THE SHARON SENSATION

Mrs. Evans and Her Fellow Pri Committed to Stand Trial.

EVIDENCE OF THE WITNESSES

ness - Trial at Next

Toronto, Feb. 9.—The trial of the secured trio in the case of alleged poisoning, in which an attempt was said to have been made on the life of Watter Evans, a hotel-keeper at Sharon, by his wife, his hostler, named Osman, and a young man named Pegg, came up in the County Court house here yesterday.

The first witness to give evidence in the case was Maggie Reid, a servant girl. Her evidence was of a decidedly sensational nature. She had heard Pegg tell Mrs. Evans that the only way now left was to try the stuff in oysters. She saw a letter that Mrs. Evans wrote to Pegg, who was going on-a vinit to Toronto, telling him to be sure and buy "the stuff that started with S" when he reached the city. She had also seen Pegg's reply, which stated that he could not get the stuff in the city without being found out, and advaning h r to send George to Bradford or Mount Albert. Osman had been sent to Bradford twice.

TORONTO, Feb. 10.—The evidence given years.

TORONTO, Feb. 10.—The evidence given yesterday in the alleged case of attempted poisoning brought against Mrs. Evans, Charles Pegg and George Osman, was most damaging to the accused trio.

After Maggie Reid had finished her story of the doings at the Evans' house, Dr. Lewis H. Campbell, of Bradford, gave his testimony. His evidence corroborated the statements already published. George Osman had purchased 30 grains of stryohnine on December 28 and 20 grains on January 4, saying that he wanted to polson foxes with it.

After a number of other witnesses were examined, all going to damage the accused, Mrs. Evans was put on the stand, after which the Crown rested its case.

The three prisoners were then committed to stand their trial at the next assizes.

EMPEROR AND CZAR-They Are on Friendly Terms and Both Wish for Peace.

Berlin, Feb. 8.—The members of the Reichstag who attended the Parliamentary banquet given on Monday night by Chancellor von Caprivl are gradually divuiging in the lobby of the Reichstag the details of the speeches made on that occasion. It is said Emperor William fulsomely praised the Czar, saying: "He is a prince of peace like myself." Continuing, his Majesty is reported to have said that his relations with the Czar were excellent and of the most intimate nature, yet should the with the Czar were excellent and of the most intimate nature, yet should the Reichstag reject the commercial treaty enemies would immediately damage Germany. In conversation with one of the Conservative members of the Reichstag the Emperor said he had carefully studied the agricultural distress under anxiously contemplated remedies to relieve it. Nevertheless he was convinced that a duty on grain of 3½ marks would be sufficient for the protection of the German farmers. Ten years ago, he added, the farmers would have considered such a protective tariff beyond the range of possibilities.

at the Coming General Elections.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 8.—In the House of Assembly yesterday Fremier Fielding introduced a bill for taking a plebiscite on prohibition simultaneously with the pollific for the local general elections, now only a few weeks distant.

In the Legislature yesterday Premier Fielding gave notice of motion for the committee to draft a memorial to Her Majesty the Queen. It is understood it is proposed to ask permission to increase the number of members sufficiently to carry abolition or to otherwise grant power to abolish the Upper Chamber.

The Pastor of a Baltimore Church Assaulted by His Assistant.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 12.—A sensation was caused yesterday morning in St. Paul's Roman Catholic church by an attack upon the pastor, Rev. Wm. J. Hill, by his assistant, Rev. Patrick V. McDonald.

Dr. McDonald had been appointed by Pastor Hill to celebrate the mass at 10 o'clock and also the high mass at 11 o'clock. During the celebration of the former the worshippers were amazed to see Dr. McDonald approach Father Hill, who entered to assist at the celebration, and strike him a violent blow, felling him to the floor. Before Father Hill could arise Dr. McDonald came to the chancel rail and gestionlating wildly, exclaimed that there had been a conspiracy between Father Hill and Bishop McDonnell to drive him from the diocese. He then turned and again assaulted Father Hill. Parishioners finally rushed forward and held him until the arrival of officers. He was subsequently taken to St. Peter's Hospital for treatment in charge of an officer.

It is understood that McDonald had been though the Bishop's secretary that he would not be made a regular priest of the diocese, and this fact weighed upon his gain die has many friends who be-lieve him to be insame.

Ottawa, Feb. 12.—It is being freely asserted that a bill will be introduced at the next meeting of the Ontario Legislalature providing for the ballot in Separate schools elections. United Canada, the Catholic paper here, in its issue of Saturday had an article supporting such a measure. In past years it opposed secret voting because the schools were not properly organized. It now says that, "To deny the merits of the ballot system in school matters, would be equivalent almost to denying the franchise to men who would be free, in matters of state. The subject is not should be the sentinel of the state, but the crown should be the guardian of the subject." It concludes by saying "We are for the ballot."

Fur Thieves Captured.

MONTREAL, Feb. 12.—Mesars. Gross & Libervitch's fur store, 34 St. Henri-street, was broken into on Friday night, and two men have been arrested for the crime. Mr. Moise Bastien, who lives over the store, was awakened by the noise and came down the stairs in time to see three men disappear with bundles under their arms. He called the police, and Constable McGrath arrested Thomas Dinnery, a molder, living in Hermine street, and telephoned for Detective O'Keefe. The latter traced footprints in the snow from the store to 35 St. Maurice street, where Samuel Dwyer lives. There was a light burning in the house and officers knocked for admission, but there was no response. Through the keyhole they could see the bundles of furs, so they broke open the door and arrested Dwyer. They found the furs hidden in various corners and took them to the police station.
