The two deacons, ordained in St. Paul's Church, Leavenworth, Kansas, on the first Sunday after the Epiphany, are both converts to the Church. Dr. Cameron comes from the Presbyterians, in which body he served with distinction for a period of ten years, holding very important charges, his last being a pastorate in Philadelphia. Mr. Dyke was a Congregational minister for a number of years.

The Rev. Canon Valpy, upon resigning the Rural Deanery of Winchester, has been presented by the members of the Ruridecanal Conference, both clerical and lay, with a beautifully carved cabinet, which is made of beech wood from the Cathedral foundations, and bears inscriptions both as to the object for which it was made and as to the 700 years during which it has been under water.

Very shortly after the Bishop of Porto Rico returned to the island a very cordial welcome was extended to him and Mrs. Van Buren by the rector and congregation of St. John the Baptist's Church, San Juan. During the course of the evening on which this greeting was given the Governor of the island made a laudatory address, in which he spoke of the general and affectionate regard in which the Bishop is held, after which the rector, the Rev. F. A. Warden, on behalf of the people, both clerical and lay, within the Bishop's jurisdiction, presented the Bishop with a beautiful pectoral cross of gold.

On the Feast of the Epiphany the former curates of the Rev. J. Gregory Smith, numbering, in all, nineteen, who were under him at Great Malvern from 1872 to 1896, combined to make him a present in the form of a purse, which they asked him to accept as a token of their feelings of respect and of affection, and to spend in whatever way might best approve itself to him.
