

THE ACADIAN,
WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 10, 1885

REMOVED.
Since our last issue we have removed our office to two doors west, over the Custom House, where we have had rooms fitted up especially for us. We have found the office in the Higgins' Building too small for us for some time, and as we intend enlarging soon, we were compelled to make the change. Our new office is much more convenient and we think will be much more attractive when finished, which will, we hope, be very soon. The entrance to our new office is on the east side of the building and we will be pleased to have any of our friends call in and see us at any time. We were sorry to be compelled to miss our regular issue last week, and hope our readers will pardon it. In the future we will aim, as in the past, to give our readers full value for every cent that they may favor us with. Come in and see us and bring your friends subscription with you.

LIGHT WINES.

We see by the despatches that the senate is insisting on the passage by the commons of their amendment to the Scott Act, and that they consider their amendment to be in the interests of temperance. Yes, interests of temperance with a vengeance. Pass that amendment and our country, almost rid of this curse, will be filled to overflowing with grogeries of all degrees of wickedness. Perhaps that sublime array of old tottides called the senate with their immense talents will provide a way of determining how a man is to know just how much per cent of alcohol he is drinking with his wine. Every man his own alcohol meter will be the style and no doubt an immense business will be done in fitting up temperance(?) people with test gauges so that they can keep within the bounds of the law.

EXCURSION.

We had the pleasure of attending the excursion to Parrsboro' with "Evangeline" Division, S. of T., on Tuesday last and spent a very enjoyable day. The weather, which was rather forbidding in the morning, turned out all that could be desired. About 150 persons took the stmr. Hiawatha at Horton Landing and we left the wharf at about 7.45 a. m. The trip across was not as pleasant as it would have been on account of the dense fog, but we arrived safely at the "snag" at about 10 o'clock where the time was spent much as usual on such excursions, some took teams and went to the village, some stayed at the "snag," some went to Partridge Island, and all seemed to enjoy themselves very much. We were among the number who went to the village and we found Parrsboro', although not quite as lively as we have seen it, looking business-like and industrious. At four o'clock the excursionists assembled at the boat and at about 4.20 the lines were cast off and the steamer left the pier for Horton Landing. The sail back across the basin was lovely, the sky perfectly clear and the water as still as a mill-pond. When about half way home a small black cloud was seen to rise from the southern horizon and spread with great rapidity until the whole sky was darkened and it became evident that we were to have a shower, the one thing needed to complete the day. When off Boot Island it struck us, and a general scamper for the cabin ensued. The rain fell in torrents for about twenty minutes when it cleared away and when we arrived in the river the sun was again shining brightly. The steamer was made fast to the wharf and before the disembarkation began, Mr A. McN. Patterson in a few words moved that the thanks of the party be tendered to Captain Masters and crew of the Hiawatha, and the managers of the excursion for the very careful and pleasant way in which the excursion had been conducted. The motion was seconded by Rev. Mr Brown, and unanimously passed, after which the excursionists dispersed to their homes tired and happy, and hoping soon to enjoy such another excursion.

MEMORIAL.

The following is a copy of an Address presented by "Prescott" Grange to Mrs Enoch Eaton on the death of her husband:—
Grange Room, June 7th, 1885.
Whereas it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to sorely afflict Prescott Grange in removing by death our Worthy Overseer, Brother Enoch Eaton, one whom we all loved and respected as a brother, as a friend, and above all as a Christian. And when we consider that we shall never see him nor listen to his words of wisdom again in our meetings, we feel that we have been afflicted in very deed. But Worthy Master, Sisters and Brothers, we have the consolation that we do not mourn as those without hope. We believe that our dear brother has left such evidence of his christian principles that we can fully rest assured that he is in possession of the great passport that will insure him an abundant entrance into the rest that remains for the people of God. And while we have sustained so great a loss, we believe to him it is great gain.
Therefore resolved that we condole with our sister, Mrs Eaton, in this, her sore trial of deep affliction and would remind her that the widow's God is ever ready to give comfort and grace to sustain her in her painful bereavement. And in His own time, she and her companion will meet again in that upper and better world, where there is no more pain nor death, and where an eternity will be spent in singing praises to Him that sitteth on the throne forever and ever.
(Sgd) In behalf of Prescott Grange.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editors of the ACADIAN.
GENTLEMEN: As editors are supposed to know everything and to be ready to impart their knowledge to others, I take the liberty of asking a few questions, through the columns of your valuable paper, in reference to matters in our village. I have observed that almost every Sabbath during the hours of church service, many persons habitually hitch their horses to the fences of private individuals contiguous to the several churches, thus causing their horses and carriages to stand across the side-walk, wholly obstructing it, causing annoyance to those residing opposite. Now I wish to inquire if it is proper or allowable that such obstruction should exist in our village? If not, how are they to be prevented? Who are the proper persons to apply to for redress? Who are responsible for the droppings upon the side paths during such time, and who should remove them?
I understand that yards have been provided by the various churches here for the purpose of securing the horses and carriages of those attending services thereat. The why, in the name of common decency or Christian charity, are they, these encumbrances and nuisances, allowed?
Wolfville, June 9th, 1885.
[Apply to the Commissioners of Streets for the information above asked for.—Ed.]

To the Editors of the ACADIAN.

Messrs Editors:—Your readers will have seen how the "Senate-Amendment" to the Scott Act was dealt with in the Commons, and the country saved from the evil effects of an increased sale and consumption of alcoholic liquors. The Amendment exempted ale, wine, beer, cider, and all drinks containing not more than 12% of alcohol; thus opening wide the door to deception and the safely illicit sale of all the rest. One of our Nova Scotia Senators, I believe, has the honor of moving that Amendment, and the Senate of passing it, and the people will not forget it. If my memory serves me, Dr Almon of Halifax is the father of that Amendment. No division was attempted in the Commons on the Amendment as it stood. Jamieson moved, "that it be not concurred in," and Small moved in amendment, that it should not be applicable to counties which had already passed the Scott Act, but to such as should hereafter vote for it. A division took place on this amendment of Small's and it was lost—78 to 86—a majority of only 8 against this modified form of the Senate's Amendment. The Montreal Witness gives the names for and against. Among those names I cannot find that of our member for King's, D. B. Woodworth. Where was he when this vote was taken? The temperance people of King's would like to know. It may be of some importance to them and him when next election comes on.
Yours truly,
A TEMPERATE LIB-CON.

"NOTA BENE" TO "A REVISOR."

In reading a London paper some short time since, my eye fell upon a brief item, which I thought was applicable, in a certain degree, to Nova Scotia; and so I copied it for the ACADIAN. I performed the work hastily, as the paper was just on the eve of being printed, and forgot to state the item was borrowed. Indeed I did not attach much importance to the scrap in any way; which was probably the cause of my neglect to acknowledge. It never occurred to me that I was setting a trap; still less, if possible, that it would catch any one; and least of all that a wide-awake and well-informed man like "A Revisor" would be so nicely caught. "A Revisor," it proves, took the whole thing seriously, and applied the wail item to Nova Scotia, King's County, and Ward No.—The old adage about the "cap" is unavoidably suggested. If that useful appendage of the human head fits so exactly, as "A Revisor" intimates, it would be hard to forbid its use, and he is therefore welcome to wear it to his heart's content.

Possibly "Revisor" is setting a trap for me; but as I cannot see it, though warned by his fate, I must go on and run the risk. If he is not, either in humor or in malice, plotting against me, I would innocently suggest that it is no matter whether there are "three Lists posted up" in as many "public places," or not, provided no one knows, or can discover, where the places are. The List is certainly not to be found in any of the most public places of one of the Wards, at least, in King's County, which I could mention; and I have not been fortunate enough as yet to meet with any person, who has seen the document or knows where it is to be found. If I might be allowed to borrow the words of my reviewer, I would say "Try again," Mr Revisor, and see if you cannot hit upon some "public places," which some one can find.
But I have a graver and more unpleasant duty to perform. There was no reason, and can be no excuse, for gratuitously insulting Mr John Best, who did not write the article signed "Nota Bene," and knew nothing about it. If public affairs may not be discussed without such assaults upon private and innocent individuals, they had better not be discussed at all. I do not know whether Mr B. is a conservative or a liberal, and I do not care; all I ask is that he receive the treatment which a gentleman is always glad to accord to any and every one, whatever may be his political opinions. "A Revisor" is evidently a scholar, and I have enjoyed his article as a literary production; he is therefore acquainted with the form of argument styled, "petitio principii." Is he, or is he not, aware that he is using it, when he assumes, as the tenor of his article shows, that votes are never manufactured as the London paper humorously states they sometimes are, and as I may gratefully tell him, and can prove, that they are not unfrequently manufactured in Nova Scotia; "Oaths" or no oaths to the contrary notwithstanding.
June 26, '85.      NOTA BENE.

To the Editors of the ACADIAN.
Messrs Editors:—Can you not say something to stimulate the people of this village to more carefulness about the appearance of the streets? Their condition is not at all creditable. Horses and cows have travelled on the side-walks and given them in many places the condition of a poorly kept barn-yard. Weeds and tall grass grow along the edges. Papers and litter from some of the shops are tossed out of doors and left to blow about to the disgust of all persons who have any sense for cleanliness, and things generally have an uncared for appearance that does not speak well for the character of the residents of Wolfville. We have not much that is costly or grand to show visitors but we might please them and do ourselves good by a little more effort to make our side-walks and street corners cleanly and tidy. ONE INTERESTED.
Parsons' Purgative Pills make new rich blood, and will completely change the blood in the entire system in three months. "Any person who will take one pill a night from one to twelve weeks may be restored to sound health, if such a thing is possible.
Dr Slater, F. O. S. L., L. R. C. P. England, Consulting Physician Provincial and City Hospital, Lecturer on Diseases of Women and Children Halifax Medical College, writes: "I have had many opportunities of testing EAGLE'S PHOSPHORINE and comparing its action with the Emulsions and preparations of oil in the market, and I may state that I believe it to be the best preparation now offered to the public."
Life is full of disappointments. We recently offered to cure a bad case of Rheumatism for a year's subscription in advance, but just as we were on the point of lifting the shekels, a sympathizing friend suggested Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, and the money and the patient vanished instanter.

EUREKA!

Found! a Plum Tree that will not Black Knot!
The Masters Plum Tree has stood the test 40 years in Kentville, King's County, Nova Scotia. Chas. A. Masters, of Kentville, found this tree growing on lands now owned by Judge G. A. Blanchard forty years ago, and removed the tree to his garden in the village, where it now stands a healthy bearing tree, and is now owned by me. There are scores of trees throughout the village in bearing from 4 to 20 years old which bear every year, and not a vestige of black knot appears on one of them. The tree is an annual bearer of rapid growth, growing tall not spreading. The Plum is quite large, purple color, and of excellent quality. It is the best preserving plum grown, and sells higher than any plum brought into the market. Last year, while the crop was immense, this plum readily brought $4.00 per bushel, $2.00 more than any other variety offered for sale. We have several hundred first class trees to offer for the Fall planting. That this is the best and most profitable Plum Tree to plant that is grown in the Dominion of Canada, and that it will not black knot we refer the planters of this delicious fruit to F. S. Masters, Barrister, of whom we purchased the original tree; also to Chas. A. Masters, G. A. Blanchard (Judge), J. R. Blanchard, H. B. Webster, M. D., J. E. Muloney, M. D., Ohio Eaton, John Byrne, T.
