

AN ESSEX COUNTY MIRACLE.

How an Old Lady was Released from Suffering.

Sizing Testimony of a Reliable Witness Added to the Already Long Chain of Evidence—Why suffer When the Means of Cure are at hand?

From the Leamington Post. Mrs. Mary Olmstead, a highly respected and well-known lady residing south of the village of Wessley, eight miles from Leamington, has been the subject of an experience that has excited so much comment in the vicinity of the lady's home that the Post believes it will prove of general interest.

Proceeding to the handsome farm residence, we were ushered into a room where sat the great old lady. Upon enquiry she informed us that she was in her eightieth year, and for one of her years she is the picture of health. She expressed her readiness to make public the particulars of her suffering and cure, stating that while she did not care to figure prominently in the newspapers yet if her testimony would relieve others suffering as she had done, she would forego any scruples in the matter. She then related the story of her case as follows: "About six years ago I was stricken with sciatic rheumatism, which first made its appearance in my left knee, but gradually took possession of all my limbs. Within three months after its first appearance I was unable to leave my bed, and day and night suffered the most excruciating pain. My limbs were swollen to more than twice their natural size, and drew out of all natural shape. My feet were also badly swollen, and my right arm was in the shape of a semi-circle. For three long years I suffered in this manner, being unable to put a foot to the floor, the only way I could move around was by being wheeled in a chair. My appetite gradually left me until I had no desire for food of any kind, and I got very thin and weak. During all this time I kept doctoring with the medical practitioners of the neighborhood, and swallowed gallons of medicine which cost my husband much money, but I am unable to say that I received any benefit from this medicine. My agony kept increasing and my system growing weaker, till many times death would have been a welcome relief to my sufferings. After reading in the newspapers about the many cures effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I decided to try them. My case was a stubborn one, and it was not until I had taken half a dozen boxes that I began to feel an improvement. I continued taking the pills, however, and never had a relapse, and to-day I am as hearty and healthy as I was before the rheumatism came on. I am now able to knit and sew as fast as any young person, while for years my fingers were as stiff as needles. I owe my recovery entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and will always have a good word to say for them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y., at 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Sold only in boxes, the wrapper around which bears the company's trade mark. Do not be persuaded to try something else.

From our position on the "Hill" we once more gaze upon the beautiful panorama of mountain, river, valley, sea and sky spread out before us, with bold Blomidon raising its lofty head in the distance and we understand why Wolfville is endeared to the hearts of the old students. As we walk the old familiar streets we are struck with the fact that Wolfville is not standing still. New residences greet us every hand, and now our walks are no longer bounded by the monotonous confines of Main street, for we can take a skip through Rand Avenue, named, by the way, in honor of our general postmaster, whose fine new block adds much to the beauty of Main street, and find ourselves on College Avenue extension. And who is that individual with visored cap and brass buttons, who surveys with an air of importance mingled with somewhat of anxiety the scenes at the street corners, and along the sidewalks? Ah! it is a policeman; he has come at last. Let not the students be wanting in due appreciation of the responsibility of our general friend, and when we have victories to celebrate we may safely look for the same consideration that would be granted to the celebrators of a political triumph, or the participants in a social parade—Acadia Athenaeum.

Doctors Interested. They cannot but accept the testimony of two of their Professional Brethren.

Montreal, Nov. 12.—The letters of Dr. McCormick, of Richmond, and of Dr. E. A. Rose, of Portland, recently published over their own signatures and testifying to their complete cure from Bright's disease and Diabetes respectively, by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, have established to the satisfaction of medical men generally, that the pills do all that is claimed of them by their manufacturers. Both physicians are known as men well up in their professions, whose word can be absolutely relied upon, and who rarely make mistakes. The result of these letters will be an enormous sale of Dodd's Kidney Pills in Montreal.

Mother—I cannot allow you to play with those naughty children, Willie. They are rough and rude. Willie—But you don't mind my fighting with them, mother, do you?

Circumstances are like clouds, continually gathering and bursting; while we are laughing, the seed of trouble is put into the wide arable land of events.

"My dear old son holds a position of trust, eh? Cashier in a bank?" "No! manager of a life insurance house."

Scraps for Odd Moments.

Its funny, but a speaking countenance is most expressive when the mouth is shut.

Garfield Tea cures sick-headache. Creditor—Can't you meet your bills? Hard-up—You bet; I meet them every-where.

Garfield Tea is sold by all druggists. He: "Oh, I'm not so big a fool as you think." She: "Of course not; that were impossible."

Not what we say, but what the people say, that Hawker's catarrh cures, cures. He: "I hear Miss Oldgirl is going to marry Tommy Small." She: "Is that so? I wonder if he knows it?"

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Its record of forty years is one of triumph over blood diseases. He: "Charlotte, I love you; can you return my affection?" She: "I'm afraid I'll have to, as I have no use for it."

Send a 2-cent stamp to Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., for a set of their album cards. Warden—How's the campaign going up your way? Sort of close contest? Sellers (gloomily)—Closest I ever saw. Neither side is giving up a biased cent.

The sight or smell of food sometimes sickens you, that's because your bilious. Hawker's liver pills cure biliousness and all bilious ills. Yes, sir, said the clerk briskly, we have lace of all kinds. Would you like to see Valenciennes or point lace? It's a shoe lace I want, explained the customer.

Rheumatism; yes and neuralgia too, are greatly relieved and often entirely cured by the use of Pain-Killer—Try It. Etc. for New 2-cs. Bottle. He—Is your sister perfectly independent on her wheel now? Little brother—Gracious, yes; she's run over six people to-day without giving any warning.

A stimulant is often needed to nourish and strengthen the roots and to keep the hair a natural color. Hall's Hair Renewer is the best tonic for the hair. Becker—I see by the posters that Footlights, the tragedian, travels under big wife's management. Decker—So do most men, but they don't advertise it.

If you do not know how good a remedy Garfield Tea really is for constipation and sick headache, send a postal card to D. Densmore & Co., 271 Queen Street, to-day.

"A young Jimmie improving in his violin work?" "I dunno. Either he's improvin' or we're gitum' used to it."

Borax—My wife makes a little money so long way these times. Sam Jones—So does mine, unfortunately. She's always subscribing for missions in Africa and Polynesia.

Consumption and lung troubles are the cause of fully one-third of the mortality in America. Prevention is better than cure. If you catch a cold, take at once some of Hawker's balsam of tans and wild cherry. It is a sure cough cure.

Fair Maiden (from town)—How savagely that cow looks at me! Farmer Hayseed—It's your red parrot, num.

Fair Maiden—Dear me! I knew it was a little bit out of fashion, but I didn't suppose a country cow would notice it. Do you think the millennium will come if the whole world is converted to the Salvation Army? said a New York newspaper interviewer to Gen. Booth.

If the newspaper were converted, it would be a very long time in that direction, observed General Booth. That ended the interview.

The Farmer and His Gun. BY TALLER MORRAN. Great Scott, Maria, I do wish you would quit your talking to me about Prohibition. If men want drink they are going to have it, and all your Prohibition laws in the world ain't going to stop them from getting it.

"But see here Joshua, don't you know?" "Yes, I do know considerable more about it than you women do. Why only yesterday, that lightning rod man told me that he could get all the liquor he wanted to in Prohibition States, I am in favor of repealing all prohibitory law as long as they are violated in that manner. Maria, the only way to deal with this question is to persuade the drinkers to quit—sign the pledge. Moral suasion will do more good in one day than prohibition that does not prohibit in a year. Then make the rum-sellers pay a high license. That's what I call practical temperance."

CHAPTER II. "Maria, this 'ere stealing from my orchard has got to stop or I'll get a law to enforce that law! If it is violated every day, and wouldn't it be better to repeal all laws against stealing until the public was ready to enforce them?" "Public sentiment be hanged! That shows how much you women know about practical matters."

"But Joshua, you can't make men honest by law, you know, and the only way you can settle this thieving question is to persuade the thieves not to steal—get them to sign the pledge, you know and—"

"Maria are you getting crazy?" "No, Joshua, I'm getting to be a little 'practical,' don't you see. As I was saying, get the thieves to sign the pledge, never to steal again, and make those who refuse, pay a high license for stealing. That's what I call practical work."

"Great Scott, Maria, that a dandy legislator you would make! Under the magnificent schemes of your fertile brain, all great problems would be solved in two weeks. Now, I propose to show you that the law against stealing can be enforced."

CHAPTER III. "Well, Maria, I have been to town, bought a gun, have hired Bill Sykes to handle it and keep a sharp lookout for the thieves and hang away at the first one that shows his head over the fence."

"Well, Joshua, you know that prohibition doesn't prohibit, and here you have gone and spent $20 or $30 for a gun that will do no good. If men want to steal they are going to, and all your prohibition laws in the world won't stop them."

"For any sake, Maria, stop your confounded nonsense. Wait for a few weeks and we'll see if the thieves can be snatched or not."

CHAPTER IV. Well, Joshua, six weeks have gone by and the thieving goes on just the same. Now what are you going to do about it?" "You just wait and see."

"That's exactly what I have been doing. Prohibition does not prohibit, does it?" "Not yet, but just you wait."

"Yes, the gun is all right?" "Yes, the gun is first class."

"Gun loaded?" "Yes, the gun has been properly loaded all the time."

"And the stealing has been going right along?"

"Maria, you are enough to drive any man crazy, and if you let up for a few minutes I will tell you why the thieving has not stopped. I have just discovered that Bill Sykes is one of the thieves."

"Oh that's it, is it? Well, now, since you are one of these non-partisan temperance men, your next move will be to get up a petition addressed to Bill Sykes, begging him to do the work he was hired to do—Oh, perhaps, you will organize a law and order league to force Bill Sykes to enforce the law!"

"Maria, I am not a natural born fool, and I want you to understand it once for all. I have discharged Bill Sykes and hired a man in his place who has no sympathy with thieving or thieves."

Now, I expect that prohibition will prohibit."

Joshua, if you had the sense of a fresh water clam you would learn a lesson from this. You complain that prohibition of the liquor traffic does not prohibit and that the liquor men violate every law passed for the protection of society. Yet you and the rest of your party, vote men into office like Bill Sykes, who are a part of a gang of law breakers. In stead of voting to discharge these men and put Prohibitionists into office, you vote to elect the same old crowd and then whine that prohibition does not prohibit and you cannot make men good by law, and such cowardly nonsense. Joshua, vote to discharge forever all the Bill Sykes and place the prohibitionists in the hands of prohibitionists, who have no sympathy with rum-selling or rum-selling."

"Oh, Law, these women! these women!"
