MEMORIAL SERVICE

On Sunday evening a memorial service was held in Kentville Baptist Church in honor of the late Harry B. Mahar who was killed in action in January and also of Lance Corp. Hughie Spencer who died of wounds last year.

The church was draped with flags and potted plants ornamented the platform. The pastor Rev. A. W. West took as his text, Greater Love hath no man, than that he laid down his life for his friend. It was a solemn and impressive service throughout and the sermon touched the hearts of all the listeners. Special appropriate music was given by the large choir led by Mr. Burpee Bishop including a quartette, "Face to Face," by Misses Spidell and Neary and Messrs Cross and Charlton. At the close Miss Bishop organist played the Dead March while the audience stood with bowed heads. In his sermon Mr. West paid tribute not only to the dead heroes but those who had returned to their homes.
