ATHENS CARRIAGE WORKS

The subscriber is now ready to offer to the public a larger stock and a greater variety of fine Carriages than ever before, and of the latest styles. My Carriages have been before the public for over thirty years and it will be unnecessary for me to say anything as to their merits. Suffice it to announce that it is my purpose to keep them in the front rank, as they have been in the past, and enjoy the good opinion of all who may use them. My Wheels are the best A grade. Buy no other, as there is more deception in a wheel than in any other part of a carriage.

Local Announcements Brought Right Down.

A good second-hand buggy for sale at A. James.

It is estimated that there are now fully 4,000 visitors at the T. I. Fair.

The annual illumination of the Thousand Islands will take place on Aug. 16.

Rev. Mr. Murdoch leaves for a brief visit to the Queen city this morning.

Mr. Vanaman, of Iroquois, spent a few days at Charlton last week, the guest of Mr. Parish.

Mr. A. Thacker, of the Montreal Bank, Brockville, took in the fishing at Charlton last week.

Carriages built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at modern prices—A. James.

Mr. W. Taber, of Carleton Place, was in Athens two or three days last week. He reports business lively.

Miss May Campbell, head dress-maker for H. H. Arnold, left Athens on Friday last for Toronto on a brief visit to her mother.

All the cottages at Charlton are occupied, and several parties that intended spending this week there are disappointed.

Mr. Dr. Correll and daughter, with Miss Ens Koye, of Brockville, are occupying their cottage at Point Geraldine this week.

Thirty-eight of the "Thousand Islands" in the St. Lawrence river will be offered for sale at auction in Gananoque next month.

The Dominion government is sinking a well at Deloraine, Manitoba, at a depth of 1,900 feet, and has failed to find artesian water.

The proposal of our government to put a duty on American eggs will make the farmers smile. There is a good deal about the egg trade that Hon. Mr. Foster does not know.

A genuine coat price suit—goods costing $1 will be sold for $1. Notice—T. W. Dennis, China Hall, Brockville, will remove to Merrill Block Sept. 1st. All goods sold at cost previous to removal.

Dr. H. H. Stone, of Durhamville, N. Y., arrived in Athens last week on his annual visit to the home of his mother. He was accompanied by Messrs. H. Coley, E. F. Hasckell, and S. A. Campbell, of Oneida, N. Y., who make their headquarters at Cedar Park.

On Sunday next a collection will be taken in the English church, Athens, to assist in the rebuilding of the Church's beautiful cathedral, bishop's palace, clerical houses, orphans' hall and school house, destroyed in the great fire at St. John's, Nid.

News of the death of Mrs. O. L. Kilborn were received at Frankville with profound regret. Dr. Kilborn was born and brought up in that vicinity. A resolution of deep sympathy was passed in the Methodist church and ordered to be sent to him in China.

Mr. Saunders' cottage at Charlton this week contains a party composed of the following: Mr. Byron Lovrin and wife, Miss and Mr. Tinkens, Greenbush; Mr. C. Bourne, Addison; Mrs. Geo. Griffith, Brocklyn, N. Y.; Miss Westlake, London, Ont.; and Mr. H. Beck, Booklyn, N. Y.

The regulations regarding the school of Pedagogy have been changed. Candidates for profession, high school, and first-class certificates will in future have to attend the school for four months, and subsequently serve six months as high school assistants, before being allowed to write on the prescribed examination for certificates.

Among the guests at Harbor View Hotel, Charlton Lake, last week, were: Henry Beadell and family, New York; Baron Von Veicht and wife, London, Eng.; Mrs. W. Colinson and Mrs. J. H. Green, Montreal; Rev. H. Johnson, Grand Rapids, Mich.; C. E. Leach, Oak Point, N. Y.; J. W. Lodowood, Stratford; C. S. Savage and wife, Hamilton, N. Y.; S. H. Laughlin, Toronto.

A strange geological phenomenon is presented by one side of Lake Ely. It consists of an embankment like a dike, extending along the water-front for a quarter of a mile. It is about three feet high on an average and is composed of large flat stones and earth. From the top of the dike, the water flows over the stones, and the character of the stones preclude the theory that the bank was cast up by the waves. A similar embankment is found at Cranberry Lake in Wolford township.

The congregation of Christ church (Anglican) Athens, intend (D. V.) holding their annual dinner Thursday, Sept. 1, 1892. Sir John Thompson, Hon. M. Powell, John Wood, M. P., George Taylor, M. P., and a number of prominent local laymen and clergymen are expected to deliver addresses on the occasion. The church people intend to spare no efforts to make their annual gathering the best ever held in this place. Amusements of all kinds for the younger portion of the community will be provided.
