A TURKEY FAIR

Some places of no greater commercial importance than Athens have boards of trade, and these are now considering what should be done in the way of arranging for a turkey fair this season. We commend the subject to our council and business men as being worthy of consideration.

For the last two years Athens has been the centre for disposal of large quantities of poultry, many thousands of dollars being paid out here by American and Canadian buyers. It should be the aim of our business men to secure for the poultrymen the highest market price for what they have to sell, and how best to do this might well be considered now.

The practice for the last two years has been for the American and Canadian buyers to hold separate fairs, and while good prices have always been paid in Athens, it is just possible that bringing all the buyers here on one day might lead to a still better price being paid. This can be done if either the village council or a committee of business men take the initiative.

Judging from the centralizing tendency of recent years, it looks as if Athens might easily be made a much greater poultry centre than it is at present, and the accomplishment of this is certainly worthy of an effort.

DEATH OF RICHARD ARNOLD

A week ago we reported an accident—a fall—that happened to Mr. Richard Arnold. His injuries were not considered to be serious, but at the age of 86 he was so near the border land of the "unseen world" that only a little shock was required to cause him to pass over. On Thursday, while sitting in a chair at the home of his son Omer Addison, the call came suddenly and he was dead almost before his attendants realized it.

Richard Arnold was a native of Kitley and spent many years of his life as a farmer at Frankville and Addison, where he amassed a competency and retired to a comfortable residence he had erected in Athens.

On Jan. 31st, 1844, he was married to Caroline Webster, daughter of the late Asa Webster of Augusta, and she with one daughter and four sons survives him, viz.: R. M. and A. F. of Saskatchewan, H. H. of Athens, O. P. of Addison, and Mrs. (Rev.) Rillance of Rodney, Que. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold celebrated with their family the diamond anniversary of their wedding in January, 1904.

Mr. Arnold Richard was a man of sterling character, upright in all his dealings, a faithful member of the Methodist church, and a strong champion of the cause of prohibition of the liquor traffic. By his death Athens loses one whose influence was always for the good of the community.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Saturday, service being conducted in the Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. S. J. Hughes, assisted by Rev. C. J. Curtis of Addison, and interment was made in the cemetery here. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Wiltse, John Cars, S. A. Taplin, Joseph Kerr, Amos Blanchard, and Horace Brown.

Mrs. T. J. Frye spent Saturday and Sunday in Athens.

BURGLARY AT ROCKSPRING

On Saturday night last the store and post office of Mr. R. C. Latimer at Rockspring was burglarized. Entrance was gained by removing a pane of glass, and after securing about $25 in money, $20 worth of stamps and about $60 worth of postal notes the thieves departed by the front door. They worked very quietly and the burglary was not discovered until Sunday morning. It is thought that the burglars were acquainted with the premises.

Brockville Business College Notes

Mr. Chas. Maley wished to take two weeks to brush up his office work but was with us only one day. The C. P. R. wired him to report for duty at Winnipeg. Young men for offices are certainly in demand.

Better Than Ever

The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal grows better year after year. It is truly marvellous what an immense circulation it has. Very few homes in this neighborhood are without it and those do not know what they are missing. The Family Herald's new picture this season is entitled "A Tug of War," one of those beautiful subjects that brighten one's home. To give the Family Herald and Weekly Star along with such a picture for only one dollar can only be done by a paper with the Family Herald's circulation. No other Canadian paper could attempt it.
