TAXES.—Considering the "hard times," the taxes of this town for the current year are being paid with commendable promptitude. The total amount collectable this year was something over $12,000. Of this amount, $9,658 were paid in previous to the present week. On Saturday, which was the last day for receiving taxes without an additional 5 per cent., about $4,000 were taken in at the Treasurer's office. About $2,000 is the full sum remaining to collect. Wonder if our Grit friends can see in this any indication of the ruin which the foreboding of the National Policy is spreading over all parts of Canada?

A full list of Skates, at rock bottom prices, at S. Bricker & Co's new hardware.

PRESENTATION.—Previous to separating for the holidays, the pupils of the Listowel High School presented Mr. F. E. Mettler, who has occupied the position of assistant teacher of the school during the past year, with an address expressive of their esteem for him and regretting his departure. The address was accompanied with an ornamental inkstand and time piece combined, and a gold pen. This expression of kindly feeling on the part of the students was suitably acknowledged by the recipient. Mr. Mettler leaves to resume his studies at Belleville college, where he expects to graduate next year, after which we understand that it is his intention to enter the ministry of the M. E. Church.

CHRISTMAS CONFERENCE in endless variety and very cheap, at C. G. Koch's Grocery and Provision store, Wallace street.

ORATORIO OF ESTHER.—We are pleased to notice that Prof. Holmes is engaged in organizing a class of singers with a view of rendering the above, and probably another of the Cantatas, "The Haymakers," should he find sufficient voices to warrant the undertaking. As this Cantata will require the aid of all the better voices of our town, we trust Listowel will be behind its sister towns in giving its hearty support and proving itself to possess first-class musical talent. The costumes for "Esther" are pronounced gorgeous and dazzling, and with the scenery of our new hall, the rendition of this piece will doubtless be a magnificent affair. The class will meet on Friday and Saturday evenings in the Temperance Hall.

FOR THE CHILDREN.—A great variety of toys, elegant dolls and china dolls, sleighs, rocking horses, children's musical instruments, and such a host of nick-nacks as would surprise old Santa Claus himself—very cheap at Dr. Michener's book and drug store.

EXAMINATIONS.—The Intermediate Examinations in the High School are at present in progress. There are sixteen candidates, including some who are competing for bursaries and certificates. Examinations are being conducted by Mr. P. S. Davis, B.A., of Stratford High School. The examinations for entrance to the High School in the place commenced on Wednesday, 18th inst. There are some fifty candidates for admission, a large proportion of whom are from the county which prove that the value of the High School is being more appreciated by the community. In the absence of the Public School Inspector, the examination is taken charge of by the chairman of the Board, the Rev. J. W. Bell, M.A.

NEBURY.—Mr. Gordon, the gentleman who recently approached the Council for the purpose of obtaining exemption from the property tax, has been successful. He is providing for the establishment of a nursery and green house in this town, has decided upon coming here without municipal aid of any description. We understand that he has purchased a plot of five acres from Mr. Thos. McDowell, on the east side of the agricultural grounds, upon which he intends erecting a first-class green house, and will lay out the grounds for the purposes of a nursery and garden. His resolution to establish a business here is commendable, and we are sure that our citizens will wish him abundant success and be all the more anxious to extend to him a patronizing hand.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—The annual Christmas festival in connection with the Sabbath School of the M. E. Church, took place on Thursday evening of last week. There was quite a numerous gathering of both old and young folks present, and the evening was pleasantly spent. Rev. H. Norris, P. F. McGeorge, J. G. Scott, Mr. Metzler and others gave short addresses or readings, interspersed with choice musical renditions. The great feature of the occasion, however, was a Christmas tree, laden with presents for all. Their distribution was very interesting, and caused considerable merriment. At every person present had received a gift, valuable or otherwise, the children of the school made a special present to Mr. Metzler, who has been a devoted worker in the Sabbath school during his stay here. The testimonial was in the shape of a handsome writing desk and an address. Mr. Metzler feelingly responded. His departure is much regretted by the children, who feel that they are thus separated from a warm friend.
