BIJOU THEATRE

"Smiling George" Walsh in William Fox's comedy drama, "This is the Life," will be seen at the Bijou Theatre today and Thursday.

This is a particularly good picture because not only is George Walsh the star, but his brother R. A. Walsh, the man who put on the screen such plays as "The Honor System," "The Conqueror," "The Innocent Sinner," "Betrayed," is the man who directed the making of the picture. R. A. is known for the many human touches he puts into pictures and in "This is the Life" he kept his brother busy with some exciting stunts. The hardest stunts R. A. asked George to do George did with an apparent feeling that that WAS the life.

George is the story-teller for South America to guard his father's shipment of munitions. He meets a young lady, and a count. He believes they are part of a motion picture company when, as a matter of fact, the lady is the daughter of an American consul and the count is a starter of revolutions. George joins the count and doesn't wake up until the government army in the South American Republic catches him and orders him shot. He escapes and also rescues the lady from the count's band and of course is rewarded with her love.

DISTINCTIVE MODELS IN ARTISTIC

Fall Millinery Creations

September is here, and the beginning of a new season. Dame Fashion is displaying her advanced styles in Fall and Winter Millinery and Ready-to-Wear.

A wonderful assortment of Hats are on display in our Showroom. Hats possessing that indefinable something which distinguishes them from the ordinary. Hats which are smart, but in an exquisite refined way—expensive, yet made of the best of fabrics and the most dainty trimmings. The character of the hat is characterized in each creation, many being New York pattern models. Practically every type of Hat is on show, yet every one is something surpassing those of previous seasons. The most exaggerated creations examined in detail show unusual beauty and artistry of line, yet the extreme simplicity of the total effect is extremely surprising.

We have an exceptional showing of cleverly designed tailored and semi-dress Hats, in corded silks, velvet and fancy colored felts, with pretty bead trimming, pretty patent effects, and smart fabric creations.

We will be pleased to show you our First Fall Display, which is now open in pleasing variety.

AUTUMN USHERS IN THE Early Fall Suit Display

The Fall and Winter Suit Styles are wonderfully neat and exceptionally becoming.

Our Suits are made especially for us by our own guaranteed tailors, and they have shown a decided effort, not only to charm and please, but have obtained the best of wools and tweeds on the market—materials the quality of which cannot be bought today.

The Coat Styles this season are very smart, being made in slightly longer lines and also in a style which can be buttoned up to the neck, with the stylish collar finishing. All makes are belted and slightly full.

Millinery made in the different widths is the most strikingly charming, especially for the series, although the patterns are still favored.

The Dresses, Trousers Suits are tailored very strong, being made in a style which is always stylish, and the new Fall models surpass anything shown before in shades of grey, brown, green and other color combinations, our showing of Tweeds is exclusive and up-to-date.

Prices in Suits range from $25.00 to $50.00.
