No bird-song floated down the hill, The tangled bank below was still; No rustle from the birchen stem, No ripple from the water's hem.

The dusk of twilight round us grew We felt the falling of the dew; For from us, ere the day was done, The wooded hills shut out the sun.

But on the river's further side We saw the hill-tops glorrified— A tender glow, exceeding fair, A dream of hay without the glare.

From out the darkness where we trod, We gazed upon those hills of God, Whose light seemed not of moon or We spake not, but our thought was

We paused, as if, from that bright shore, Beckoned our dear ones gone before; And stilled our beating hearts to hear The voices lost to mortal ear.

Sudden our pathway turned from The hills swung open to the Light; Through their green gates the sun-shine showed, A long slant splendor downward flow-

Down glade and glen and bank it rolled,
It bridged the shaded stream with gold;
And borne on piers of mist, allied
The shadowy with the sunlit side.

"So," prayed we, "When our feet draw near
The river dark with mortal fear,
And the night cometh chill with dew,
O Father! lef Thy light break

"So let the hills of doubt divide, So bridge with faith the sunless tide, So let the eyes that fall on earth, On Thy Eternal hills look forth; And in Thy beckening Angels know The dear ones whom we loved below!"

LI SAID HE WOULD

Put Down the Boxers and He is Doing it.

Slaughtering and Beheading Going on -All Found in Arms to be Exterminated.

Shanghai, Sept. 26. - Li-Hung Chang telegraphs to Chinese officials here that his troops, in obedience to his orders, are hunting out the Boxers in the Province of Chili. They have killed more than a thousand of them at Bangchow, and dispersed large bodies at Ausub and Chuchow, south-west of Pekin.

A dozen of their leaders were captured and publicly executed by decapitation an hour later. Li-Hung-Chang adds that the surrounding country will be free of Boxers in less than ten days. They are returning to their farms everywhere.

The army of extermination is the remnant of the army Li-Hung-Chang had when he was Viceroy of Chili. These men comprise the best soldiers in China. It is apparent that Li-Hung-Chang is carrying out his declaration that he would destroy the Boxers.

The despatch further says that he has issued orders ensuring the safety of the Catholic missionaries who are holding out at Cheng-Ting, and also of the missionaries who fled from Paoting early in the trouble. He declares that no anxiety need be felt concerning them. Li-Hung-Chang was expected to zervive at Pekin on Sept. 23. He received on Sept. 13 the commandant of the Peitang forts. This was before the attack was made on the forts. The commandant notified Li-Hung-Chang that an attack fied Li-Hung-Chang that an attack was expected, and he asked permission to defend the forts. Li-Hung-Chang sent a messenger back with orders not to defend them, but to evacuate them on demand. The mes-senger did not return, and the fight

The American, British, French, and Japanese Consuls-General made an The American, British, French, and Japanese Consuls-General made an formal protest against the removal of the Taotai of Shanghai. The protest took only the form of a suggestion that it was a bad time to make any changes. The Viceroy replied that it would be a month before the official papers arrived and he took up the matter. Then, if it was proved that the proposed successor of the tactai had acted with the Boxers and had memorialized the throne asking for the repudiation of the foreign debt, an emphatic protest would be made against him, and he would not be allowed to come to Shanghai.

BIG OIL STRIKE.

The South Penn Oil Company Made it.

Pittsburg, Sept. 26.—The South Penn Oil Co., has made a tremendous strike in a new oil well in Lewis countrike in a new oil well in Lewis county, W. Va. The well is flowing at the rate of 200 barrels an hour, or 4,800 barrels a day. The tanks provided are too small to hold the great flow and the oil is being allowed to run into a creek and dammed up with a view of pumping it out later.

AUSTRALIA'S PRIMITIVE BUSH-MEN.

The Bushmen of Australia are the most primitive tribe of people in the British Empire. Some of them do not build even the simplest forms of huts for shelter. They gather a lot of twigs and grass, and taking them into a thicket or jungle, they build a nest for a home, much as does a bird. The nest is usually built large enough for the family, and if the latter be very numerous, then the nests are of a very large size. Into this place they all turn and snuggle and turn like kittens. Sometimes the foliage will grow together and form a sort of natural covering, but there is never any attempt at constructing a protection from the rain and storms, and it is a marvel how they endure them. Sometimes in a good piece of jungle, hunfreds of those nest-houses are found together.

Collapse is Coming soon or late, when the stomach and di-gestive and nutritive system begin to fail. It must be so. Food is the body's life. But food must be digested, before it can nourish the body. It is not what we eat but what we digest that feeds us. Don't neglect the first warnings of stom-ach trouble. The timely use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is a medicine for the cure of dis-cases of the stomach and organs of di-gestion and nutrition will in ninety-eight cases out of a hundred result in a permanent cure. The percentage of cures is based on actual figures and facts, recorded in the treatment of hundreds of thousands of sick people. The "Discovery" always helps. It almost always cures.

"I was troubled with indigestion for about two years." writes Wm. Bowker, Esq., of Juliaetta, Latah Co., Idaho. "I tried different doctors and remedies but to no avail, until I wrote to you and you told me what to do. I suffered with a pain in my stomach and left side and thought that it would kill me. Now I am all right. I can do my work new without pain and I don't have that tired feeling that I used to have. Five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets' cured me."

Problem Still Far From Being Solved in Windsor.

Separate School Advocates May Lease Two Buildings From the P. S. Board.

Although the education department has decided that the Windsor school board has no authority to transfer schools to establish Catholic Separate schools, there is every indication that the change will come soener or later. The Catholics here are somewhat divided on the question. Some have ex-pressed pleasure with the department's answer, while others think Separate schools are the only proper institutions in which to instruct their children.

Bishop McEvay is expected in the city on Wednesday to attend the semi-annual ecclesiastical conference. The situation will e discussed then. be discussed then.

Rev. Fr. Brady said this morning that special legislation will be asked to invest the board with authority to transfer the schools. He said another school would be built to accommodate all the pupils.

The special committee of the board of education selected to deal with the petition will meet to-night. They have received official notice of their inability to transfer Failing all other measures to get the property transferred, the Separate school advocates will, it is said, make an effort to lease St. Alphonsus and St. Francois schools.

It would be observed that one question was ignored by the education department, namely, that as to the legality of the present system in Windsor.

Johnson, it is said, wrote his "Rasselas" in the evenings of one week, in order, by the sale of the manuscript, to defray the funeral expenses of his
