acknowledge the receipt of the following sum, viz: From Halifax Circuit, (Class Contributions,) £7. 3s. 8½d.

To Correspondents.

XX is under consideration. Baltimore: We posted a letter some time ago, which, we hope, has ere this reached its destination.
